BALTIMORE MARKETS.

From the "American" of Thursday.

GRAIN.—There is no Grain of any consequences coming to market, the total offerings to-day not exceeding 1,200 bushels as follows, viz: 900 bushels Wheat; 70 do. Corn, and 200 do. Oats. Wheat is exceedingly scarce and is much wanted for milling purposes, hence prices remain steady. There was a sale of 300 bushels good fair old white at 140 cts. In reds there was nothing done, but we quote the range at 120a125 cts. for fair to prime; 130a135 cts. for fair white, and 140a150 cts. for good to prime old parcels of do. New Wheat if here would probably bring a shade higher rates. There were only 70 bushels Corn at market, and no sales were reported. In the absence of sales we quote yellow at 50a52 cts. and fair to prime parcels of white at 60a65 cts. Oats are steady with a good demand for them. There was a sale of 200 bushels good Maryland at 30 cts., and we quote prime do. at 31 cts.

The Piracy of the St. Nicholas.

CAPTURE OF CAPT. THOMAS, THE "FRENCH LADY" AND COMPANIONS.

Lieut. Carmichael, of the Baltimore Police, captured on Tuesday, Capt. Thomas alias the "French Lady," whose exploit in seizing the steamer St. Nicholas, was so boastingly proclaimed by the Secessionists as a "brilliant exploit." The particulars of the capture we find in the Baltimore papers of Wednesday.

Lieutt. Carmichael, who had been on a visit to Fair Haven to arrest one of the rioters of the 19th of April, took passage on his return, on the steamer Mary Washington, without any knowledge of those on board. Capt. Kirwin and other officers of the St. Nicholas were on board, returning to the city, and Lieut. Carmichael soon ascertained that among the passengers were seven or eight of the captors, with Captain Thomas himself, who, doubtless exhilarated by the success of their first achievement, were disposed to make another venture. As soon as satisfactory information was obtained, and each one of the party fully identified, Lieut. Carmichael directed the commander of the Mary Washington to proceed, on reaching the harbor to stop at Fort McHenry. On hearing this Thomas drew his pistol, and calling his men around him, threatened to seize and throw Carmichael and Horner overboard. The latter drew their revolvers, and the other male passengers standing up with them, they compelled Thomas and his companions to remain quiet. On reaching the Fort wharf, the Lieutenant went up and informed Gen. Banks of his important capture. The General instantly ordered out a company of infantry, who secured all the accused excepting Thomas, for whom search was made for an hour and a half. He was then found concealed in the drawer of a bureau in the ladies' cabin.—He and the other prisoners were marched to the fort and placed in confinement.

The Grand Jury of the U. S. District Court has since found an indictment against Thomas for treason and piracy, in the seizure of the steamer St. Nicholas, and he has been removed from Fort McHenry to Baltimore city jail.

Letter from Rev. Peter Cartwright.

[From the St. Louis Christian Advocate.]

Bro. Muslin—I send you a five dollar bill on a Missouri bank, which you will credit to my account. Alas! for Illinois; our money is nearly all dead in our pockets. You should have had all I owe you, but the rags died on my hands. If your own money is dead, bury it and preach its funeral sermon, but do not charge the expense to me, but to the Secessionists. I hope General Lyon will catch tory Jackson and hang him on the first tree he comes to. Union men ought to arm themselves from head to heels, and shoot every traitor they come to. If God will have mercy on me, I would rather die than that this glorious Government should be overthrown. If we must be destroyed, I hope the Lord will do it, and not give us into the power of tories. The army worm is making a dreadful sweep of our meadows, wheat and corn. We are threatened with drouth here. We have had no rain for four weeks. If the Union men need help to kill traitors, call on our State. Rivers of blood may flow, but this Union must stand though the heavens fall.

PETER CARTWRIGHT.

Pleasant Plains, July 1, 1861.

THE HON. HENRY MAY'S ALLEGED MISSION.—The Washington Star of last evening says: "We can assure the public that neither the Government nor any member of it has the slightest lot or part, direct or indirect, in the current visit, errand or mission (whichever it may be), of the Hon. Henry May, Member of Crongress of Maryland, to Richmond. It is understood that he did apply to the President to be authorized to carry some expression from the Government here to the oligarchy in Richmond concerning the affair of the times, and was promptly given to understand that the Government had no propositions whatever, or even suggestions, to make, and would grant him no pass as an envoy or messenger from Washington to Richmond. He did, however, obtain a pass as a private citizen, travelling upon his own business, to go beyond the lines of the forces of the United States."

GOING TO WASHINGTON.—"So De Kay," the war correspondent of the Louisville Courier, writing from the Confederate camp near Winchester, on the 29th of June, says:

"Gen. Johnston and Staff remain here, with the larger portion of the army of the Shenandoah. It may be that he will move soon and of course suddenly, and that we will take possession of the Capital in time to enjoy Independence Day."

OVER a million and a half dollars worth of property was destroyed by fire on the 4th and 5th inst. The most disastrous of these fires were at Boston, which destroyed property to the value of half a million; and at East Albany which consumed a half million dollars worth.

JOHF A. FOREMAN AND OTHERS vs.

BENJAMIN S. START & OTHERS.

Bill on the Equity Side of the Circuit Court for Kent County.

June 20th, 1861.

THE object of the Bill is to obtain a Decree for the sale of from Sixty to Eighty Acres of land in Worton in Kent County, Maryland, commonly called "Boon's Meadows," "Caleb's Discovery," and "Resurvey," to divide the proceeds among the persons entitled. The Bill states that Jacob Foreman died seized of said lands, about 1795, leaving eight children and heirs at law, to wit: Jacob, Phebe, Maria, William, Ezekiel, Edward, John, and Mary—That John A. Foreman and Jane Pearce (wife of William Pearce) are the descendants of Jacob; Phebe died without issue: That the said Benjamin S. Start and his brothers and sisters are the descendants of Maria (who intermarried with Michael Lyzer,) that William is dead with no issue now living; that Elizabeth Fowler (wife of Thomas Fowler) is the descendant of Ezekiel; that Edward, Jane and Wesley Foreman, Charles Wesley Page, Eunuce Page, Henrietta Page, Clara Ann Page, are the descendants of Edward; that James A Foreman, M. E. Breed (wife of D. F. Breed,) Adeline E. Foreman and William E. Foreman, and S. E. Derrickson (wife of L. L. Derrickson,) are the descendants of John; that Mary intermarried with James Grimes, and is dead without issue; that the said John A. Foreman and wife, William Pearce and wife, and Thomas Fowler and wife have conveyed their interest in the said Real Estate to Hyland P. Smith, and that the said real estate is incapable of division, and that it would be to the interest and advantage of all parties that the same should be sold and the proceeds be distributed according to their respective proportions.

It is thereupon ordered and adjudged that the complainants by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks, before the twenty second day of July next, give notice to the absent Defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, and warn them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the twenty-second day of October next to answer the premises, and show cause if any they have, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.

ABRAHAM HURLOCK

AGAINST

ESTRANGE GOULD AND HESTER J. GOULD.

Bill on the Equity Side of the Circuit Court for Kent County.

June 19th, 1861.

THE object of this suit is to procure a Decree for the sale of certain mortgaged premises in Kent County, which were on the fifteenth day of March in the year Eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, Mortgaged by the Defendants to the Complainant. The Bill states that on or about the fifteenth day of March in the year Eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, the said Defendants conveyed certain Real Estate in Kent County, containing Four Hundred and One Acres, more or less, which is particularly described in the said Bill and its accompanying Exhibit, unto the Complainant by way of Mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of Six Thousand Three Hundred and Ninety Dollars and Eighty Eight Cents, with legal interest thereon from the first day of January in the year Eighteen hundred and fifty eight, payable by instalments as therein stated: That the instalment of Fifteen Hundred and Ninety Seven Dollars and Seventy-two Cents, due and payable on the first day of January in the year Eighteen hundred and sixty-one, with interest on Three Thousand One Hundred and Ninety-five Dollars and Forty-four Cents from the first day of January Eighteen hundred and sixty, to the first day of January Eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and interest from the said last named period on the said sum of Fifteen Hundred and Ninety-Seven Dollars and Seventy-two Cents; remain due and unpaid to the Complainant; And that the Decree may pass for a sale of the mortgaged premises, and stand as security for the remaining and last instalment of said Mortgage debt due on the first day of January next.

It is therefore adjudged and ordered, that the Complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, once in each of four sucessive weeks before the twenty-second day of July next, give notice to the said absent Defendants of the object and substance of this Bill; and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor, on or before the twenty second day of October next, to answer the premises, and shew cause if any they have why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.
