PUBLIC MEETING.

At a very large and respectable meeting of the Friends of the Union, held in the Court House in Chestertown, on Saturday, August 10th, 1861, for the purpose of appointing Delegates to the State Gubernatorial Convention to be held in the City of Baltimore on the 15th inst., and to organize the Union Party: James B. Ricaud was called to the chair; William F. Smyth and John Frazier, Jr. were appointed Vice Presidents; and Simon Wickes, Secretary.

On motion, the chair appointed the following committee, who retired for consultation, viz: George Vickers, William F. Smyth, Joseph Usilton, George Leary and Joshua Clark. The committee returned, and by their chairman submitted the following report:

Names of persons to be voted for as delegates to the Gubernatorial Convention: James B. Ricaud, Edward Wilkins, C.W. Spry, George Leary, Thos. D. Burgess, Joseph P. Ireland.

The meeting unanimously adopted this portion of the report, and resolved that if any of the appointees should be unable to attend he should be empowered to fill his vacancy.

The committee further reported the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we heartily endorse and adopt the sentiments and views of the patriotic CRITTENDEN, embraced in his resolution which passed the House of Representatives of the U. States at its late session by 117 ayes to 2 nays: "That the present deplorable civil war has been forced upon the country by the disunionists of the Southern States now in revolt against the Constitutional Government and in arms around the Capital; that, in this national emergency, Congress, banishing all feeling of mere passion or resentment, will recollect only its duty to the whole country; that this war is not waged upon our part in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, nor for the purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of the States, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution and to preserve the Union with all the dignity, equality, and rights of the several States unimpaired; and that as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease."

2. Resolved, That we are the true friends of Peace, have manifested it by our persistent opposition to secession, the sole and acknowledged cause of the present civil war, and shall hail with unaffected delight any compromise for the restoration of quietude and order in our country, whenever it can be effected with due regard to the dignity and interests of the nation and the preservation of the Union.

3. Resolved. That while we sustain the President of the United States, in all proper efforts to maintain the honor, dignity, and union of our country, we are not the adherents of Mr. Lincoln, nor justifiers of the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, nor the supporters of the extreme views of the party that elected him, nor the advocates of any violation of the laws or the Constitution, by whomsoever committed.

4. Resolved, That the peaceful condition of Maryland, and her freedom from war, anarchy and violence, are solely due to the wise and firm course of the Executive of our State and the conservative course of its Union men, and we deprecate any other policy as fraught with the dangers of secession and civil war.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The meeting was addressed by James B. Ricaud and Geo. Vickers, Esqs. Mr. Ricaud contended that "Peace" meant Secession, and Secession meant WAR.

Mr. Vickers, in the course of his remarks, stated that, in his opinion, if the proposed "peace" was secured by an acknowledgment of the independence of the Southern Confederacy, scarcely a month would elapse before the cry of Secession and the standard of revolt would be heard and raised in Maryland, based upon the recognition of the nationality of the South by the Government, and the right of Secession vindicated on the ground of a separate Secession by the Southern States. He predicted that, in such an event, civil war in the State, as well as actual conflict with the Government, would necessarily follow; and that the security and existence of the institution of slavery in Maryland were only to be found in the maintenance of the Constitution and the preservation of the Union entire.

He also stated that he would as soon think of repairing to Mount Vernon, exhuming the remains of the immortal Washington, and with his hand scattering to the winds of Heaven the ashes of that beloved one, as to recognize or sanction the heresy of Secession.

The meeting adjourned with three hearty cheers for the Union.

The Government Loan To Be Taken.

BOSTON, August 13.—William Gray, Frank Haven and J. Amory Davis have been chosen a committee by the Boston Bank Directors to confer with the committees of the New York and Philadelphia Banks in regard to the Government loan. The meeting adopted the following instructions to the Committee:

"That the Committee be directed to say to the gentlemen of the Committees from New York and Philadelphia banks that in the judgment of the gentlemen here assembled the banks and bankers of Boston and of the State of Massachusetts and its people are prepared, ready and willing and determined to do all in their power in view of their duty to themselves, their trusts and their country, to aid it in suppressing the present rebellion by furnishing men and money to the utmost extent of their ability, henceforth and forever."

HON. CHAS. J. FAULKNER, of Virginia, ex-United States Minister to Paris, was arrested at Washington on Tuesday, and held for examination. The charge against him is said to be that he participated in the purchase of arms for the Southern Confederacy whilst at Paris, and intends to take immediate command of a regiment in waiting for him at Winchester.

COL. FARNHAM of the New York Fire Zouaves, died in Washington on Wednesday from wounds received in the late battle.

BURNING OF HAMPTON.

The people of Maryland may well sympathize with those who are suffering so terribly in their sister State, Virginia, from the evils of civil war as exemplified especially in the recent burning of the fair village of Hampton, by order of Gen. Magruder, of the Confederates, under the protext of depriving the National troops of a place for "winter quarters."

The needless severity of the course the Confederates are pursuing in Virginia is revolting to all ideas of what is demanded by the direst "military necessity." All admit that the immense losses to Maryland by the destruction of property at Martinsburg and vicinity, by order of Gen. Johnston, were the result of arrant folly or the most shameful wantonness; and if the course is continued by those from other States who have taken the destinies of Virginia into their keeping, whoever may come out of the struggle with advantage, the people of Virginia will be compelled to the occupancy of a desert.

We are heartily sorry for Virginia.—Maryland is so closely connected with the Old Dominion by ties of blood, by various relationship, that every wound inflicted upon her bosom is felt by our own people. Can it be wise for those who are now managing her affairs to destroy, under pretence of saving, the State? We trust that the destruction of property adverted to will not hereafter find imitators; for at the rate the Secession leaders are progressing the whole world will cry shame upon such vandalism. In the case referred to, it would seem that the fortunes of war are converting professed friends into effective foes; and if this is continued it will not be long before there will be revolution under the very feet of the revolutionary leaders themselves, as a protection against needless cruelty.

A letter to a New York paper states that "Union lodges have been established throughout Tennessee and North Carolina!" How long will it be, with the intolerable evils bearing upon her, before the very earth will be mined throughout the State of Virginia against those who are holding her in thrall by the force of a military despotism?—American.

To the Public.

IN reply to the infamous charges and insinuations made in an ungentlemanly manner, and without provocation, by the editor of the Conservator in his issue of the 3d inst., I, as the Postmaster to whom as I am informed he referred, have in reply to say, that the non-arrival of his papers at Galena, where, in his own estimation only, his subscribers incurred such a heavy loss by their failure to reach their destination, was in consequence of either his own neglect, or poverty, or drunkenness. The day he refers to, his papers came to my office all scattered through the mail bag. I presume they had been wrapped up, but the paper being so fragile and inferior as to have been broken open before arriving at Urieville. The mail bag contained several miserably poor wrappers, made of the same kind of flimsy paper which he uses to print on, and some were wrapped in old letters. Under such circumstances how could I send his "Galena bundle" on when there was none to send? or how could I send the papers when I did not know who his subscribers were at that office? After the mail had closed, in trying to select the papers due to Harmony, I came across the "three" and forwarded them on Monday morning; the balance due to Galena, for ought I know, were put by me in the mail bag to go to the Post Offices on the Rock Hall route, for there were no envelops or wrappers on any of them, and as I received them I sent them on to Still Pond, as the most likely route to reach their owners.

With regard to the disgraceful manner in which he informs the public that there is a Conservator rogue "between Chestertown and Galena," I feel satisfied that every respectable reader of his paper will consider the source from whence it emanated; for he that is in fault at first and lies to hide it, makes it worse.

I hope in the future the Editor will be more careful. I advise him to spend a portion of the fifty dollars he offered me to "detect the rogue," for good, substantial wrapping paper, when with ordinary care in mailing, he may save himself the trouble of another expedition hunting up papers lost through his own carelessness. The next time they come to my office open and in such promiscuous confusion, they will be gathered up and returned to him to sort over and remail.

We wish him also to understand that there is a law to punish those who make false and slanderous charges, as well as for paper stealing.

BALTIMORE MARKETS.

From the Baltimore American of Thursday.

GRAIN.—The receipts of Grain at the Corn Exchange to-day were light, and footed up only 13,500 bushels as follows, viz: 7,000 bushels Wheat; 3,400 do. Corn; 2,800 do. Oats, and 350 do. Rye. Wheat was in pretty active request for both shipping and milling purpose, and prices were a shade firmer. There were, however, but few choice parcels at market. All of the offerings changed hands at 103a110 cts. for common to for reds; 112a117 cts. for good to prime do.; 115a125 cts. for medium to fair whites; 130a135 cts for good do., and 128a140 cts. for prime parcels of do. Corn was in pretty fair request, but there was nothing of any consequence offering. The only sales reported were 860 bushels good to prime white at 57a 58 cts,, and 2,500 bushels do. yellow at 48a49 cts. For Oats there was a good demand, and prices ruled steady. There were sales of 2,500 bushels fair to prime new Maryland at 25a28 cts.

JOSHUA SIMMONS AND BAUDUY SIMMONS,

Estrange Gould, Hester J. Gould, Jesse Lane, and Passmore H. Mitchell, and —— Mitchell his wife, and another.

On the Equity Side of the Circuit Court for Kent County:

AUGUST 16, 1861

THE object of this suit is to procure a Decree for a sale of certain mortgaged premises in Kent County, which were on the first day of May, 1860, mortgaged by two of the defendants Estrange Gould and Hester J. Gould, his wife, to the complainants, and to pay other liens on the said lands.

The Bill states that on or about the 1st May, 1860, the said Estrange Gould and Hester J. Gould conveyed certain real estate in Kent county, containing 401 acres more or less, and particularly described in said mortgage accompanying the said Bill as an Exhibit unto the complainants by way of mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of three thousand dollars, on or before the first day of May, 1861, and which was then due and owing from the said Estrange Gould and wife, to the complainants, with interest from the said 1st January, 1861.

That on or about the 15th day of March, 1858, the said Estrange Gould and wife executed another Deed of Mortgage on the said lands and premises to Abraham Hurlock, to secure the payment of $6390.88 with interest from the 1st January, 1858, payable by instalments, all of which are due but the last, which is due on the first day of January next; that after sundry payments made by said Estrange Gould to the said Abraham Hurlock the sum of $3492.09, including the last instalment not due as aforesaid of $1597.72, the said Hurlock did on the 18th day of July, 1861, assign and transfer the said mortgaged lands and premises and the said balance of debt and interest to a certain Jesse Lane. That on the eighth day of June, 1861, the said Estrange Gould and Hester J. Gould did by deed duly executed acknowledged and subsequently recorded for the consideration therein stated convey and alien the said lands and premises contained in said two deeds of Mortgage to Passmore H. Mitchell, all of whom are non-residents, except the said Abraham Hurlock.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the complainants by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the seventeenth day of September next, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this Bill; and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the seventeenth day of December next, to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.

TO FARMERS.

YOU are aware that by a law of the State, passed expressly for your protection, all grain offered for sale in Baltimore (with special exceptions) is required to be weighed and inspected by officers appointed by the State—they taking oath and giving bond with heavy penalty, for the faithful performance of their duty.

This law has been opposed by many of the buyers by every means their ingenuity could devise and still more persistently by many of the commission merchants. The last device is the establishment of a set of independent weighers, acting under no responsibility except to their employers (the grain buyers and commission men) upon whom they depend for their bread, but for which we have to pay as you will see. The law allows for inspection 1 cent per bushel on wheat and ½ cent on other grain and ¼ cent on the measurement. The buyer paying half; making the charge to the farmer of ⅝ of a cent on wheat and ⅜ on other grain. The independent weigher charges ¼ of a cent on all grain and ¼ for measurement making ½ cent on all grain, the farmer paying all. This you will see, makes ⅛ of a cent less on wheat and ⅛ cent more on other grain. By this dodge the farmer pays fully as much if not more to the weigher, professing to be independent, than to those under the law, loosing all the advantages of an umpire in case of rejection. From these data you may judge for yourselves on which side your interest lies. The legal inspectors are bound by every obligation to act impartially between buyer and seller—if they are not sustained we have no security for our interest. [aug10-3t.] A FARMER.

Bill on the Equity Side of the Circuit Court for Kent County.

JULY 30th, 1861.

THE object of this Bill is to obtain a Decree for the sale of certain mortgaged premises in Kent County, which were on the 29th day of November, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty, mortgaged by the defendant to the complainant.

The Bill states that on or about the twenty-ninth day of November in the year eighteen hundred and sixty, the said defendant conveyed certain Real Estate in Chestertown, in Kent county, consisting of parts of Lots Nos. 60 and 61 on High Street, and Lots or parts of Lots Nos. 64 and 65 on Calvert Street, on the Plot of said Town, with the improvements thereon, which is particularly described in the said Bill and its accompanying exhibit, unto the complainant by way of mortgage to indemnify and save harmless the said complainant from the payment of the sum of one thousand dollars to a certain Richard S Thomas due and payable on or before the twenty ninth day of May, in the year Eighteen hundred and sixty one, with interest from the date of said mortgage until paid, which said amount has not been paid by the said defendant—as provided for in said mortgage—but the complainant has had to pay the same: and that a decree may pass for a sale of the said mortgaged premises.
