TEN COPIES, $3.50!

Martial Law Proclaimed in Missouri.

General Fremont has issued a proclamation, dated August 30th, establishing Martial Law throughout the State of Missouri. The reasons which he assigns for this act are "the disorganized condition of the State—the helplessness of the civil authority—the total insecurity of life, and the devastation of property by bands of murderers and marauders, who infest nearly every county in the State, and avail themselves of the public misfortunes and the vicinity of a hostile force to gratify private and neighborhood vengeance, and who find an enemy wherever they find plunder, finally demand the severest measures to repress the daily increasing crimes and outrages which are driving off the inhabitants and ruining the State. In this condition the public safety and the success of our arms require unity of purpose without let or hinderance to the prompt administration of affairs."

The Republican, a democratic Union paper of St. Louis, says: "This is the most important document which has yet appeared in the progress of the war. The prompt visiting of the extremist penalties of martial law upon all rebels within the established military lines; the confiscation of property of persons who shall take up arms against the government, and the declaration of the absolute freedom to the slaves of all such persons; the extreme penalties to be visited upon bridge burners, railroad and telegraph destroyers, treasonable correspondence and libels, and peace destroyers of all kinds, are measures of the most extraordinary stringency; but the wisdom of their promulgation by the supreme officer in the army of the West, we are confident will be conceded by every just and loyal citizen."

The Confederate Banishing Act.

We have been listening in vain for some indignant demonstration to be made in this quarter against that tyrannical edict lately promulgated by the Confederate Congress and Mr. Jefferson Davis, which proposes to "apprehend" or expel from the Seceding States every Unionist who will not forswear his allegiance to the Union and the Constitution within "forty days." But the "peace" advocates, the quiet allies of these rampant gentlemen, who themselves desire to be "let alone," are as still as death on this subject, whilst fiercely exclaiming against the Government for in any way interfering with overt acts of treason directed toward its destruction.—By this unrighteous decree the Union men of the South are not allowed to pursue in quiet their usual avocations even; but they are constrained to become the partizans of this bold usurpation, on pain of being driven from their homes, or "apprehended" and "restrained."

Now what would be the consequences here were the President of the United States to put his hand to an edict of this kind, bearing upon the avowed advocates of rebellion, who make it their whole business to cabal against the Government? Suppose that every person of Secession proclivities was compelled, by a "forty days" decree, to leave the Union or be imprisoned! What a fierce outcry would go up in the name of human rights abridged, of constitutional privileges curtailed or destroyed! And yet, because it comes from the men who have already outraged almost every right and broken almost every law—from men who have in fact committed whatever enormity would push forward their military despotism to success, their advocates here can see no wrong in it; but more, perhaps, are ready to think it just the thing to forward their designs.

If the people do not see in acts like this the full proportions of that gigantic despotism which is casting its dark shadow upon the Seceding States, under the auspices of Mr. Davis and his friends, nothing that can be said will ever awaken them to a sense of their danger. Coolly and rapidly advancing on the high road to a military tyranny, Mr. Davis needs but to be "let alone" a little longer to insure the utter subjection of the dupes whose life blood is no more than water to advance the growth of the evil weeds he has planted. Every day demonstrates more conclusively that the Government must come to the rescue of its citizens from such a rule; every hour that passes betrays more completely the wholesale system of oppression Mr. Davis is seeking by force of arms to fasten upon the people.—Baltimore American.

From Western Virginia.

A Sharp Fight—A Union Victory.

A fight occurred on September 1st at Boone Court House, in the Kanawha region, between a body of Rebels and Unionists, resulting in the total rout of the Rebels with a loss of 30 killed and many wounded. Forty were taken prisoners. The Unionists had six wounded but none killed. During the fight the Union men set fire to the town and burned it. This place is 240 miles, in a direct line, west from Richmond.

The latest intelligence from Western Virginia is to the effect that General Rosencrans, instead of being hemmed in by General Lee, had moved with a portion of his force toward the Kanawha to cooperate with General Cox in that region against the two ex-Governors, Floyd and Wise. The defences of the Cheat River pass were committed to General Reynolds, who has also with him, we think, Capt. Benham, one of the most able and thoroughly reliable officers of the regular army.

BALTIMORE MARKETS.

From the Baltimore American of Thursday.

GRAIN.—The receipts of Grain at the Corn Exchange to-day footed up only 20,000 bushels. All of the offerings changed hands at 90 to 105 cts. for common to fair red wheat; 108a112 cts. for good to prime do.; 100a115 cts. for common to fair whites; 120a125 cts. for good do., and 127a133 cts. for prime and choice family flour samples of do. Corn was in good request, but, as has been the case for some weeks past, there is scarcely any offering from day to day. The sales this morning were only 550 bushels far white at 52 cts., and 550 bushels good to prime yellow at 47a50 cts. Oats are in good request, and prices remain steady. There were sales of some 5,000 to 6,000 bushels fair to prime New Maryland at 25a30 cents.

MARRIAGES.

On the 5th inst, at the M. E. Parsonage, by Rev. Wm. B. Walton, CHARLES D. BROWN, to Miss FRANCES E. APSLEY, all of this county.

DEATHS.

In Quaker Neck, on Sunday last, WM. HENRY BROWN, aged about 43 years.

In Tremont, Pa., on the 29th ult., SARAH COURSEY, daughter of Rev. Wm. B. and Sarah D. Walton, aged 1 year, 11 months, and 15 days. "Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

In this county, on the 2d inst., MRS. MARY TWIFORD, aged 62 years. [Cecil county papers please copy.]

In Baltimore, on the 2d inst., JOANN, wife of Richard Hill, in the 38th year of her age.

In Chestertown, on the 4th inst., of typhoid fever, MARY MARIA NEAL LUSBY, aged 16 years, 1 month, and 20 days, daughter of Charles T. and Mary A. Lusby.

The death of this young lady, so unexpected falls with peculiar heaviness upon the parents' hearts. A few days since she gave promise of a long and useful life. The world with its pleasures and scenes of happiness through which the future of time is viewed by youthful minds, was seen in all its imaginary interest and beauty. The young look upon the past as a void, or an irksome ordeal, through which they are obliged to pass, to the more developed and charming enjoyments and prospects that lie in the future, which, day by day, are to be presented to the mind and heart. The happiness of the young is prospective. The virtuous aged look back—they retrospect and dwell in delightful memory, and draw pleasures and enjoyments from the gambols of childhood—the occurrences of youthful life, and the associations and scenes of early history. To them, the past is a mine of wealth, upon which they draw and dwell with delightful remimiscence. This amiable, affectionate and dutiful child, indulged by parental kindness, had performed all the duties of her relation to them, and to her brothers and sisters of the household, had won upon their confidence and love, as upon her friends, as she grew to maturity; her kindness of heart and gentleness of manner, with her unobtrusive and retiring habits, her love of home, of parents, of relatives, combined to endear her more intensely to them, and to make her virtues and qualities the more appreciated in the domestic circle.

Many are the incidents of her life, though short, which memory calls up to her afflicted parents and relatives, and which serve to cast a mellow light upon her good qualities of the head and heart, and though her loss must tinge them with a melancholy hue, yet the bereaved heart will not cease to revive and meditate upon them. David said, that his child could not come to him, but he could go to the child.—This is a consolitary and comforting thought. It deprives death of a portion of his terror—diminishes his otherwise fearful power, and makes even the stricken heart involuntarily exclaim, "O, death, where is thy sting? O, grave, where is thy victory?" In the language of Mrs. Hemans, we repeat—

"The dead,
The only beautiful, who change no more;
The only blest, the dwellers on the shore
Of Spring fulfilled. The dead! whom call we so?
They that breathe purer air, that feel, that know
Things wrapt from us."

GEORGE VICKERS, vs.
RICHARD JENNINGS & JAMES S. KEENE.

On the Equity Side of the Circuit Court for Kent County.

AUGUST 17, 1861.

THE object of this Bill is to procure a decree for a sale of certain mortgaged Real Estate, in Kent county, commonly called Urieville, containing Thirty-one acres and a quarter more or less, which were on the thirtieth day of June, in the year Eighteen hundred and fifty six, mortgaged by Edmund Townsend and wife to the late Jamee Urie, deceased, and which was sold under decree on said mortgage, to Richard Jennings, and by him subsequently sold to James S. Keene, and for a balance of purchase money, and as security for a portion of the purchase money not yet due.

The Bill states that by Decree of the Circuit Court for Kent county in Equity, dated Nov. 2nd, 1859, in a cause in which George Vickers, Executor of James Urie, was complainant and Edmund Townsend and wife were defendants; the said George Vickers, as Trustee sold the said Mill, Mill Seat and premises to the said Richard Jennings for $7,500. That the said Richard Jennings paid part of the purchase money and subsequently sold and conveyed the said property to the said James S. Keene, subject to the Trustees' lien for balance due. That the sum of $501 29 a balance of the first instalment was due and unpaid, and bears interest from the 15th day of January, 1861. That the second instalment of purchase money of $1875 was due on the 21st of June, 1861, and is unpaid and also interest on $3,750 from 21st of June, 1860 to 21st June, 1861, and interest on $1875 from the 21st of June, 1861, and that the third instalment of $1875 with interest from the 21st June, 1861, will be due on the 21st June, 1862 That the said Richard Jennings and his securities on Bond, and the said James S. Keene, are all non-residents of the State of Maryland, and citizens of Philadelphia in the State of Pennsylvania, and are all beyond the reach of the process of the Courts of the State of Maryland.—That the property is liable to destruction by fire or water and the security of the Trustee is insufficient.

It is therefore adjudged and ordered that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks, before the twenty-fourth day of September next, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this Bill; and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the twenty-fifth day of December next, to answer the premises and show cause if any they have, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.
