Bread and Cakes.

THE undersigned having sometime since entered into an agreement with the principal Bakery in Chestertown for the purpose of supplying to the Stores of the different towns and villages of Kent county, would take this method to inform his friends, that notwithstanding the opposition lately sprung up on account of jealousy at the seeming success attending his efforts, that he intends to continue to supply them as formerly, and for that purpose, he will visit each and all of them once a week, with good fresh full sized Loaves of Bread, and Cakes.—In no way does he intend to be broken up, as has been threatened by the opposition just started. But, by honesty, integrity, and a faithful attendance upon his customers, he hopes to merit a full share of patronage.

FRESH BREAD AND CAKES
