BALTIMORE MARKETS

From the Baltimore American of Thursday.

The receipts of Grain at the Corn Exchange to.day were light, and amounted to only 19,000 bushels, as follows, viz: 12,600 bushels Wheat, 3,000 do. Corn, 3,300 do. Oats, and 180 do. Rye. For Wheat there was quite a brisk demand from both shippers and millers, and with small offerings prices ruled firmer. Mostly all of the receipts changed hands at 103a115 cts. for common to fair reds; 118a123 cts. for good to prime do.; 115a125 cts. for medium to fair whites; 130a145 cts. for good to prime do., and 147a150 cents for choice samples of do. Corn was hardly so firm as yesterday, notwithstanding the receipts were light. One parcel of choice yellow brought 63 cts., and 1,300 bushels fair to good white sold at 60a62 cts. Oats were in good request, and prices remain firm. There were sales of some 3,000 bushels fair to prime Maryland at 33a36 cts., and we quote Pennsylvania at 36a38 cts.

Awful Tragedy at Port Deposit, Md.

A correspondent of the Baltimore American, writing from Port Deposit under date of Sept. 23, gives the following particulars of a most distressing occurrence which happened in that town on Saturday last, resulting in the death of two citizens and wounding of several federal soldiers, two of them also reported dead:

"The substance of the matter is as follows: It seems that Saturday was the day for the primary meetings of the "Peace party." The supporters of that party rallied in their strength here, being the voting place for the Seventh Election District of Cecil. They assembled at the hotel of Mr. Robert Smith, and were progressing with their deliberations when some federal soldiers, who were off on leave of absence, entered the bar room of the hotel. A general fight immediately commenced, which raged with indiscriminate fury until Mr. Robert Stephenson, of this town, and Mr. Thomas Kelly, of this vicinity, were killed and Messrs. Geo. Gorrel, S. Aiken John W. McCullough and John Gillespie were badly wounded. Several of the soldiers were badly wounded, and two of them are reported this morning dead.

The soldiers were from Havre de Grace, on a frolic, as is supposed, and, it is said, took the liberty to interfere with the meeting. They deny this, however, and charge the assault on the "Peace" men. There were perhaps about eight or ten of the soldiers, and about one hundred and twenty-five of the Peace men. There were no firearms used, but chairs, clubs and knives, stones, &c., were brought in full requisition. Capt. Taylor summoned a squad of the Union Rifles, arrested the soldiers and marched them to the guard house. The prisoners will be returned to-day to the civil authorities, when the whole thing will be canvassed and made plain, as we hope.

By later intelligence, we learn that a gentleman by the name of Robert Vandover was among those killed.
