MEETING OF KENT CO. WOMEN

To Be Addressed By State Home Demonstration Agent

The Kent County Council for Home Demonstration Work has planned an all-day meeting, which is open to all women of the county, on Wednesday, Dec. 13, in the auditorium of the Chestertown High School. The meeting will be called at 10 a. m. Subjects of county-wide interest will be discussed and every woman club member should plan to be present.

In addition to the business meeting, a splendid program has been arranged. Miss Venia M. Kellar, State Home Demonstration Agent, will be the principal speaker. Miss Kellar is in close touch with the homes throughout the state and any woman who regards her work in the home a profession should hear Miss Kellar.

Mr. W. H. Rice, of the University of Maryland Extension Service, will talk on poultry. Miss Ramsey, dean of women at Washington College, will also take part on the program.

Inasmuch as the County Exhibit was called off this year, a request has come from many club members for something to take its place. It was, therefore, decided that every woman who has an idea that is worth while will pass that idea on by bringing to this meeting anything that will represent some phase of the home work, such as canned products, with the recipe, renovated clothing, millinery, sewing, including machine work, short cuts, finishing stitches, machine darning, draperies, pillow tops, enamalac work and other phases of work that might be considered economy in time, money or energy. What can you bring? If you can't bring an exhibit, then come and help make the meeting a success.

In order that we may have a sociable lunch hour at little expense, each woman is asked to provide her own sandwiches. Coffee and ice cream will be served at the High School Building during the lunch hour.

The program for the day was arranged by the executive committee, which is as follows: Mrs. William Medders, Mrs. Sewell J. Lee, Miss Susan V. Hill and Mrs. A. F. T. Raum.

Philadelphia Chapter W. C. Alumni Association

The Philadelphia Chapter of the W. C. Alumni Association is in a flourishing condition. An enthusiastic gathering celebarted the third annual meeting at a banquet on the evening of Nov. 23. Among those present were H. Norman Perkins, Dr. Mary C. Burchinal, Mr. and Mrs. John I. Coulbourn, Harry Pringle Ford, Rudolph F. Tull, Mrs. Effa Blades West, Charles L. Larrimore, William Coulbourn Brown, Wm. J. Bratten, Mrs. Polly Westcott Branham, Mr. and Mrs. E. Holt Eliason, Miss Maud O. Hickman, Rev. Eugene A. Robinson, D. D., and Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Van T. Jester. Interesting addresses along educational lines were delivered by Dr. Burchinal and Messrs. Coulbourn and Ford. William Coulbourn Brown succeeds Norman Perkins as president; Simeon Van T. Jester was elected vice-president; Miss Maud Hickman, treasurer; and Dr. Eugene Robinson, secretary. The chapter has nearly one hundred members. The oldest member is John T. Spencer, who was graduated by the college in 1886.

Ex-President Wilson Improving

Ex-President Wilson has progressed so far toward complete recovery that he now takes almost daily walks through the streets about his Washington home with no other aid than that of a cane. Those who have been surprised to encounter the well-known figure say that he really strides and does not merely shuffle along, which means that he has gained control of his affected limb. His face is ruddy and the lines that told of his sufferings have gone. Taken in connection with the speech he made Armistice Day from his door-step, which showed that his voice is as strong as ever, it is evident that the hermit period of the ex-President's life is about over.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Hope H. Barroll, Morris K. Barroll, John W. Barroll, Solicitors for Plaintiff.

Elizabeth Gray, Widow of Henry J. Gray, vs.

Lottie B. Spry, Wm. L. Spry, her husband, Blanche D. Jarman, Elmer S. Jarman, her husband, Hattie Merchant, Wm. Merchant, her husband, Clarence E. Gray, Mary Gray, his wife, Violet Carrow and Raymond Carrow, her husband.

No. 2205 Chancery.
In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity.

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a decree for the sale of the Real Estate of the late Henry J. Gray and divide the proceeds therefrom to those legally entitled thereto.

The Bill states:

1. That the late Henry J. Gray died near Galena, in the First Election District of Kent County, Maryland, in the month of October, 1922; and at the time of his death was possessed of certain large and valuable real estate. The said Henry J. Gray left a last Will and Testament, which has been duly admitted to probate in the Orphans Court for Kent County, Maryland, a duly certified copy of which, duly signed, is filed with this Bill of Complaint and prayed to be taken as a part hereof precisely as if the same were fully recited herein at length and marked "Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 1."

2. And your Oratrix shows that Henry J. Gray left surviving a widow, your Oratrix, Elizabeth Gray, three daughters, Lottie B. Spry, Blanche D. Jarman and Hattie Merchant, all of whom are named above and are made parties defendants in this suit; a son, Clarence E. Gray, and a grand-daughter, Violet Carrow, who are also made defendants in this suit.

3. And your Oratrix further shows that she has renounced all her rights of every kind, character and description to which she may be entitled under the terms of the Will of her late husband, Henry J. Gray; that she declines to accept the terms and gifts under and by virtue of the said Will in lieu of her statutory rights which entitle her to her dower interest in the real and personal estate of the said Henry J. Gray and she claims title to the share to which, under the laws of the State of Maryland, she is entitled in and to the real and personal estate of the said Henry J. Gray.

4. Your Oratrix being entitled to an interest in the estate of her late husband, Henry J. Gray, wishes the real estate sold and such sum or sums of money which may be due to her and to which she may be entitled under the laws of the State of Maryland paid over to her and the balance distributed in accordance with the decree of this Honorable Court; and she shows that she is in good health and that she is about 80 years of age; that it is for her interest and advantage not to accept $200 annually and she wishes paid to her such sum of money in lieu of said annuity; she is advised in order that this may be done that it is necessary to apply to this Honorable Court and ask for a decree for the sale of the real estate, she is without remedy unless your Honors appoint a Trustee to sell the same and divide the proceeds.

It is thereupon, this 28th day of November, 1922, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County once in each of four successive weeks before the 1st day of January next, giving notice to the said William Merchant, Hattie Merchant, William L. Spry, Lottie B. Spry, Clarence E. Gray and Violet Carrow, non-resident defendants, warning them to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 17th day of January next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayer.
