December Term 1823.

Philip Binkley
vs
Jacob B Mong

Be it remembered that heretofore to wit on the twenty third day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three Philip Binkley by David G Yost his attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here a writ of the state of Maryland of fieri facias to the sheriff of Washington County directed in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland ss. The State of Maryland To the sheriff of Washington County Greeting Whereas at a County Court begun and held at Hagers Town in and for Washington County on the fourth monday of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty two a certain Philip Binkley by the judgment of the said court recovered against a certain Jacob B Mong late of Washington County Yeoman as well the sum of four hundred and forty dollars current money a certain debt as the sum of one thousand dollars for his damages which he had sustained by reason of the detention of that debt as the sum of nine dollars and forty three cents for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended whereof the said Jacob B Mong is convict as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same court brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western shore at the city of Annapolis by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears. And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of appeals at the City of Annapolis on the second monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three that the said judgment given in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed and ratified and that the said Philip Binkley might have execution against the said Jacob B Mong for as well the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid as adjudged unto him in the said County Court as also for the sum of ten dollars and eighteen cents for his damages costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said Jacob B Mong before the said Court of appeals for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises whereof the said Jacob B Mong is convict as of record it likewise appeareth. Therefore you are hereby commanded that of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said Jacob B Mong being in your bailiwick you cause to be made the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid and have you those sums of money before the said Court of appeals to be held at the City of Annapolis on the first monday of December next to render unto the said Philip Binkley the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid. Hereof fail not at your peril and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Honourable Jeremiah Townley Chase Esquire chief Judge of the Court of Appeals the ninth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three
