VACATION TIME

Vacation time is upon us, and for several weeks now vacationists will crowd the summer resorts both at water locations and in the mountains. Business firms will be somewhat handicapped by short forces, in order to give their empoyees their much needed vacations. The Kent county summer resorts offer excellent accommodations and amusements for summer outings. Betterton, ideally located on Chesapeake Bay, with a number of fine summer hotels, good boating, bathing and amusements, invites you to its shore.

Tolchester, also located on Chesapeake Bay, has for many years enjoyed large crowds of daily, week-end and weekly visitors. It has a large hotel with spacious porches overlooking one of the prettiest water views to be found in Maryland. Then there is Chester and Sassafras rivers with numerous beautiful locations for camping, boating, fishing and bathing. To those confined in the crowded apartments of the cities it is hard for them to imagine the beauties, comforts and pleasures offered by Kent county for a summer outing.

DISHES for HARVEST

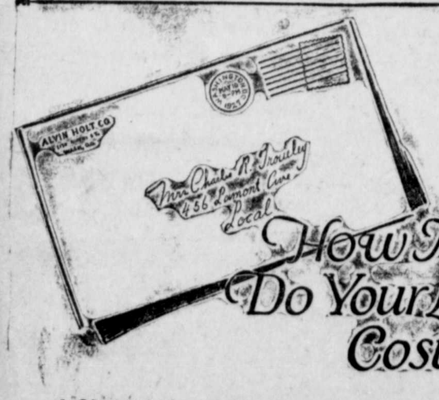
ANYWHERE TO ANYWHERE—BY LONG DISTANCE



A LARGE concern, thinking that the average cost of their letters was about five or six cents, recently undertook a thorough investigation of the cost of their correspondence. They made the discovery that each letter represented an actual outlay of forty cents. This was comprised of the salaries of their stenographers, the cost of stationery and a pro-rate of the general expense of office maintenance.

They also determined that the average salary of the officers who dictated letters was $75.00 per week. Twenty minutes of this time, devoted to a carefully worded letter, was worth about 62c.

Added to the initial outlay, this was $1.02 per letter.

Their officials are now advised that on important business, it is worth while to bring personality into play, by face-to-face conversation over Long Distance. Less important business is still carried on by letter.
