LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

THE BATTLE OF THE "IRON-CLADS" DISCUSSED IN PARLIAMENT.

The Norwegian, at Portland, brings Liverpool dates to the 4th instant.

In the House of Commons Sir F. Smith called the attention of Parliament to the engagement between the Monitor and the Merrimac, and urged the consideration of the subject of the future prospects of a defensive warfare. He argued in favor of the construction of small vessels like the Monitor, in preference to stationary forts, and advocated the cessation of the works on fortifications and the construction of iron gunboats as batteries instead.

A general debate ensued, most of the speakers opposing the outlay on fortifications. Sir G. C. Lewis and Lord C. Puget, on behalf of the government, warned the House against hasty action, and the enormous expense this proposed revolution in naval warfare would entail.

They questioned whether the contest between the Merrimac and the Monitor had thrown any new light on the subject, and thought the forts could be made to maintain their superiority. They believed that artillery could be made to crush these iron vessels. It would not do to proceed hastily without further experience, but the government would watch the question carefully.

The subject was then dropped without any action being taken thereon, but Berrel Osborne gave formal notice of a motion to the effect that it was expedient to suspend further work in the construction of the forts at Spithead until the value of iron-roofed gunboats for the defense of ports shall be fully considered.

The newspapers are fully discussing the subject, and the Times exhibits somewhat of a panic on it, urging that not a day should be lost, as wooden ships are clearly demonstrated to be wholly useless against iron-plated rams.

JESSE LANE

versus

Estrange Gould, Hester J. Gould, John S. Constable, Abraham Hurlock, Passmore H. Mitchell and Adeline Mitchell, Joshua Simmons and Bauduy Simmons.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, sitting in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for a sale of certain mortgaged premises in Kent county, which were on the fifteenth day of March, 1858, mortgaged by two of the defendants, Estrange Gould and Hester J. Gould his wife, to Abraham Hurlock, which mortgage was afterwards, to wit, on the 18th day of July, 1861, assigned and transferred by the said Abraham Hurlock to the complainant, and to pay other liens on said land.

The Bill states, that on or about the 15th day of March, 1858, the said Estrange Gould and Hester J. Gould his wife, conveyed certain real estate, lying in Kent county, containing 401 acres more or less, which is particularly described in the bill and its accompanying exhibit, unto the said Abraham Hurlock, by way of mortgage, to secure the payment of $6,390.88, with interest from the first day of January, 1858, payable by instalments, all of which are now due: that after sundry payments made by the said Estrange Gould to the said Abraham Hurlock, the said Abraham Hurlock did on the 18th day of July, 1861, for and in consideration of the sum of $3,492.09 to him paid by the complainant, (being the sum which then remained due and unpaid on said mortgage, including the last instalment which fell due on the 1st day of January, 1859,) asssign and transfer said mortgage, and mortgage debt, to the complainant, and that no part of said sum of money has been paid to the complainant. That on or about the first day of May, 1860, the said Estrange Gould and Hester J. Gould his wife, executed another deed of Mortgage, by which they conveyed the said lands and Real Estate to Joshua Simmons and Bauduy Simmons, to secure the payment of the sum of $3,000.00 on or before the 1st day of May, 1861. That on the eighth day of June, 1861, the said Estrange Gould and Hester J. Gould his wife, did by deed duly executed, acknowledged and recorded among the land records of Kent county, convey all of their right, title and interest, in and to said Lands and Real Estate to Passmore H. Mitchell.

That on or about the twenty-third day of August, 1856, the said Abraham Hurlock being seized in fee of the said real estate and lands, did convey the same by deed of mortgage to John S. Constable, to secure the payment of the sum of $7,500, with interest from the first day of January, 1857, payable by instalments, the first instalment being due on the first day of January next, the interest to be paid annually on the first day of December. The said Abraham Hurlock afterwards, to wit, on the twelfth day of March, 1858, conveying said lands and real estate, to the said Estrange Gould, by deed duly executed, acknowledged, and recorded among the land records of Kent county.

That the said Estrange Gould and Hester J. Gould, his wife; Joshua Simmons and Bauduy Simmons, Passmore H. Mitchell and Adeline Mitchell his wife, are non-residents.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in Kent county, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the twelfth day of May next, give notice to the said absent defendents of the object and substance of this bill: and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the twelfth day of August next, to answer the premises, and show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
