FROM GEN. HALLECK'S ARMY.

A Rebel Force of 2,000 Captured—Dissatisfaction in the Rebel Camp.

CAIRO, May 6.—The steamer Ella has arrived from Pittsburg Landing, which place she left at 9 o'clock last night.

On Sunday afternoon General Pope, by placing a battery of artillery in an open field, near Farmingham in sight of three regiments of Rebels, succeeded in luring them on to take the battery, when he captured the whole force of the Rebels, numbering 2,000 prisoners.

The prisoners and deserters report that great dissatisfaction exists in the Rebel army, both among the officers and men.

Beauregard had made a speech to the troops, saying that he would make a desperate stand, and force the Federal army to retreat. He appealed to them to stand by him.

Orders had been issued to the United States troops to march on Friday night, but this was prevented by the condition of the roads, which the heavy rains here rendered impassable.

MORE STRINGENT MEASURES NECESSARY.—The insolent reply of the Mayor of New Orleans to Commodore Farragut has excited much bitter feeling in official circles in Washington, and the Government is fully alive to the fact that coaxing and wooing the Rebels of New Orleans will not answer. Senator Johnson writes that the genuine Rebels cannot be coaxed back to loyalty, but must be terrified into it. The great mass of the people of Tennessee, away from the cities, he says, are loyal, but there is a large class of men and women whose hatred towards the Government is intense. Leniency towards them is a mistake in his opinion. The letter of Mayor Munroe has convinced the Government that a little more firmness will have a good effect upon the Rebels.

A COUNTRY HOME.

Oh! give me a home in the country wide,
And a seat by the farmer's wood fireside,
Where the fire burns bright,
On a frosty night—
Where the jest, the song and the laugh are free:
Oh! the farmer's home is the home for me.

Oh! give me a home in the country wide

DEATHS.

In Chestertown, on Tuesday last, S. SPENCER, son of S. Franklin and Mary E. Smith, aged 3 years and 5 months. [Centreville papers please copy.]

I take these little lambs, said he,
And lay them in my breast,
Protection they shall find in me,
In me be ever blest.

Hope looks beyond the bounds of time,
When him we now deplore
Shall rise in full, immortal prime,
And bloom to fade no more.

Steel Pens Superseded
BY
DeWolf's Copper Errodium Pens.

WARRANTED not to Corrode in any ink, Each Pen as durable as a dozen Steel Pens—are not broke or injured by falling or any rough usage. The action of these Pens resembles that of a quill more than Steel or Gold, gliding freely over a rough or smooth surfaced paper without splattering or tearing the furze off the paper, not injuring the tint of red ink, not affecting the durability of black, and will stand acids. The above Pens have taken the

GARDNER & HEMMINGS'
GREAT AMERICAN CIRCUS!

The management takes pleasure in announcing to the public that they are able for this season of '62, to cater for their amusement in a superior manner to any travelling company. The wagons have been newly painted and decorated so as to present a neat and elegant appearance. The harness is new and beautiful. The wardrobe is of the most costly description manufactured from designs imported from Paris during the past winter; and in fact the whole paraphanalia is of such a description as to at once give satisfaction to all.

Will Exhibit in Chestertown, on Wednesday, May 14th, 1862,

Afternoon and Evening. Doors open at 2 and 7, performance to commence half an hour later.—Admission 25 cents.

One of the greatest features of this exhibition is the ENGLISH STEEPLE CHASE, introducing the entire Company mounted upon their highly-mettled, thorough-bred Horses, leaping Hurdles, Hedges, &c.

THE ZOUAVE HALT,

Will also form another feature of the Show, in which the horses will, at the word of command lie down, set up, and go though a great variety of performances. The beautiful Trick Horse, Washington, will appear at each entertainment and go through his wonderful and truly surprising performances. The performers are all well known and popular, and comprise all the Stars of France, England and America.

☞LOOK AT THE NAMES:☜
Dan Gardner, R. Hemmings, Geo. Derious, John Foster, Henry Moreste, Signoir Parker, F. W. Whitiker, Mons. Banoit, King Brothers, Miss Eliza Gardner, Mad. Camille, Litt'e Minnie Master Ed. Gardner, C Ricker, J. Wambold, T. Boline, and a host of auxiliaries: the whole forming a bright constellation of Equestrian, Acrobatic and Gymnastic talent; the whole enlivened by the wit of three great clowns, DAN GARDNER, JOHN FOSTER and YOUNG DAN.

On the morning of exhibition the Company will enter town in grand procession, headed by Peter Britner's American Brass Band seated in a beautiful Band Coach, drawn by a line of splendid horses, followed by all the horses, ponies, carriages, luggage vans, &c.

Will also exhibit at Head Sassafras, Thursday, May 15. W. H. GARDNER, Ag't.
