Abraham Clark

Be it remembered, that heretofore to wit, on the twenty fifth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine James McConnick Junior by John Scott and John Johnson his attorneys prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of appeals here, a writ of the State of Maryland of Venditioni exponas to the late Sheriff of Prince Georges county directed, in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland Set. The State of Maryland To Thomas Osborne Esquire late Sheriff of Prince Georges county Greeting. Whereas at a County Court begun and held at Upper Marlborough Town, in and for Prince Georges county on the first Monday in September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixteen a certain James McConnick Junior by judgment of the said Court recovered against a certain William Dudley Digges late of Prince Georges county gentleman as well the sum of five thousand dollars current money for his damages which he had sustained by occasion of the non performance of a certain promise and assumption to the said James McConnick Junior by the said William Dudley Digges before that time made, as the sum of five dollars and seventy cents for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said William Dudley Digges is convicted as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court brought before the Court of appeals for the Western Shore at the City of Annapolis by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears. And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of appeals at the City of Annapolis aforesaid on the second Monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen that the said judgment given in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed and satisfied, and that the said James McConnick Junior might have execution against the said James McConnick Junior might have execution against the said William Dudley Digges for as well the damages costs and charges aforesaid as adjudged unto him in the said county Court, as also for the sum of nine dollars and ninety six cents for his damages costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said William Dudley Digges before the said Court of appeals for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises, whereof the said William Dudley Digges is convicted as of record it likewise appeareth, for which said damages costs and charges the said William Dudley Digges and certain Leonard McDeakins and Abraham Clark on the twenty sixth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty before Edmund Duvall Esquire one of the Justices of the orphans Court for Prince Georges county aforesaid did confess judgment to the said James McConnick Junior, the said damages costs and charges to be levied of their bodies, goods and chattels, lands & tenements for the use of the said James McConnick Junior in case the said William Dudley Digges should not pay and satisfy to the said James McConnick Junior the damages costs and charges so as aforesaid recovered against him with the additional costs thereon at the respective times hereinafter mentioned to wit: one third part thereof with the interest due on the whole sum, and all the costs on or before the thirtieth day of November then next; one third part thereof with interest on the whole sum then unpaid with the additional costs on or before the first day of May in the year eighteen hundred and twenty one, and the residue thereof with interest thereon, and additional costs on or before the thirtieth day of November in the year eighteen hundred and twenty one according to the acts of assembly in such case made and provided, which said confession in form aforesaid taken, was by the same Justice returned to the Court of appeals, and whereof the said William Dudley Digges, Leonard McDeakins and Abraham Clark are convicted as of record is manifest. And whereas also on the third day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three you were commanded that of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said William Dudley Digges, Leonard McDeakins and Abraham Clarke being your bailiwick you should cause to be made the damages costs and charges aforesaid, and that you should have those sums before the said Court of appeals to be held at the City of Annapolis on the first Monday in December
