Winder and Araminta his wife above for error assigned, being seen, and by the Court of Appeals here fully understood, and mature deliberation thereupon had; for that it appears to the Court of Appeals here, that there is error in the record of proceedings aforesaid, and in the giving of the decree aforesaid Thereupon the Court of Appeals here proceeded to pass such decree as the Court of Chancery ought to have passed.

The above case and all the proceedings therein, together with the arguments of the Solicitors of the parties, having been fully considered, and it appearing to this Court, that the decree of the Chancellor, as far as the appeal of John Diffenderffer is concerned is correct, but that the same as far as the appeal of Winder and wife is concerned is erroneous and should be reversed, and this Court proceeding to pass such a decree in the premises, as it appears to them from the whole case, should have been passed by the Chancellor. It is therefore on this ninth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty one by this Court, and by the authority thereof, adjudged, ordered and decreed, that the appellant John Diffenderffer pay to the appellees William S Winder and Araminta his wife, the complainants in the Court of Chancery, the sum of sixteen thousand seven hundred and forty two dollars and ninety two cents ($16742.92/100) with interest thereon from the date of this decree until paid. And it is further adjudged ordered and decreed that the said John Diffenderffer pay unto the appellee in the first appeal Amelia A Diffenderffer, the sum of six thousand five hundred and eighty dollars and ninety cents ($6580 90/100) with interest thereon from the date of this decree until paid. And it is further adjudged ordered and decreed, that the said John Diffenderffer pay unto one of the other appellees in the first appeal Michael A Diffenderffer the sum of six thousand five hundred and eighty dollars and ninety cents ($6580 90/100) with interest thereon from the date of this decree until paid.
