A WISER THAN SOLOMON

On a certain island station there was a garrison of marines as well as bluejackets, and asenior officer of each corps. Their wives each laid claim to a special pew in the church, and after much dispute, in which each one asserted her right an appeal was made to the Governor. There being no woman connected with him on the island to influence his mind, he accorded a patient hearing to each of the claimants, and gave as his decision that the pew should be occupied by the elder of the two. The sequel is left to the gentle reader.—The Christian Register.

Remove fruit stains while they are fresh or they may not come out at all. Boiling water poured over the stain may start it, but soap set it permanently.

Vote For Smith Is Worth $50 An Acre to Farmer, Says Republican Banker

KANKAKEE, Ill.—"Fifty dollars per acre for your vote!"

That slogan in big black type is appearing in local newspapers at the head of full page advertisements which are being paid for by F. G. Snow, local farmer and banker.

Mr. Snow, one of the leading Republicans in the community, points out that farm lands on the average are worth $50 less an acre than they were seven years ago and calls upon all Republicans to repudiate Hoover and the Coolidge policies. He said:

"Though I have always been a strong Republican, I would be a second Benedict Arnold to the people who patronize my bank if I supported my party's Presidential nominee this year. The prayer of the farmer today is not for rain but for the election of 'Al' Smith

"As the head of a large bank in the farming district I daily come into contact with numerous farmers who face ruinous conditions. The advertisement is my contribution to defeat Herbert Hoover, the farmer's arch-enemy and the very man who was responsible for maintaining the fixed prices on wheat and hogs, to the disadvantage of the farmer, during the war.

"I have had many requests from Indiana, Iowa, Tennessee, Kansas, South Dakota, Nebraska and Montana for permission to reprint it." In the advertisement, Mr. Snow said:

"Mr. Farmer, in pre-War days every acre of good land was worth from $25 to $75 more per acre than it is worth today, and for what reason? Farmers are now paying a tariff-protected price for nearly everything they buy, and because of a small surplus, are compelled to sell what they produce at prices unprotected by the tariff, for their tariff is absolutely ineffective because of a small surplus.

"Nearly four years ago Mr. Coolidge was elected President on a platform containing a strong farmer-aid plank. Since his election he has done nothing to relieve the depressed agricultural conditions, but has twice vetoed a farm-aid McNary-Haugen bill which was backed by a united agriculture and twice approved by Congress.

"I do not care whether you are Catholic or Protestant, wet or dry, the fact remains that the steady confiscation of farm lands is still going on to an alarming extent. I claim that a vote against Hoover is a vote for a $50 average increase in the price of the farmer's land, and a chance to return to prosperity for the tenant farmer as well."

TOURING WEST

RUNNING MATE of Governor Smith in the Presidential campaign, Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas, is heading a drive by 250 well-known speakers to elect the Democratic ticket.

Freemason Who Opposes Smith Betrays Order

A Freemason is disloyal to his order and betrays it if he opposes the election of a Catholic to the Presidency on religious grounds, according to Supreme Court Justice Townsend Scudder, former Grand Master of Masons in New York State.

In a letter to William Ritchie, Jr., a fellow mason of Omaha, Nebraska, and chairman of the Smith-for-President clubs in that state, who had telegraphed that some Masons were refusing to support Smith, Justice Scudder wrote:

"There is no connection between my Freemasonry, the Governor's Catholicism and my advocacy of his election as President. Freemasonry has no concern with any man's religion other than to exact of its members belief in God and moral lives. Governor Smith is a God fearing man, a churchman and lives a moral life.

"It follows then that a Freemason is disloyal to his order and betrays it who opposes Governor Smith's election solely because the Governor is a Catholic, and such an one is also disloyal to our country because he applies a religious test as a qualification for office which the constitution of the United States forbids.

"Governor Smith to my mind typifies the spirit and genius of America. His life and attainments are, and ever will be an inspiration to our youth. I support him for the Presidency for the very reasons which impelled my forebears to support Abraham Lincoln.

Justice Scudder is a former member of Congress and has served as a member of the Supreme Court bench of New York State almost continually since 1907.

M. E. BISHOPS REBUKED

RICHMOND, Va.—Severely rebuking four Methodist Episcopal bishops for "attempting to use the Church organization to promote the election of Herbert Hoover," 139 "members and supporters" of that Church passed a resolution here condemning the "organized assault which is being made upon the Democratic organization of every Southern State."

Among the signers of the statement were Henry C. Stuart, former Governor of Virginia, and Representative George C. Peery of Virginia.

THE CIGAR THAT BROUGHT THE NICKEL BACK

Have you surrendered to the idea that five cents can no longer buy an enjoyable cigar? Here's one that not only disputes that idea, but gives your nickels the biggest cigar-buying power they ever had: Havana Ribbon.

So enormous is the production of this widely known favorite that the manufacturers are able to use tobaccos you generally find only in higher priced cigars. Think of it! . . . No bitter, raspy under-ripe top leaves of the tobacco plant. No flat, insipid over-ripe bottom leaves. No crumbling "scraps." Long-filler, fully-ripe middle leaves from heart to wrapper! Know what that means? A smoke so true, smooth, fragrant, flavorful and mellow-mild you'll scarce believe your taste. Man, find, beg or borrow a nickel! Do a quick-step to the nearest cigar counter and sail into a Havana Ribbon! Better still, corral a quarter, buy a Practical Pocket Package of five and make the whole day a song of smoke contentment.
