A DRAFTING DODGE.—Ther are numberless expedients resorted to in order to escape the draft, but an exchange furnishes an original one resorted to by a drayman:

Having procured a pair of old boots, he deliberately knocked off the heel of one, and as deliberately walked into the doctor's office. There was necessarily an inequality in the length of his pedals, and a peculiar "dot and go one" gait that could not be mistaken. A certificate of "defective limbs" was pocketed, and the relieved teamster departed.

IT is a very disgusting thing to a patriot to hear men wrangling about party politics when the Republic is struggling for its very existence. It is much as if a set of youngsters, whilst their father lay upon a bed of pain and mortal danger, should wrangle and fight about the prospective division of his lands and money. —Prentice.

BOUNTY APPROPRIATION.—The directors of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company have appropriated to the bounty fund nine thousand dollars, as follows: Three thousand dollars to Pennsylvania, three thousand dollars to Delaware, and three thousand dollars to Maryland.
