AFFAIRS IN BALTIMORE.

The Baltimore correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post thus records the state of the popular feeling in that city:

THE ATTITUDE OF THE UNION MEN.

The Rebels are evidently alarmed at the intense hostility betrayed by the Unionists towards them, and it is said they have despatched intelligence to the foe beyond the Potomac beseeching him not to enter Maryland, as they fear a general uprising against them in Baltimore, and a general slaughter. The sentiment is universal, that if the Rebels dare invade this State in force their sympathizers in this city shall be made to pay the forfeit.

DEFENCE OF THE CITY.

The General in command was called on yesterday to know what were the means of defence of the city, in case the enemy should make a demonstration against it, and urged to unite with the Governor in arming the militia. Steps will, probably, be taken in that direction to-day by the Governor. The forts under the command of General Morris are in complete readiness to receive the foe, as well as the heavy mortar vessels, a fleet of which lies in a convenient position. Let the foe come, and if he is not driven back by the militia and the troops stationed here, he will find Baltimore too hot for a lodgment. Her destruction is certain in that event, so that Jeff. Davis will have smouldering ruins for his head-quarters if he can effect his purposes. The militia saved Baltimore in 1812, and if there is no hesitation now, they will do so in the present juncture. The rumor is rife again that Gen. Wool is to be assigned to the field, which is his forte, and that he is to be succeeded by General Morris. This change would be hailed with joy by the whole loyal community, which, I learn, is vociferously for it. We want a man who can command our confidence and who cannot be hoodwinked by Secessionists putting on the guise of Unionism. Gen. Wool, I understand, is not satisfied with his present position, and would gladly escape from it to more genial duties. His long and valuable services to his country should secure to him a compliance with his wishes in this respect.

LATEST NEWS FROM EUROPE.

By the Australasian, off Cape Race, we have Liverpool dates to the 31st ult.

Lord Palmerston, in a speech at Melbourne, referred to the Trent affair, which, he said, was settled in a manner consistent with the honor, principles and dignity of both England and America. America could not have refused the satisfaction demanded without departing from those principles she has herself maintained and considered essential to her own interests as a nation. There was, consequently, no triumph on either side. The only triumph was the triumph of truth and justice, which each side was equally interested in maintaining.

The London Times reiterates its arguments that the North cannot conquer the South, and says that the time for compromise of some kind has arrived, and that the worst settlement of the dispute cannot be so fatal as the continuance of the war.

Lord Brougham had made a speech urging the necessity of absolute neutrality and non-intervention in every sense of the word, as the only security for the peace of England, and the best hope of securing the end of the unhappy quarrel.

There were vague rumors that England had protested against any French occupation of Neapolitan territory, and that England even threatened a corresponding movement in Sicily if France resorted to such a step.

MARRIAGES.

On Sunday evening, Sept. 7th, at Parkton, Baltimore county, Md., by the Rev. Mr. Owens, Mr. STEPHEN KENDLE, a member of the 2nd E. S. Regiment, to Miss ANN R. BIRCH, both of Kent county, Md.

DEATHS.

In Baltimore, on the 6th instant, BENJAMIN F. E. ANDERSON, in the 24th year of his age.

In Baltimore, on the 5th inst., MOLLIE W., youngest daughter of Capt. F. and M A. Tomlinson, aged 4 years, 1 month and 8 days.

OBITUARY.—Mr. JAMES ARTHUR, died in Chestertown on Thursday, Aug. 28th, in the 47th year of his age. The deceased was born and reared in Chestertown, and the larger portion of his life was passed in that place. He resided when an unmarried man, for several years in the city of Baltimore, but he subsequently married and settled in his native town. Although the secular affairs of life necessarily engaged most of his time, yet possessing a good mind, inquiring and eager for knowledge, he found time for study, and obtained considerable information from choice authors. He was fond of Johnson, Shakespeare, History, and select works of Literature He had a retentive memory—discriminating mind—facility of expression, and was quick and apt at quotations of appropriate character.

His social qualities were excellent, and he knew how to appreciate a friend, as well as preserve the amenities and courtesies of life.—His temperament was ardent, quick, impulsive, generous. These naturally led him, at times, beyond the limits which a cooler disposition and a slower and more cautious prudence would have avoided—but he was not malevolent nor unforgiving, but ready to do what honor and propriety required. In the question of the revolution, now agitating our country, he took the side of his country and her flag, and every thought, feeling, wish and hope of his heart were engaged for them. The Constitution of his country and her history, constituted his beau-ideal of all that a patriot's heart could desire; and he was so deeply imbued with this patriotic feeling, that it seemed to have become incorporated in his moral and intellectual being, and hence employed much of his thoughts, reading and speech. He had good business talent and tact, and was prompt in the discharge of duty. At the time of his death he was engaged in the Clerk's Office, and was both a faithful and efficient clerk. Had his mind been early turned to books, and his opportunities been such as to indulge freely and continuously its bent and inclination, he would have become a fine scholar and ready writer. He has left two sons and a daughter. May he rest in peace.

Estray.

WAS taken up as an astray, trespassing upon the enclosures of the undersigned, on the 1st Sept. inst., a WHITE HOG, weighing about 200 lbs., without ear marks. The owner of said Hog is hereby notified to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take it away.

TAX-PAYERS TAKE NOTICE.

THE State and County Taxes for 1862, are now due, and the Collector for the First Tax District of Kent county, hereby gives notice that the Tax Books are in his hands, and the amounts due by the Tax Payers are made out, and he is ready to receive them. He most respectfully solicits prompt payment, as the demands upon the Collector for this year, both by the State and County, will not permit indulgence as heretofore. If Tax-Payers desired, there would be no difficulty in settling their Taxes annually; but neglect of duty often is the cause of expense, which in many cases exceed the Taxes itself. The demands of the State this year, however, must of necessity be met more promptly than heretofore and the wants of those who have claims against the County will compel the Collector to be more rigid in his collections. He hopes, however, that the Tax Payers will be prompt in their payments and thus avoid the penalty for neglect of duty.

For the convenience of Tax-Payers, I will be at Chestertown on Tuesdays; on Wednesdays at Forktown and Leary's Store alternately; at home the balance of the week.

☞ A discount of 5 per cent. will be allowed on all State Tax paid on or before the 1st of September; 4 per cent. if paid on or before the 1st of October; and 3 per cent. if paid on or before the 1st of November, 1862.

As the State Tax is far greater than heretofore, persons would do well to avail themselves of the discount.
HENRY BRAMBLE,
aug30tf. Collector First District.

GUANO WORKS CORNER LANCASTER & WOLF STS.

WE are prepared to furnish to the farmers of Maryland and adjoining States, our well KNOWN and ESTABLISHED PHOSPHO PERUVIAN (or Manipulated) GUANO, warranted one-half Peruvian Guano.

Seven years' use of this Guano has rendered it a staple fertilizer. Its quality has been maintained with rigid exactness through a series of years, and it may be relied upon in the future, as in the past, for uniformity of effect. It contains MORE AMMONIA and PHOSPHATE OF LIME THAN ANY FERTILIZER SOLD IN THIS COUNTRY, and is therefore of greater real value. Experience proves its great utility in improving the soil, whilst its immediate effects are fully equal to the best Peruvian Guano. It is the most convenient, economical and permanent fertilizer in use.

We also offer to consumers
REESE & CO.'S
Super Phosphate of Lime.
This article is tried and reliable. It is manufactured exclusively for our sales, under guarantee and forfeiture of $1,000 to be of given standard. We offer it to consumers for exactly what its name imports, a real superior soluble phosphate, rendered so by the liberal use of acid, in compliance with all the conditions required to insure complete solubility. We therefore recommend this article with confidence.

SOMBRERO GUANO,
Containing 75 to 80 per cent. Bone Phosphate of Lime. This remarkable article is imported from SOMBRERO ISLAND, and is unquestionably the cheapest and richest source of Phosphate of Lime known. The whole Island is a bed of this rich material, and its value to agriculture cannot be over-estimated. It is sold in a perfectly fine powder, and is admirably adapted for combining with Peruvian Guano. [aug23-6t]
