Israel Griffith Surviving Partner of Henry B. Griffith vs James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris.	Be it remembered, That heretofore to wit, on the twenty third day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty three Israel Griffith surviving partner of Henry B. Griffith by Joseph A. Speed his attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here, a writ of the State of Maryland of Fieri Facias to the sheriff of Calvert County directed in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland, &c. The State of Maryland to the Sheriff of Calvert County greeting. (Seal) Whereas at a County Court, begun and held at Prince Frederick in and for Calvert County on the second Monday in May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty two a certain Israel Griffith surviving partner of Henry B. Griffith by the judgment of the said Court, recovered against a certain James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris as well the sum of five hundred dollars current money, for his damages which he had sustained by occasion of the non performance of a certain promise and assumption to the said Israel Griffith by the said James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris before that time made, as the sum of seven dollars thirty three and two third cents for their costs and charges by them about their suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris are convict, as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court, brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore at the city of Annapolis by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears: And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals at the city of Annapolis aforesaid, on the first Monday in December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty three, that the said judgment given in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said Israel Griffith might have execution against the said James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris for as well the damages costs and charges aforesaid as adjudged unto him in the said County Court, as also for the sum of ten dollars and seventy seven cents for his damages, costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris before the said Court of Appeals for the correcting of errors, and upon the premises, whereof the said James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris are convict, as of record it likewise appeareth. Therefore you are hereby commanded that of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris being in your bailiwick you cause to be made the damages costs and charges aforesaid and have you those sums of money before the said Court of Appeals to be held at the city of Annapolis on the second Monday in June next, to render unto the said Israel Griffith surviving partner as aforesaid the damages costs and charges aforesaid: Thereof fail not at your peril and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Honorable John Buchanan Esquire chief Judge of the Court of Appeals the second day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty three. Issued the 23^d day of December eighteen hundred and thirty three. (Speed.)

John Johnson, Clk.
