FOREIGN INTERVENTION!

BY THE BARD OF "MARBLE HALL."

The "Dog," the Intervention Dog
"Is Dead" and gone to rest.—
His friends, who "barked for him," are all
Disarmed and dispossessed,
No more their deep-toned notes we'll hear
For England will not interfere.

We've known it long; her darling scheme
Has been to disunite
Her mighty rival's "Gordian Knot,"
In bloody civil fight;
While brother, brother's blood doth quaff,
Trans-oceanic monarchs laugh.

But when the dawning day shall come,
For come the morning must,
False Albion's cursed schemers then,
Shall turn and bite the dust.
Till then we'll wait with patience all,
And buy our Clothes from MARBLE HALL.

☞ This Popular Clothing House of SMITH BROS. & CO., No. 40, West Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Md., has always on hand the best and cheapest stock of MEN'S AND BOY'S CLOTHING in the city, AT LOW PRICES! Also piece goods of all descriptions, which will be made to order. [d20.]

Christmas Goods.—We would call the attention of our readers to the large and handsome assortment of CHRISTMAS GOODS now open bag at A. M. RUSSELL'S. *

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—It is again with pleasure that we call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. L. MASTBAUM in another column. He has added another fresh supply to his immense stock, for the ensuing Holidays. Long experience, and his system of doing business—buying and selling for cash—and one price only, enables him to furnish to his customers Clothing made of the best material, in the best and most fashionable manner, and at prices which are usually charged for garments far inferior, both in material and workmanship. By purchasing his cloths, &c., over thirteen months ago, he has this season secured another very great advantage, which his customers have the benefit of. That these facts are appreciated by the public is shown by the large and rapid sales beyond precedent. For further particulars see advertisement. *
