PUTTING IT STRONGLY.—A Mr. Bonner, a member of the Missouri Senate, in a speech, on the 10th inst., on the duty of the hour, thus strongly stated his abhorrence of traitors, North and South:

"Sir, we have not only armed foes to battle against, but traitors in civil life, who have not the pluck to take their chances on the battle-field, who whisper words of treason in the ears of loyal men. Sir, could I have my way I would bind the Rebels in arms and Rebels in civil life, who give aid comfort to them, hand and foot, and on wings of fire would speed them down to their native hell, and let them abide with their father, the prince of traitors."

DEATH OF THE REV. JOSIAH VARDEN.—The Rev. Josiah Varden, of the Methodist Protestant Church, died at his residence at Libertytown, Frederick county, Md., on Friday afternoon, the 16th instant, of consumption, aged fifty-seven years. The body was taken to Baltimore on Saturday, and the funeral services took place on Sunday morning at the church at the corner of Lombard and Green streets, after which the remains were interred in the Baltimore Cemetery.

The deceased was widely known throughout this and the adjoining States, and was distinguished as a minister for his fervor and piety, and a peculiar and very effective style of eloquence. He continued in active service until about ten years ago, when failing health compelled him to ask for retirement to the superanuated list.—He was for three successive terms chosen President of the Maryland Annual Conference.

MARRIAGES.

At St. Paul's P. E. Church, on the 15th inst., by Rev. A. Sutton, Dr. SAMUEL BECK to Miss ELLEN CONSTABLE, daughter of John S. Constable, Esq., all of this county.

DEATHS.

In Wilmington, Del., on the 15th instant, HENRY B JUDD, son of Edmund and Anna E. Townsend, aged 10 months and 23 days.

In Chestertown, on the 15th inst., SARAH ELIZABETH SMITH, in the 34th year of her age, wife of Daniel Smith, of the Second E. S. Volunteers. Her disease was pulmonary consumption. She leaves a husband and three small children to mourn their loss. Although her sufferings in her lingering illness were very severe, yet she bore them with Christian fortitude, believing, as she often said, that the Lord had afflicted her body for the good of her soul. The evening before she died she told her mourning friends not to grieve after her, but rather rejoice; that she would soon be in Heaven, and that she wished them all to meet her there.—Her greatest trial was in being deprived seeing her dear husband; still her last prayer was that he would meet her where there should be no more parting.

NOTICE TO TAX-PAYERS!

YOUR TAXES FOR 1862 ARE NOW DUE, and the Collector for the Second Tax District of Kent county, hereby gives notice that the tax books are in his hands, and the amounts due by the Tax Payers are made out and he is ready to receive them He most respectfully solicits prompt payment, as the demands upon the Collector for this year, both by the State and County, will not permit indulgence as heretofore. If Tax-Payers desired, there would be no difficulty in settling their Taxes promptly; but neglect of duty often is the cause of expense which in many cases exceed the Taxes itself.

The demands of the State this year, however, must of necessity be met more promptly than heretofore and the wants of those who have claims against the County will compel the Collector to be more rigid in his collections. He hopes, however, that the Tax-Payers will be prompt in their payments, and thus avoid the penalty for neglect of duty.

For the convenience of Tax-Payers, I will be in Chestertown every TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY. Office in the Commissioners' Room, at the Court House.

☞A discount of 5 per cent. is allowed on all State Tax paid on or before Sept. 1st; 4 per cent. if paid on or before [illegible]; 3 per cent. if paid on or before November 1st, 1862.

As the State Tax is far greater than heretofore, persons would do well to avail themselves of the discount.
PERE L. LYNCH,
