Harris their attorney, prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here, a writ of the State of Maryland of Venditioni Exponas to the sheriff of Saint Marys County directed in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland, &c: The State of Maryland, — Whereas, at a County Court, begun and held at Leonard Town in and for Saint Mary's County on the first Monday of August in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty five a certain Thomas Lamper and John W. Bruff by the judgment of the said Court, recovered against a certain Joseph Morgan late of Saint Mary's County yeoman as well the sum of three hundred dollars current money for their damages which they had sustained by occasion of the non performance of a certain promise and assumption to the said Lamper and Bruff by the said Joseph Morgan before that time made as the sum of five dollars, fifty eight and one third cents for their costs and charges by them about their suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said Joseph Morgan is convict as by inspecting the Record of proceedings of the same Court, brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western shore, at the City of Annapolis, by reason of errors alleged to have been therein, manifestly appears. And whereas, it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals, at the City of Annapolis aforesaid, on the second Monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty eight, that the said judgment, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said Lamper and Bruff might have execution against the said Joseph Morgan for as well the damages, costs and charges aforesaid, as adjudged unto them in the said County Court, as also for the sum of eight dollars and two cents for their damages, costs and charges by them sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said Joseph Morgan before the said Court of Appeals for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises whereof the said Joseph Morgan is convict, as of record it likewise appeareth; for which said damages costs and charges, the said Joseph Morgan and a certain James A. Morgan and Benedict Gough on the seventeenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty eight before A. B. Holmes and R. G. B. Bond, Esquires, two of the Justices of the peace of the said State for Saint Mary's County aforesaid, did confess judgment to the said Lamper and Bruff; the said damages, costs and charges, to be levied of their bodies goods or chattels, lands or tenements for the use of the said Lamper and Bruff in case the said Joseph Morgan should not pay and satisfy to the said Lamper and Bruff the said damages, costs and charges, so as aforesaid recovered against him with the additional costs thereon, on the twenty first day of December then next following according to the act of Assembly in such case made and provided which said confession in form aforesaid taken, was by the same justices, returned to the said Court of Appeals, and whereof the said Joseph Morgan James A. Morgan and Benedict Gough are convict, as of record is manifest.—

And whereas also, on the tenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty nine you were commanded, that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, if the said Joseph Morgan, James A. Morgan and Benedict Gough being in your bailiwick, you should cause to be made the damages, costs and charges aforesaid, and that you should have those sums before the said Court of Appeals to be held at the City of Annapolis, on the second Monday of June then next to render unto the said Thomas Lamper and John W. Bruff the damages, costs and charges aforesaid. On which said second Monday of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty nine you made return to the said Court of Appeals that by virtue of the said writ to you directed for that purpose, you had taken a Tract of land called Mount Pleasant containing two hundred and thirteen acres, a Tract of land called Longstaff and Green's Lot one hundred and eighteen acres. A Tract of called Chance containing two hundred and forty acres a Tract of land called Discovery containing ninety five acres, a Tract of land called Remnant containing three and three quarter acres a Tract of Land called The Delay containing nine and one half acres, a Tract of land called Hopewell containing one hundred and twelve acres of the Lands and Tenements of the said Joseph Morgan, James A. Morgan and Benedict Gough in your bailiwick being to satisfy unto the said Thomas Lamper and John W. Bruff the damages, costs and charges aforesaid in the said writ mentioned, which said lands and tenements remained in your hands unsold for want of time so that the said damages costs and charges, you could not have as you were by the said writ commanded therefore you are hereby commanded, that the said Lands and tenements so as aforesaid taken, you expose to sale, and the money therefrom arising you have before the said Court of Appeals, to be held at the City of Annapolis on the first Monday in December next, to render unto the said Thomas Lamper and John W. Bruff the damages, costs and charges aforesaid, and all such costs as have accrued on the said writ of fieri facias, and how you shall execute this writ you make appear unto the said Court of Appeals at the place and on the day aforesaid, and have you then and there this writ.— Witness, the Honorable Thomas B. Dorsey, Esquire Chief Judge of the said Court of Appeals, the eleventh day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty nine.— Issued 2d. day of July 1849.—

(Harris) Richard W. Gill, Clerk.—

Which said writ of Venditioni exponas was thereon endorsed as follows, to wit:

Damages three hundred dollars current money— costs five dollars fifty eight and one third cents— Court of Appeals costs eight dollars and two cents additional costs, two dollars and fifty eight cents— Contingent additional cost if land sold under this writ nine dollars and twenty five cents— To be released upon the payment of one hundred and forty two dollars and twenty one cents with interest thereon from the fourth day of March eighteen hundred and forty five til paid and the above costs and costs.—

And now at this day, to wit the said first Monday in December being the third day of the said month, in the year of our Lord, one thousand
