I. Edward Bird vs. Joseph Morgan James A. Morgan and Benedict Gough.	Be it remembered that heretofore, to wit, on the twelfth day of March in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty nine I. Edward Bird by Benjamin G. Harris attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here, a writ of the State of Maryland, of Fieri Facias to the Sheriff of Saint Mary's County directed, in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland, &c: The State of Maryland, To the Sheriff of Saint Mary's County, greeting: Whereas, at a County Court begun and held at Leonard Town in and for Saint Mary's County on the first Monday of August in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty five a certain I. Edward Bird by the judgment of the said Court, recovered against a certain Joseph Morgan late of Saint Mary's County Yeoman as well the sum of two hundred and forty dollars current money for his damages which he had sustained by occasion of the non performance of a certain promise and assumption to the said I. Edward Bird, by the said Joseph Morgan before that time made, as the sum of five dollars and fifty eight and one third cents for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said Joseph Morgan is convict, as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court, brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore, at the City of Annapolis, by reasons of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears. And whereas, it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals, at the City of Annapolis aforesaid, on the second Monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty eight, that the said judgment, given in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said I. Edward Bird might have execution against the said Joseph Morgan for as well the damages, costs
