CONCEALED WEAPONS ON .. ELECTION DAY

The following Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session of 1874 and approved April 6, 1874, is published for the information of the public:

AN ACT

To prevent carrying of guns, pistols, dirks, dirk-knives, razors, billies, or bludgeons by any person in Kent, Queen Annes or Montgomery counties on the day of election in said counties:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this Act it shall not be lawful for any person in Kent, Queen Annes and Montgomery counties to carry on the day of election, secretly or otherwise, any gun, pistol, dirk, dirk-knife, razor, violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof before any justice of the Peace, in either of said counties, shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty dollars, and on refusal to pay said fine shall be committed by Justice of the Peace to the jail of the county until the same is paid.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the fines collected under this Act shall be paid by the officers collecting the same to the School Commissioners of the county where offense shall have been commited for school purposes.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That any constable of either of said counties or the sheriff thereof, who shall refuse to arrest any person violating any provision of this Act, upon information of said offense, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before the Circuit Court of the county shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars and forthwith be discharged from office.

JOHN T. VICKERS, Sheriff.

GIVING AWAY LIQUOR ON ELECTION DAY

For the information of all persons concerned, the following Act of the Legislature, passed March 24th, 1895, is published:

AN ACT

Prohibiting the sale of Spirituous or Fermented Liquors in the counties or the State on the day of Election.

SECTION 1. Be is enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, that it shall not be lawful for the keeper of any hotel, tavern, store, drinking establishment, or any other place where liquor is sold, or any person or persons, directly or indirectly, of any kind, on the day of election hereinafter to be held in the several counties of the State.

SECTION 2. And be it enacted, That any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be liable to indictment by the Grand Jury of the county where such offense is committed, and shall, upon conviction before any judge of any of the Circuit Courts of the State, be fined a sum not less than fifty dollars for each and every offense; one-half the fine is paid to the informer and the other half to the County Commissioners for the use of the public roads.

Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws, as amended by the Acts of 1900 and 1901, says:

Whoever, during the hours of registration, or revision of registration, or during the hours of election or canvas of votes or of making returns thereof in any precinct, shall bring, take, order or send into, shall or attempt to bring or take or send into any place of registration or of election any distilled or spiritous liquors, wine ale or beer, or, shall at any such time or place drink or partake of such liquors, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than $100.

JOHN T. VICKERS, Sheriff.

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS

1. To vote. Enter room, step up to guard rail, give name and registered residence to the Judges. Wait until your name is found upon the registers, then get ballot from the judge in charge of the ballots. See that he has written your name and number on the coupon attached to the ballot and his own name or initials on the back of the ballot itself.

2. Upon receiving your ballot retire to one of the booths or compartments and prepare your ballot by marking with an indelible pencil after the name of every person, or persons for whom you wish to vote, in the square provided thereof, a cross-mark, for example (X); and in case of a question submitted to a vote of the people, by marking likewise in the appropriate square a cross-mark (X) after the answer you desire to give. You should be careful to make no mark on the ballot other than the cross-marks within the squares.

3. In marking the ballot you may take with you into the polling place any written or printed memorandum or paper to assist you in preparing your ballot, except a facsimile of the ballot to be voted. You must prepare and deposit your ballot without undue delay. Before coming from behind the curtain in front of your compartment you must fold your ballot in the same way as it was folded when you received it, so that the marks which you have made upon it shall be entirely concealed. You then hand your folded ballot to the judge at the ballot box, give him your name and registered address and wait until he tears off the coupon containing your name and number, and strings it, and deposits your ballot in the ballot box. You must then leave the polling room and can not again go behind the guard rail during the day.

4. A voter must not go in any compartment occupied by another or converse with any other voter while engaged in a compartment, nor can any voter occupy a compartment more than seven minutes if others are

5. You must not take any ballot outside the guard rail. If you spoil a ballot you must deliver the spoiled ballot to the judge in charge of the ballots and receive another from him. If you spoil three ballots you lose your vote.

6. A voter who is physically disabled from marking his or her ballot must make affidavit to that effect, if he or she desires assistance. The two polling clerks, after such affidavit has been made, can accompany him or her into one of the compartments and there mark his or her balling only the names of the candidates lot as he or she instructs them, markwhom he or she shall name. The clerks are not allowed to read the ballot to him or her.

7. Any voter who shall allow his or her ballot to be seen by any person with the apparent intention of letting it be known how he or she is about to vote; or who shall place any distinguishing mark upon his or her ballot, or who shall make a false statement as to his or her inability to mark his or her ballot, or who shall interfere or attempt to interfere with any voter when inside the enclosed space in the polling room, or when marking his or her ballot, or who shall endeavor to induce any voter before voting to show how he or she marks or has marked his or her ballot, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ($5.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, or by imprisonment in jail for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days, or by both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court.

corporation, any money, gift, advantage, preferment, aid, emolument or any valuable thing whatsoever, for the purpose of inducing or procuring any person to vote, or refrain from voting for or against any person, or for or against any measure or proposition at any election or primary election or political convention. Every person who in consideration of any money, gift, preferment, aid, emolument, or any valuable thing whatsoever paid, received, accepted or promised to the advantage of himself or any other person, shall vote, or refrain from voting,

CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT

CHAPTER 122, ACTS OF 1908

171. The following persons shall be guilty of corrupt practices and shall be punished in accordance with the provisions of this act: Every person, who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself or by another give or offer or promise to any person any money, gift, advantage, preferment, entertainment, aid, emolument, or any valuable thing whatever, for the purpose of inducing or procuring any person to vote, or refrain from voting, for or against any person, or for or against any measure or proposition at any election or primary election or political convention or session of the General Assembly of Maryland or either House thereof. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly receive, accept, request or solicit, or bludgeon, and any person from any person, candidate, committee, association, organization or for or against any person, or for or against any measure at any such election, caucus or primary election or political convention. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, pay, give, contribute or promise any money or other valuable thing, to defray, or towards defraying the costs or expense of any campaign or election, to any person, committee, company, club, or ganization, or association other than to a treasurer or political agent; but this sub-section or paragraph shall not apply to dues regularly paid for membership in any incorporated political club if all money expended by such club for or in connection with the costs or expenses of any campaign or as provided in this Act, or to any expenses for postage, telephoning, telegrams, stationery, printing, expressage or traveling and board incurred by any candidate for office or for nomination thereto so far as they are permitted by this Act. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself or through another person, make a payment or promise of payment, to a treasurer or political agent in any other name than his own; and every treasurer or political agent, who shall knowingly receive a payment or promise of payment, and enter the same or cause the same to be entered in his accounts in any other name than that of the person by whom such payment or promise of payment is made. Every person who being an employer pays his employes the salary or wages due in "pay envelopes" upon which there is written or printed, or in which there is enclosed any political motto, device or argument containing threats, express or implied, intended or calculated to influence the political opinions or actions of such employes, or within ninety days of any election or primary puts, or otherwise exhibits, in the establishments or place where his employes are engaged in labor, any hand bill or placard containing any threat notice or information that if any particular ticket or candidate is elected or defeated, work in his place or establishment will cease in whole or in part or his establishment be closed up, or the wages of his employes be reduced other threats expressed or implied, intended or calculated to influence the political opinions or actions or his employes. Every person, who, before, during or after election or primary election, by himself or by any other person, either directly or indirectly, gives or provides or pays, wholly or in part the expenses of giving or providing provisions to or for any person, for the purpose of influencing that person or any other person, to give or refrain from giving his vote at the election or primary election, or to influence his vote in any other way therein, or on account of his having voted or refrained from voting, or being about to vote or refrain from voting, and every elector who accepts the same, or any of the same, for any of the purposes aforesaid. Every person who shall be guilty of any corrupt practices as aforesaid shall be fined not less than three hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned for one year, or both, and shall be ineligible to any public office or public employment for a period of four years from and after the time of the commission of such offense.

BETTING ON ELECTIONS

The attention of all persons is particularly called to the following sections of 36 Code of Public Laws of Maryland:

Section 45. No person shall make any bet or wager on the result of any election to take plac in this State.

Sec.48. Any person offending against the last preceding section shall be liable to indictment by the Circuit Court. If the offense be committed in any county, or in the Criminal Court of Baltimore, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, to be paid to the State for School Fund.

Sec. 48. Any deposit of money in any part of the State as a wager or bet upon elections in this State or elsewhere shall be forfeited and paid over to the County Commissioners of the county where deposited for the use of the county, and if deposited in the city of Baltimore, to the Mayor and City Council.

BETTERTON REGATTA DRAWS LARGE CROWDS

by Bozo, III, owned by Samuel R. Loyd, of Kentmore Park.

Last year in these two events there were about forty boats most of which were from the Maryland Yacht Club and Havre de Grace Club Both of these clubs were wrecked by the storm and only one boat came from each of these clubs. ...

Unlimited Speed Boat

The unlimited sped-boat event saw the Sea Quen of the North East Yacht Club and the Miss Long Point battling it out for first place. On Saturday the Miss Long Point won the first heat in 8 min. 42 sec. Sea Queen made the course in 8 min 43 1-2 sec. Just 1 1-2 sec. separated these two boats. In the second heat on Sunday the Miss Long Point by the Sea Queen by three seconds. Miss Long Point is owned by Walter Hasslinger, of Baltimore, and the Sea Queen by Henry Pippin, of the North East Yacht Club. The Rojah owned by W. H. Jones, of Kentmore Park, took third place in this event his time being 10 min. and 5 sec. The Chotsie a hydroplane owned by Dr. Bagley, of Baltimore, was unable to race with the other boats because of their deep swells. A special race was put on between the Chotsie and Sea Queen and th Sea Queen won.

Handicap Gilling Skiff

A handicap Gilling Skiff race was held on Sunday that was a real handicap race. In handicap cruiser races the cruiser generally watch their time come to the finishing line and wait for the proper time to go over. The Gilling Skiff boys kept no time. They ran their course and when the handicap race was held the Dixie owned by Ray Crew had a 35 second start on the Falson captained by Harold Crew. The Ace was handicaped 2 min. and 50 sec. behind the starting time. The sped on until the finish. The Dixie escaped underrunning her time by 4 sec. The Dixie won but the Ace owned by Merritt Sutton was pushing her hard. The Falson was third but on by a few seconds. This ... cap race, the contestants running like contestants should.

The sailing yacht of C. Parker Boyd served as committee boat for the Counthian Yacht Club and the Hotel Betterton served as headquarters where their banquet were held.

For the Betterton Yacht Club the Apache was used for the race committee and spectators. A dance was held aboard the Apache Saturday afternoon the music being supplied by the Betterton Casino orchestra.

The entertainment committee used the Murray of the state conservation fleet. This boat also served as a buoy boat for the sailing races. Only one boat finished the free-for-all. The Stout Fella owned and sailed by Al Stout, of Philadelphia, was very late reaching the starting line but sailed the whole course. The small sail boats could not make the time limit. Nelson Crew as leading and Dr. Russell Kiker was sailing second Floyd Crownhart and A. Sellers were both trailing Dr. Kiker. The Murray towed these boats in.

Commodore C Franklin Storke and Thos. S. Sileox acted as starters. Mr. Herbert T Hartman with Commodore Storke and Chas. H. Brice acted as judges. James S. Watson had charge of entries and Chas. Clark and Nelson Crew attended to the race course.

The race committee, officers of the Apache and Capt. Akers and crew of the Murray were entertained at a banquet at the Hotel Chesapeake on Saturday night by the Betterton Yacht Club.

COUNTHIAN REGATTA

The floating debris on Sunday morning was too much for the star boats and the race on Sunday morning was postponed until later in the day.

The Corinthian Regatta featured nothing but Star Boat races and they had 42 star boats entered. But, due to the storm this number was cut somewhat.

J. Hammond Gibson with his wife as crew scored first place in the series of races with 43 points. Their boat the Juno 1 was first in the first race, second in the second race and finished a very close fourth on Sunday. The Juno 1 is a member of the Chesapeake Bay Yacht Club.

Second for the series was the Restless II owned and sailed by Donald E. Doeller and his brother C. H. Doeller. This Gibson Island boat scored a total of 41 points.

Right on the heels of Restless II for second place in the series was the Fawn C owned and sailed by Judd Stewart of the Elk River Yacht Club. Her total was 40 points just one point behind the Restless II.

Little breeze during the entire series of races for the three days. In the star boat races like eery other form of sailing races there are some that wish for a strong breeze and others hope for a light one.

Gar owned by Wm. B. Matthews, of the Chesapeake Bay Yacht Club is at its best in a very strong wind. At Betterton the Gar could not do much in the light breeze.
