George Walston, Lessee vs. Sydnum H. Mills, &c.	Ejectment in the Circuit Court for Worcester County. In the above cause it is admitted that the tract of Land called Jerusalem for which this suit is brought has been granted by the State of Maryland, and that the title thereto was in Jonathan S. Parsons the testator, under whom the plaintiff claims, and that said Parson's died lawfully seized thereof – It is further agreed that any locations which the plaintiff or defendant may have made on the plots may be given in evidence to the jury although the lines thereof may not have been actually run – It is further agreed that witnesses who were present on the surveys and who were not sworn on the surveys, or who may have shown to the surveyor objects which are located on the plats, may be examined as to such objects. It is further agreed, that either party may read the recital of any patent from the surveyors certificate where the Patent may have been mislaid to have the same effect as if the patent itself were read. It is further agreed that the testimony of Joshua H. Trader, and William Jackson, given on the survey as to the first bounder of the tract of land called The Battle, may be given in evidence to the Jury by the surveyor, in case said Trader and Jackson are not present at the trial, to have the same effect as if the said witnesses were produced and sworn in open Court and sworn, and that
