CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

An amendment to Section 1 of Article 14 of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, title "Amendments to the Constitution," relating to the advertisement or publication of amendments to the Constitution.

Section 1. The General Assembly may propose Amendments to this Constitution; provided that each Amendment shall be embraced in a separte Bill, embodying the Article or Section, as the same will stand when amended and passed by three fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses, by yeas and nays, to be entered on the Journals with the proposed Amendment. The Bill or Bills proposing amendment or amendments shall be published by order of the Governor, in at least two newspapers in each County, where so many may be published, and where not more than one may be published, then in that newspaper, and in three newspapers published in the City of Baltimore, once a week for three weeks immediately preceeding the next ensuing general election, at which the proposed amendment or amendments shall be submitted, in a form to be prescribed by the General Assembly, to the qualified voters of the state for adoption or rejection. Provided, however, the General Assembly may provide for publishing any proposed amendment or amendments in pamphlet form, and for making said pamphlets available to the registered voters of the State in addition to publication in the newspapers. The votes cast for and against said proposed amendment or amendments, severally, shall be returned to the Governor, in the manner prescribed in other cases, and if it shall appear to the Governor that a majority of the votes cast at said election on said amendment or amendments, severally, were cast in favor thereof, the Governor shall, by his proclamation, declare the said amendment or amendments having received said majority of votes, to have been adopted by the people of Maryland as part of the Constitution thereof, and thenceforth said amendment or amendments shall be part of the said Constitution. When two or more amendments shall be submitted in manner aforesaid, to the voters of this State at the same election, they shall be so submitted as that each amendment shall be voted on separately.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

An amendment to Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 39A, to be under new sub-title "Part IV A - Juvenile Courts," and to follow immediately after Section 39 of said Article providing for the establishment of Juvenile Courts.

Section 39A. A Juvenile Court is hereby created for Baltimore City, and the General Assembly by law may establish a Juvenile Court for any other incorporated city or town or any county of the State. The court hereby created, and any court established hereunder by law, shall be a court of record and shall have exclusive jurisdiction within such city, town or county over all criminal offenses other than those punishable by death or life imprisonment committed by any person under eighteen years of age, and such additional jurisdiction as may be from time to time prescribed by the General Assembly by law. The General Assembly by law shall prescribe ,and from time to time may alter.

1. The number, qualifications, tenure and method of selection of the judge or judges of such courts, and their powers, duties and compensation, but the salary or compensation of any judge of any such court shall not be reduced during his continuance in office;
2. The right of appeal from such court;
3. The number, qualifications, tenure, method of selection, duties and compensation of all clerks, bailiffs, probation officers or other employees of such courts; and
4. Any other matters relating to such courts.

In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this section and any of the the provisions of this Constitution, the provisions of this Section shall prevail and such other provisions shall be repealed or abrogated to the extent of such unconsistency, except Section 35-A of Article III. Until the General Assembly has established a Juvenile Court for any incorporated city or town or any county of the State, jurisdiction over juvenile causes shall be exercised in the same manner and to the same extent as authorized by the Constitution and laws of this State, in effect prior to the adoption of this Section.
