The Impeachment Trial.

The prosecution, being the managers of impeachment on the part of the House of Representatives, in the trial of the President, closed their case on Saturday last, with the exception of some cumulative evidence yet to be offered; but that any one, not previously calling for impeachment as a party measure, really believes that there has been anything developed in the evidence justifying conviction of the President of high crimes and misdemeanors, it would be an insult to common sense to suppose. On the request of the President's counsel for three days' time, the Senate adjourned as a court of impeachment until Thursday last. The counsel intimate that their testimony on behalf of the President is largely documentary, which it requires some little time to get together and arrange. The opening for the defense will doubtless awaken new interest in the trial.

It is stated that Mr. Stevens and Gen. Logan both desire to make speeches in the trial, but as Messrs. Boutwell and Bingham are already designated by the managers to argue the case, and as the rule of the Senate does not permit more than two speeches on each side, Messrs. Stevens and Logan cannot deliver their proposed speeches without a change of the rules of the Senate. It is understood that Judge Curtis will open the case for the defense, and Messrs. Evarts and Stanbery make the closing arguments.

There is considerable difference, even in radical circles, as to whether the case has been made out by the prosecution.—The New York Times maintains the negative emphatically. It says:

"The testimony has been flat, stale and unprofitable. Where special circumstances indicative of the purpose the managers wished to fasten upon him were attempted to be proved, the failure, as we are sure every lawyer will admit, was complete. For the charge of conspiracy, or anything approaching conspiracy, not an item of evidence was found. For the charge of a forcible attempt to seize the war office, nothing but the most preposterous proof was adduced. For the charge of attempting to obtain illegal control of the public funds, the managers offered no testimony that had a feather's weight. If they succeeded in proving anything, it was during the last two days, in regard to the authenticity of the President's speeches against Congress. . . It seemed exceedingly unfair to attempt to hold the President responsible for the foolish language of General Thomas, and to convey the impression that Thomas's threats of force were uttered by the direction or privity of Mr. Johnson, and yet, when we were able to see the whole evidence on the point, we were better able to form a judgment as to its bearing and value."

The New York Journal of Commerce, always judicious and dispassionate, considers the case for the prosecution so weak that it thinks the President's counsel would have been entirely safe in submitting it without a word of defense on Saturday last. It says that it would be willing to leave the verdict to any twelve men selected at chance from the ranks of the republicans themselves, only reserving a right of challenge for such cause as would disqualify a man as juror in common law. It adds:

"We do not think that any persons, even those most conversant with the facts of the case, were prepared for so flat a failure of the prosecution The managers themselves were evidently astonished, as they went on, to see how the whole thing weakened. Every man of them but Butler showed signs of discouragement and disgust."

THE MICHIGAN VERDICT ON SUFFRAGE.—Every Northern State, radical or conservative, to whom the question of negro suffrage has been submitted has overwhelmingly rejected it, bnt the Michigan election, on Monday last, on the adoption of a new constitution, is the most significant and deep-toned reprobation of this policy that has yet been uttered. In this stanch radical State the opportunity afforded by the formation of a new constitution was availed of by the leaders of the radical party to compel the people to endorse such suffrage by making it a part of the constitution, and thus leaving them no alternative but to adopt it or lose all the benefits of an instrument which is said to have been otherwise very desirable for some great reforms introduced into it, and other advantages for local purposes. But the people of Michigan did not hesitate a moment in making their choice, and by a large majority gave up the constitution, from which they had expected such benefits, rather than permit negro suffrage in Michigan, although there are only a very few colored men in that State. The effrontery shown by their leaders in putting this plank in the constitution, not vouchsafing honestly to submit it in a separate article, was very emphatically rebuked by the people. Their rejection of the new constitution, notwithstanding the expense and trouble incurred in the revision of the organic law, indicates how determined they are not to submit to that which their representatives so readily enforce elsewhere—in the District of Columbia and the whole South—by wholesale, while even in the infinitesimal dose it is emphatically refused at home.—Balt. Sun.

THE BILL IN RELATION TO RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS.—Governor Swann has withheld his approval from the bill passed by the Maryland Legislature changing the law in relation to religious corporations, and it has consequently failed to become a law.

THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION.—The election on Monday in Connecticut resulted in favor of the Democratic Conservative party. From the extraordinary efforts made by the Republicans to recover the ground they lost last year the contest was expected to be a close one, and the result doubtful. The returns received render it certain that Governor English, the Democratic candidate, whose majority over Hawley, the Republican candidate last year, was 987, has been re-elected by a majority of about 1,750. The Legislature will stand: Senate—12 republicans and 9 democrats, with one district to hear from. House—about 20 republican majority, insuring a republican Senator in place of Mr. Dixon, elected some years ago as a republican, but who has lately voted with the conservatives. Mr. Dixon's term expires on the fourth of March next.

As an explanation of the large radical majority in the Legislature, it may be stated that the rotten borough system prevails all over Connecticut. Townships with but fifty or one hundred voters elect as many Assemblymen as towns with one thousand voters. We have not heard a word from Mr. Sumner or Mr. Nye about the inequality of representation, of which they complain so much of Maryland, nor do they seem to doubt in the least that Connecticut possesses a republican form of government.

THE ELECTION IN MICHIGAN—Defeat of the New Radical Constitution, embodying Negro Suffrage.—The people of Michigan on Monday voted on the new Constitution which the Radicals had undertaken to frame for that State, and into which they had incorporated negro suffrage—having refused to submit it to the popular vote as a separate article. Full returns have not been received, but those that have come to hand indicate clearly that the Constitution, with its negro suffrage clause, and evidently because of it, has been defeated.

SERENADING.—The Kent Cornet Band was up town Tuesday evening serenading the recently married. They paid their respects to two couple, where they, together with some guests, were very hospitably entertained, and discoursed some choice music. The Professor (the leader), tho' strictly temperate, is very apt to play several tunes in quick succession when he gets his note-book in a certain position! Having a sort of standing invitation to every thing of the kind that comes off up town, we embraced the opportunity to be present, and were highly pleased both with the music and the associations of the evening.

COUNTY APPOINTMENTS.—The County Commissioners on Tuesday last made the following appointments:

Collectors of Taxes—First district, Elijah E. Miller; second district, Jacob Sutton; third district, Thomas H. Kennard; fourth district, Charles H. Baker; fifth district, Samuel G. Copper.

Trustees of the Almshouse—Benjamin F. Beck, Lewin Usilton and Aaron L. Gooding.

Standard-Keeper—L. L. Rollison.

KENT COUNTY RAILROAD.—The attention of stockholders is invited to the resolution of the Directors of the Kent County Railroad Company, calling for the payment of an instalment of five dollars on each share of stock. It is important that this call should be promptly responded to. The contract for building the road has been prepared, and will no doubt be duly executed in less than a week. We shall then be at liberty to give particulars.

SALE OF TOWN LOTS.—R. Hynson, Esq., has sold to John N. Usilton, Esq., the lot on the corner of High and Mill streets, with a front of about 100 ft. on the former and running through to Calvert street, for $2,000.

W. B. Usilton has sold the lot on High street, adjoining Wm. Bacchus, Esq., and Mr. R. Smyth, fronting 40 feet, by 122 feet in depth, for $550; Mr. John F. Howard, purchaser. Also, the lot on the opposite side of the street, fronting 25 ft., and running through to Calvert street, for $500. Mr. R. S. Usilton purchaser.

UNSEASONABLE WEATHER.—It has been exceedingly cool for several days past, with a smart sprinkling of snow on Thursday afternoon. The weather has been very unfavorable for agricultural operations, and farmers are much behindhand with their work.

VENDUE.—On Wednesday next Mr. J. W. Edwards, near Hanesville, will sell his stock, farming implements, &c.

A Washington letter says: The knowledge of the fact that the Supreme Court had actually, by an almost unanimous vote, decided that the reconstruction laws are unconstitutional, has staggered a considerable number of Republicans in both Houses, and produced an unwillingness to go on with that sort of work until there is some prospect of a thorough reorganization of the court so as to sustain the reconstruction legislation.

THE NEW GOVERNOR'S HOUSE.—It is now understood that the Trustees appointed by the Legislature during its recent session to procure a site and build a Governor's Mansion, have selected the property now owned by Mrs. Green, and Messrs. Franklin and Allen, adjoining the State House. The committee have appointed Messrs. Andrews and Hank, of Baltimore city, as architects, who are now engaged in preparing drawings, &c., to submit to the committee. It is expected that the committee will shortly employ builders and commence the work.—Md. Republican.

A Clean Sweep in Virginia.

Another turn of the screw has been experienced by the Virginia people in a late order of General Schofield, which makes a clean sweep of all the officials in that State whose term of office has expired, by demanding of them what is called the iron-clad oath, in order to be eligible for re-election, and which directs the military commissioners to forward the names of suitable persons to fill the vacancies. The oath to be administered to the person taking office under this order is that he has never voluntarily borne arms against the United States, nor sought nor held office under the Confederacy, nor yielded voluntary support to it. It is not supposed that General Schofield has issued this order of his own motion, but has done it in obedience to instructions from higher authority. The order cleans out pretty much every grade of officer, State, county, and municipal, including mayors, city councils, constables, hustings courts, &c., and in the different cities and town lists of the expected-to-be officials are being canvassed and made up by the "accepted class." The Petersburg News says that under the order many tried and faithful public servants, who have grown gray in discharge of their duties, will now, in their old age, be turned adrift at a period when it is hard even for youth and energy to contend with the difficulties of the times.—The probabilities are that Gen. Schofield has been directed to carry out these changes with a view to the approach of the period when there must be an election in Virginia on the Constitution, to be submitted from the reconstruction convention now approaching the close of its session—the purpose being to carry that constitution by all means, in spite of the sentiment of the majority, which is supposed to be against it. With this view, the State, it is stated, will also be gerrymandered in the radical interest. Meantime, the present nominal Governor, a native of the State, Governor Pierpont, who has been holding over under military authority since his term expired, has been superseded.—Bv't Brigadier General Henry H. Wells, of Michigan, who went to Alexandria in 1862 as provost marshal of the military district, has been appointed Governor of the State by General Schofield.

GIVING "BACKBONE" TO THE SENATE.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes:

Mention has heretofore been made of the action of the House in daily repairing in a body to the Senate whenever the impeachment trial is resumed, and remaining there until the close of the session.

The purpose of sending the entire body to the Senate when the House is legally and for all necessary purposes present in the persons of its managers, was not apparent on its face, nor did all the members of the House understand the real object of the procedure, and when it was at first proposed to suspend business in the House during the session of the trial in the Senate, it will be recollected that some republican members opposed the motion, and it was defeated.

In a day or two thereafter the motion was again made and carried, the members meantime being instructed privately that it was deemed necessary they should be present in the Senate to give "backbone" to that body; and ever since the trial commenced the members of the House have freely mingled with Senators, sitting along side of them, from time to time conversing upon the proceedings and making suggestions. To such an extent has this reprehensible practice been carried, and so manifestly improper is it, that republican correspondents have condemned it in their letters from this city.

At first it was given out by the impeachers that the Johnsonites would buy up certain radical Senators, and many other rascally tricks were to be resorted to, according to the impeachers, to secure the acquittal of the President. It now turns out the only corrupt practices resorted to in this trial have been practiced by the impeachers themselves, who have been, and are now, engaged in bringing various influences to bear upon Senators who are not regarded as certain for conviction.

A YOUNG LADY BURNED TO DEATH.—A correspondent of the Sun says:

A most distressing fire occurred near Mount Tabor Church, on South River, in Anne Arundel county, Md., on Monday night, on the farm owned by Mr. John L. Hawkins, a respected citizen, which not only resulted in the total destruction of the property, but painful to state, the eldest daughter of Mr. Hawkins, (Miss Fanny Hawkins,) aged about twenty-two years, was burned to death in the flames. Her remains were seen burning to a crisp when the roof of the house fell in.

WOMEN are steadily gaining a foothold in pursuits heretofore restricted to men. Last week the Commencement of the New York Medical College for Women was held, and, in the presence of a large audience, eight ladies received diplomas of graduation, the address in presenting the diplomas being made by a lady, who is Dean of the College Faculty.

CURIOSITIES OF ADVERTISING.—A Scotch paper has a "Courtship Corner," which contains a variety of queer notices, similar to those which appear under the head "Personal" in some of our papers. But the most curious notice in the same paper is: "Young lady wanted, about seventeen or eighteen, to go to a ball on the 14th."

IT is the law of Kentucky, lately enacted, that the legal representatives of any person killed or injured by the careless use of firearms may have an action against the person who commits the deed. Such a law, strictly enforced everywhere, might shorten the chapter of accidents with which most country newspapers are filled.

THE Maryland Senate, before adjourning, confirmed the appointment of Messrs. John Carson, of Baltimore city, J. Phillip Roman, of Allegany county, and Dr. James L. Bryan, of Dorchester county, as Trustees of the State Normal School, under the new school law.

IT is said that the President's counsel are of the opinion that the impeachment trial will be ended by the 18th instant.

A CONVOCATION of the Episcopal ministers of the Eastern Shore will be held in Easton on the 15th of April.

Action to Recover Money Lost at A Gambling House.

In the Superior Court last week a case was tried, in which Robert K. Wilson instituted an action against Robert J. Slater and Joseph Thompson to recover the sum of $6,900, alledged to have been lost at the gambling establishment of the defendants, No. 8 1-2 South Calvert street.—The action is brought under the provisions of the 61st section of the 30th article of the code of public general laws, which says that "any person who may lose money at a gaming table may recover back the same as if it were a common debt, and may be a competent witness to prove the sum he lost, but no person shall recover any money or other thing which he may have won by betting at any game, or by betting in any manner whatsoever."

The testimony of the plaintiff was to the effect that he was a resident of Queen Anne's county; that he had held the position of Justice of the peace and assessor of internal revenue, and had been employed by a number of gentlemen, residents of Queen Anne's county, to collect from the State the bounty of $100 due each for their slaves taken for the army, and that having about $2,000 of his own and several thousand dollars belonging to the former slave owners referred to, he came to Baltimore at different times between August 1863, and April 1865; that he visited different gambling houses and lost all his money, the principal part at the establishment of the defendants.

No witnesses were examined on the part of the defense, they relying upon the fact that the jury would not credit the statement of a party who admitted that he had appropriated the money of other people in the manner stated above. The case, after being argued on the part of the plaintiff by Archibald Stirling, Jr., Esq., and by Rob't C. Barry and Oliver F. Hack, Esqs., for the defendants, was given to the jury. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1,500.

EX-GOVERNOR PIERPONT, OF VIRGINIA.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune gives the following concerning Ex-Governor Pierpont, of Virginia, derived from the friends of that gentleman. The writer says:

On the first of January Gen. Schofield informed Gov. Pierpont that in his opinion his (Pierpont's) term of office had expired on that day, and that he was not eligible to longer hold office. Gov. Pierpont replied that he did not so understand the law; that the Constitution of Virginia provided that the Governor should hold office four years, and that he was to continue in office until his successor was qualified, and that as there had been no election in the spring of 1867, no person was then qualified. He added that he desired to exercise no executive functions unless he had clearly the legal right to do so, and proposed that the question should be submitted to the Court of Appeals.

General Schofield assented to this, and when the court met, on the 15th of January, the case was brought up on a writ of habeas corpus which involved the question whether the Governor was an officer within the meaning of the 22d section of the constitution. The court unanimously decided that Mr. Pierpont was Governor. Gen. Schofield apparently acquiesced in the decision, and even congratulated Gov. Pierpont on the result, and up to the date of his order maintained very intimate relations with him. It has been ascertained that General Grant, after examining both sides of the question, decided to allow Gen. Schofield's order to stand, and telegraphed him to have Gov. Wells inaugurated, which was done on Tuesday last.

REPORTED RECONCILIATION BETWEEN GENERAL GRANT AND GENERAL BUTLER.—A Washington despatch to the Evening Telegram says: It is understood that the difficulty between General Butler and General Grant has at last been amicably settled. The friends of both parties have been engaged for some time past in a sort of diplomatic correspondence with a view to bringing them together. The chief actor in this business was George Wilkes, who has been here for some weeks, ostensibly as a spectator of the impeachment trial, but really as a negotiator between Grant and Butler.

The latter's resentment against Grant has been very bitter. He could not well forget his pungent criticism on his military services when he alluded to him in his report as being bottled up at Bermuda Hundred. After this had been satisfactorily explained away Butler said Grant had insulted him by sending him an invitation to his reception after having said to the country that he was bottled up.—This also was fully explained and Butler has at last consented to smoke the pipe of peace.

SINGULAR CASE—A Man Struck Dumb on the Cars.—A gentleman who resides in Wilkes county and was returning home from Augusta on Thursday last entirely lost the power of speech soon after the train left Augusta. We heard him attempting to talk soon after he got on the train, and in a few moments he could not articulate a word. He was in the possession of all other faculties, but his lips were literally sealed. His distress was very touching, and he wrote replies to questions addressed him by the passengers and tried to bear up under the terrible visitation. He said that he had been on a spree. He hoped it was only a species of delirium and would wear off with rest and sleep. He said he had once before been deprived of his speech, for a short time, in Virginia. His case attracted much attention among the passengers, several of whom knew him and were satisfied that he was not using deception.—His case as a most forcible illustration of the summary and terrible manner in which nature sometimes punishes a violation of her laws.—Athens (Ga.) Banner.

LAND SALES.—M. Bannon, Esq., of Baltimore, sold as Trustee, on Friday last the farm of Mr. Thos. E. Talbot, on Chester River, for $40 per acre. Wm. Bishop Esq., (Cent Billy) was the purchaser.

Mr. Jno. Carson has sold his farm near Crumpton to Mr. Ely, of Philadelphia, for $4,400—being about $40 per acre.—Centreville Observer.

Chestertown, April 11, 1868—te.

RAIL ROAD NOTICE.

THE Stockholders of the KENT COUNTY RAILROAD COMPANY are hereby notified that an instalment of FIVE DOLLARS PER SHARE OF STOCK has been called for by resolution of the Board of Directors of said Company; payable on or before the 20th day of May next.

It is all important to the success of the road that this call should meet with a prompt response from every stockholder, as the road will surely be under contract in less than ten days.

It is stated with regret, that there has been some delay on the part of certain stockholders in responding to the calls heretofore made for instalments of stock, while by others such calls have been wholly neglected. The reason generally assigned for such delay or neglect has been, that there was no assurance that a Rail Road in Kent county would ever become an established fact. That reason can no longer avail; and we hope hereafter there will be no more delinquencies.

Stockholders who have neglected to respond to previous calls have thereby forfeited their stock to the Company, and made themselves liable for its par value, but the Board of Directors, by resolution, have determined not to treat such stock as forfeited to the Company, and take at once legal measures to enforce speedy payment of its par value, provided, all the arrears on such stock are paid on or before the 20th day of May next.
