Senatorial Justice.

When the credentials of Governor Thomas, of Maryland, were presented to the Senate, and he was prepared to take the oath of office, objections were interposed, and charges of "disloyalty" conjured up, which were held sufficient by the dominant faction to refer them to the judiciary committee. He was not a radical, and that was reason enough to exclude him from a seat to which he had been fairly elected, and which he was legally competent to fill. The history of that discreditable transaction is too recent to be forgotten, and, therefore, it is only necessary to revive it for a contrast which we propose to make. When one of the carpet-bag Senators from South Carolina appeared to be sworn in last week, he was confronted with affidavits charging him with complicity in blockade running, and with being a member of a rebel military company during the war. The blockade-running accusation was admitted, but inasmuch as the individual was born in New Hampshire, had lived in Massachusetts, and is now a professing radical, this act of "disloyalty" was condoned, and the Senators who had been loudest in opposing the right of Governor Thomas were conspicuous in urging the admission of this carpet-bagger, upon the ground that the certificate was prima facie evidence, which could not be disregarded. He must be sworn in, and then investigation might follow.

No dispute was raised about the credentials of Governor Thomas, and no contest about his seat. Yet the broad seal of Maryland was treated with indignity, and her chosen Senator denied even the poor privilege of defending himself In this case the charges of "disloyalty" are specific and sworn to. The seat is contested, and corruption is alleged in the election. Yet the claimant is admitted simply because he was elected by negroes, and calls himself a radical. To this complexion has the Senate of the United States come at last. What else could be expected with the Drakes, Tiptons, Nyes, Pomeroys, Thayers, Stewarts and such like, flanked by congenial carpet-baggers, sitting in the chairs once filled by Clay, Webster, Clayton, Cass, and their cotemporaries, like "Kites roosting in the eagle's nest?"—National Intelligence.

SEVERAL cases of cholera have been reported in New York, three of them proving fatal. They all occurred in a district known as Shanty Village, a most wretched locality, abounding in filth of every description. The Board of Health are depositing disinfectants throughout the pestilential district, and it is hoped that the prompt measures taken will prevent the disease from becoming an epidemic.

Attention Knights!

MANY solicitations having been made for another TOURNAMENT, somewhat on the style of the affair of July 17th, 1867, the undersigned desire letters from young men, desirous of engaging in the Tilt, expressive of their intentions.

Remembering the glorious success of the last undertaking, which was unanimously declared to have been the most successful Tournament that had ever taken place in the United States, we appeal, again, to the Chivalrous valor of our young men, and invite them to the trial where honor may be won, and beauty may be crowned.

THE VALUE of this Guano is now so well known and appreciated, that it does not require further commendation from us.

The Company owns the Guano Islands, and other sources of supply from which its raw material is drawn. Hence, this Guano, possessing such high excellence, can be brought into market at a price not exceeding that of the ordinary Super-Phosphates of Lime.

The large capital invested by this Company affords the surest guarantee of the continued excellence of their fertilizer, as the safety of their capital depends upon continued and permanent business.

Experience has shown that this Guano ripens the Wheat crop from five to six days earlier than the Super-Phosphates.

It is the policy and purpose of the Company to furnish the best fertilizer that enterprize and capital, aided by the best scientific ability, can bring into market, at the lowest possible cost to consumers.

Offer at the stand formerly occupied by MASTBAUM, the MOST SUPERIOR STOCK OF

GENTS'

FURNISHING GOODS,

Ever Displayed in this Market.

They have selected these goods themselves, knowing, from their long experience, exactly what the people want. All of our citizens who have been in the practice of sending to Baltimore now order their suits from them.

They furnish them sooner, cheaper, better, neater, handsomer, and with more care than any house in the State. We can prove that this is no vain boast.

Their stock comprises everything a gentleman can wear, from a hat of the latest style to a pair of socks; from a suit of clothes to a necktie; from a pair of drawers to a pair of kid gloves.

They can suit a young man courting, or an old man running for the Legislature.

THEY PAY ESPECIAL ATTENTION TO

Customer Work,

And will order any dress of any style, or of any fit, in as short a time as it can be made in Baltimore.

BEING CONNECTED with the LARGEST TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT in Philadelphia, they can furnish these Goods CHEAPER here than they can be bought in the City.
