In accordance with the law, and my own wishes, funeral expenses will be first paid.

I wish the obsequies to be conducted becoming the daughter of John McKim and the widow of Samuel L. K. Handy. The casket for my mortal remains to be the approved style of the day, with plate, &c. No public notice, but all my relatives and personal friends to be invited, and carriages to be provided for all who may care go to the ground.

Witness my hand and seal 17th of April, 1875.

Ann McKim Handy, (Seal.)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Ann McKim Handy, as and for her last will and testament, in our presence, who, at her request, and her presence, and in presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names and respective places of residence as witnesses thereto.

William McKim, 120. Park avenue.
Hollins McKim N.E. Cor. Calvert and Chase streets.
Louis McKim, 120. Park avenue.

Baltimore City. Ss.

On the 5th day of January, 1884, came Hollins McKim, who makes oath in due form of law, that he was well acquainted with William McKim and Louis McKim in their lifetime, and with their handwriting, and that the names of William McKim and Louis McKim, as written to the codicil dated 17th of April, 1875, to the last will and testament of Ann McKim Handy, deceased, are, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the true and genuine signatures of said William McKim and Louis McKim both being now deceased.

Sworn to in open Court.

Test:- Robert T. Banks,
Register of Wills for Baltimore city.

Baltimore City, Ss.

On the 5th day of January, 1884, came Hollins McKim, one of the subscribing witnesses to the aforegoing codicil to the last will and testament of Ann McKim Handy, late of said city, deceased, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that he did see the testatrix sign and seal this codicil; that he heard her publish, pronounce and declare the same to be a codicil to her last will and testament; that at the time of her so doing she was, to the best of his apprehension, of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding; and that he, together with William McKim and Louis McKim, the other two subscribing witnesses thereto, subscribed their names as witnesses to the codicil, in her presence, at her request, and in the presence of each other.

Sworn to in open Court.

Test:- Robert T. Banks,
Register of Wills for Baltimore city.

It has become necessary to add a second codicil or supplement to the will, to which I affixed my name and seal the eighteenth day of July, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty two.

Ann McKim Handy.

A supplement added to the codicil to my will, drawn 17th day of April, 1875.

It has become necessary to revoke the bequest I made to the Mission Orphan Asylum. This society having ceased to exist, I therefore revoke the bequest.

I also revoke the bequest to the children of John McKim