OF TALBOT COUNTY.

Election, Tuesday, November 3d.

THE SEPTEMBER SESSION.—Senator Morgan and Representative Schenck, to whom the decision of the question was entrusted, have determined in favor of the meeting of Congress on Monday next, the 21st instant. At the same time they express the opinion that it will not be necessary to enter upon the transaction of general business, nor to prolong the session longer than may be necessary to provide for another adjournment.

Wicomico--Political.

A mass meeting of the Democrats and Conservatives of Wicomico was held on the 9th instant in Salisbury, the county town of this new county. It was addressed by a number of gentlemen. We subjoin a letter written by Senator Vickers, and commend it in tone and sentiment:

CHESTERTOWN, Sept. 7th, 1868.

Dear Sir:—Your letter of the 4th instant was received by the last mail, inviting me to address a mass meeting to ratify the nominations of Seymour and Blair, on Wednesday the 9th, in Salisbury. My long absence and present indisposition will prevent me from leaving home, but I shall be with you in feeling and sentiment on that occasion.

It is related in heathen Mythology that three months after Jupiter struck his forehead, Minerva sprung from his brain in full growth and maturity, when gold rained upon the Island of Rhodes. Although Wicomico has not a similar origin, yet it may be said that she is the emanation of the sagacity and wisdom of the late Constitutional Convention of Maryland, and although no shower of precious metals accompanied her birth, she has their worth and value in her soil, forests and improvements, the intelligence, labor, industry, thrift and capital of her people. She is of full stature and of good muscle, heart and patriotism, and orthodox in her political principles. She is ushered upon the political stage, covered with the Ægis of a fractured Constitution, possessed of the elements of strength, and ready to contend for the right.

Wicomico has a beautiful Indian name, signifying the place where houses are built; and now her first political effort will be to re-adjust a broken Constitution, restore its parts to unity, order and symmetry, and the country to liberty, tranquility, and prosperity; to work the abolition of Freedmen's Bureaus, the disbanding of large standing armies; an adjustment of the currency upon a specie basis, and material reduction of the expenses of the Government and taxation of the people.

These will only be effected by the election of Seymour and Blair, and a Congress devoted to justice, economy and Constitutional freedom.

If Wicomico shall give a majority for these candidates, larger in proportion to her voting population than any other county in our State, she will signalize her advent in a manner that will entirely redound to her fame, and place her in the front rank of honorable distinction.

Let not mere party names cool the ardor or prevent any one from uniting in the momentous and patriotic duty, that is upon us. "A rose, by any other name, is just as sweet," and whether we are called Democrats, Conservatives or Unionists, let us all unite harmoniously and work diligently and vigorously to secure the election of our candidates. Maryland should give a majority of 50,000 for the Constitution, the Union and the Laws, in the votes for Seymour and Blair, their true friends and representatives.

With much respect, and the tender of my thanks for the honor the committee have done me, I remain.

Your most obed't and humble serv't,
GEORGE VICKERS.

J. C. Bell, Esq., Chair'n Committee.

PENNSYLVANIA AND OHIO.—The State elections in these two great States takes place in October. Both parties are thoroughly organized and at work like beavers. The Democrats are very confident of carrying both States. However, it is conceded that they constitute the real battle ground of the campaign, and will probably go for the party that is best drilled and has the most money. Should either party carry them by but small majorities in October, it will attach still greater interest to them in November. Should Grant lose them both, he will be defeated beyond peradventure. We think the Democrats can afford to lose one of them and then elect Seymour.

FROM an official statement published in Richmond, it appears that the number of colored persons registered for voting in that city exceed the number assessed by about 2,500, while the discrepancy in the list of whites is only about 100. Now there is no getting over, or around, such an expose as this! Here are 2,500 more colored voters than there are colored assessed tax payers! Only 100 more whites! The thing is manifest. The fraud intended is palpable.

ATTEMPT TO POISON A WHOLE FAMILY.—A villainous attempt was made on Thursday or Friday of last week to poison the family of Mr. Heffecker, residing on the Shipyard farm below Rees' Corner. Mr. H. had bought the poison to exterminate rats and left it on the clock; a hired negro girl was anxious to attend the Festival at Wesley Chapel, and not being permitted to do so, she sought revenge by putting the poison into the coffee for the family. Dr. T. S. Helton was immediately summoned, and the murderous design fortunately frustrated. It is supposed that the dose was too powerful. The case will doubtless go to the Grand Jury.

BLIND STAGGERS.—This disease has made its appearance among the horses in some parts of this county, and a number have died. It does not seem to be of a very virulent form, however; one gentleman losing but one horse of some ten or twelve that were affected. We find the following remedy in the Easton Journal, furnished by Gen. Tilghman, which, he says, was successfully used in 1836:

First—Bleed copiously.
Second—1 oz. Saltpetre, 1 oz. Sulphur, 1 oz. Antimony, } In a drench.

Rub well all over. If the above does not operate in four hours, give ½ lb. Salts. At any rate give the Salts next morning, or following evening, in his food, 1 oz. Sulphur, 1 oz. Saltpetre, ½ oz. each of Antimony and Assafœdita.

Keep the horse up and repeat the bleeding and purging as the case may require. In violent cases give the Salts immediately after the first dose. If there is much stiffness on the second day, blister the head, previous to which shave and bathe in vinegar quite hot.

LAND SALE.—R. Hynson, Esq., trustee, sold at the Voshell House, on Tuesday, 56¼ acres of land belonging to the estate of the late Dennis Vickers. Purchased by Capt. John Downey for $2,505.

The home farm of the late Governor Grason, containing 224 acres, was sold at Centreville last week, and purchased by Mr. Jas. Spear, of this county, at $77.75 per acre.

RABID DOGS.—We understand that several mad dogs have been seen roaming about. One came upon the premises of Mr. F. R. Rouse, at Poplar Neck, and bit several cows, it is alleged, and attacked the woman milking the cattle and tore her clothing. It is well to look out.

EXCURSION.—The M. E. Sabbath School of Galena will make an excursion to Port Deposit, on the steamer Commerce, on Tuesday next. The boat will leave Wilson's Point at 8 A. M., and stop at all the wharves on Sassafras river.

RELIGIOUS.—There will be preaching at the M. P. Tabernacle at Bell Air tomorrow (Sunday) morning and afternoon.

For the Kent News.

The Committee of Arrangements for the Festival held at Wesley Chapel on the 9th and 10th instant, on behalf of themselves and the congregations which they represent, desire to acknowledge most gratefully the very liberal donations made and the generous patronage bestowed by members of other denominations and the public generally. The result has exceeded our most sanguine expectations, and we earnestly pray that our friends may be amply repaid by His blessings who hath said "the silver and the gold are mine."

MAINE ELECTION.—The State election for Governor and Congressmen took place in Maine on Monday, and was carried by the Radicals by about 20,000 majority. The Radical majority in 1864, for President, was 20,819, and in 1866 the majority for the same party was 27,600.—Last year the Radical majority fell down to 11,342.

MARYLAND AND UNITED STATES BOUNTIES.—It will be seen by advertisement in another column of our paper, that Wm. B. Hill, Esq., the reliable and gentlemanly agent, is still prosecuting claims for soldier's bounty and pensions against the State of Maryland and the General Government.

ELEVEN millions of dollars per month is now the running expense of the army alone. This will be increased if a war with the Indians on the plains should follow the present demonstration of General Sherman, so that at the end of the fiscal year tax payers may have to face one hundred and eighty or two hundred millions of dollars as the expenses of one department of the government. This Indian difficulty could have been prevented if the troops had not been kept in the South to aid the Radicals in forcing negro suffrage and equality upon the people of that section. Twenty thousand troops are stationed south of the Potomac, at a cost of forty millions per year. Had these been properly placed on the plains, the Indians would never have assumed their present position. If, therefore, an Indian war does occur, all the bloodshed, suffering and cost will be directly chargeable to the Radical party. But what care the "smooth-bores" so that they can have large appropriations from which to take their dividends?—Age.

The Rich Are For Him.

Forney, in his "two papers, both daily," exultingly proclaims that the rich men of the country support Grant. This is very natural. The shoddyites, contractors, bondholders, &c., who have fattened upon the Government and grown rich in the hour of its necessities, will be found supporting the party that paved the way for the accumulation of their wealth. Contributing nothing in the way of taxes to support the government, they will, of course, desire the continuance of that party in power, so that the sources of their wealth may not be curtailed. Arrayed against this purse-proud aristocracy will be found the honest, hard-working mechanics, artisans and laborers, who have to toil and produce to pay the taxes to support the government, so that thieves, corruptionists and demagogues may thrive and flourish. But their end draws near. The strong arm of industry will crush them.—Allentown Democrat.

COMMUNICATED.

Washington College.

EDS. OF THE NEWS:—I noticed in your last issue that the next session of this Institution will commence on the first Wednesday in October. In this connexion, I ask the privilege of saying a few things in favor of this old and honored institution of learning. The collegiate year opens under brightening prospects. The College has already shown encouraging improvement under the present able Faculty, Profs. R. N. Berkely and Alexander Hogg. These gentlemen seem to have, in addition to their literary and scientific attainments, that executive talent so necessary to success in their professional calling, as has already been manifested, in the improvement in order and general deportment at the College. If these gentlemen are placed in such relations to the College as to give full scope to their administrative ability, and in all respects have their personal interests connected with the prosperity of the institution, I have no doubt that their personal influence will soon make it equal to its palmiest days.

Now is the time for Washington College to rise from its temporary depression and comparative obscurity. A wise and liberal policy in its management will do much to give it success. The Faculty are men of large views and much practical experience, and if such responsibility is thrown upon them as to awaken to the full extent their individual energies, the largest measure of success may be confidently anticipated.

As further recommendation of the gentlemen of the Faculty, it gives me pleasure to say, that their liberal ideas are also manifested in their religious principles and conduct; they are Christian gentlemen, free from sectarian exclusiveness. I have heard one of them say that he was for aiding in the education of any young man, of any denomination of religion, who could give satisfactory evidence of his purpose to devote his talent to preaching the Gospel.

Let the citizens of Kent, and of the Peninsula generally, yea of our whole State, awake to the importance of sustaining this College. Why should they send their children so far away, and at so much greater cost, to such foreign institutions as Yale, Harvard and Princeton, to the neglect of our home institutions of learning? If we would properly foster our State Institutions, they could be made to equal any in the country.

I take pleasure in thus recommending Washington College to the patronage of all persons having sons or wards to educate.

Terrible Earthquake in South America.

A terrible earthquake occurred in South America on the 13th of August, causing immense loss of life and great destruction of property in Peru and Ecuador. It is computed that 300,000 persons are homeless and wandering throughout Peru, destitute of shelter and food. The number of lives lost is calculated as extending from 30,000 to 60,000. The United States storeship Fredonia, lying at Arica, was whirled from her anchorage and capsized, and all her officers and men, except the Surgeon, who had gone ashore, were lost. She had two millions dollars worth of naval stores on board. The United States steamship Wateree, lying at the same port, was carried half a mile inland by the immense wave, and left high and dry, having however no loss of life except one sailor. She was but slightly injured, but it will be impossible ever to get her afloat again. A correspondent of the New York Times writes from Lima, on the 24th of August, as follows:

Arequipa, the most beautiful city in Peru, was completely overthrown by the earthquake of the 13th. It was solidly built of stone, and contained about 50,000 inhabitants. Without exaggeration I may say that not one stone has been left upon another. Not a church is left standing, nor a house is habitable. The solidity of the buildings enabled them to resist the first shocks, and gave time to the inhabitants to escape to the streets and squares, but was not sufficient to arrest the continued violence of the earthquake. The number of persons buried beneath the ruins was about 200.

The earthquake commenced with an undulating movement, and as the shock culminated no one could keep his feet; the houses rocked like ships in the trough of the sea, and came crumbling down.—The shrieks of the women and the crash of falling masonry; the upheaving of the earth and the clouds of blinding dust made up a scene of terror that cannot be described. Nineteen minor shocks took place the same night, and at latest accounts the earth still continued in motion.

The city of Iquique, the most important place in Southern Peru, was almost totally destroyed. The inhabitants were first terrified by loud subterranean noises presaging the approach of an earthquake. The shock immediately followed. Every building was shaken to its foundation.—The population rushed into the streets, and those who were not buried by the falling walls made their escape into the country with all speed. Had they remained in the city the entire population must have perished, as immediately on the passing of the first shock the sea retired for some distance and then returned with a great rush and a roaring sound more terrible than the loudest thunder. The wave was of dreadful height and force, and it swept irresistibly over the town, completing the ruin by the earthquake. Repeated shocks have since been felt, although of a milder nature. The inhabitants, filled with consternation, retired on the incursion of the sea, and cannot be prevailed upon to return to the town.

VALUE OF THE CONSTITUTION.—A New York radical journal, speaking of Hon. Jeremiah Black, says "he would sell his country and the constitution for a manure heap, even if it was not worth more than ten dollars." And if he would, it ill becomes those who, according to their own leaders in Congress, have treated the constitution as a dead and decayed carcass, and done their best to make a manure heap of it, to taunt him with setting a value upon it which is just ten dollars higher than they affix to it themselves.

TREES and PLANTS.

The undersigned, as agent for Mr. N. Barnard, will receive orders for Fruit and Ornamental Trees, and Plants of all kinds. He can be found at the store of Mr. J. L. Stam, Chestertown. [s19tf.] W. S. STAM.

A CARD.—The undersigned, in behalf of himself and his sister, Mrs. Remy Guillemart, would return his sincere thanks to the citizens of Chestertown and her neighborhood, for the sympathy and assistance rendered her in distress and unconsciousness; also, to the brethren in Fraternity, members of Chester Lodge No. 115, A. F. A. M., at Chestertown, for the brotherly love and affection shown for the deceased brother and his widow. As I have to leave for my home in the West, and leave the sad scene behind, I feel it a pleasure and my duty to return in behalf of my sister and myself my sincere thanks, with the assurance that the Ruler of all things will reward you in his own time. C. CONTRIS, sep19-1t* brother of Mrs. R. Guillemart.

At a Meeting of CHESTER LODGE, No. 115, A. F. & A. M., the following preamble and resolutions in relation to the death of Remy Guillemart were passed, and ordered to be printed in the County papers:

Whereas, our late brother, Remy Guillemart, on the 28th of August, at early dawn, in his own house, which should have been his castle, his defense, and while preparing for the peaceful labor of the day, was suddenly and brutally stricken down by the hand of an assassin, and left weltering in his own blood in agony which was soon relieved by death; his wife also, whilst in the repose of sleep, was cruelly stricken by the same assassin or an accomplice, and left in a condition which warrants little hope of her recovery; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we are deeply sensible of the outrage thus inflicted upon society, and especially upon our Fraternity, and that, whilst we bow in humble submission to the Supreme Being, who ruleth all things wisely and well, and who in His mysterious providence hath permitted this calamity to come upon us, we at the same time feel called upon by a sense of duty to society, and especially to the Order which we are bound to protect, to use all possible means to procure the arrest, conviction and punishment of the assassin who perpetrated the foul deed.

Resolved, That by the death of our late brother, society has lost an industrious, useful and honest citizen, and our Fraternity a member who, by his courteous bearing, his punctual attendance at our meetings, and his quiet but earnest zeal in the cause of Masonry, had secured a high place in our esteem and affections; a Master Workman who labored faithfully and well in the Masonic Temple, who met us on the level, acted with us by the plumb, and parted from us on the square; and who, now that the earthly tools of his profession are lain aside, has been elevated, we trust, to that Temple not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens.

Resolved, That in the condition of the widow of our late brother, so keenly suffering in a strange land, "the citadel of her reason shaken if not overthrown," we recognize a silent but powerful appeal to each one of us to be true to the noble precepts of our Order, and to see to it that she shall want nothing of material or spiritual aid which we may be able to bestow.

Resolved, That in token of respect for the memory of our departed brother, the members of this Lodge will wear crape on the left arm for the period of thirty days, and that a copy of these resolutions be published and forwarded to his relations in France, that they may thus be assured that though he died in a foreign land, far from kindred, yet among friends, in the midst of a Brotherhood, which, having planted itself in every quarter of the globe, gathers into its fold people of all nations, all tongues and all climes, and enforces everywhere the Divine precept, "Peace on earth and good will to man." PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

AS ATTORNEY FOR BARNEY DeCORSE, the undersigned will offer at Public Sale at the Voshell House, in Chestertown, on TUESDAY,

THE SIXTH DAY OF OCTOBER, 1868, At 11 o'clock, A. M., his

situate and lying in Quaker Neck, Kent county, Maryland. The HOME or Large Farm lies on Chester River, and

two hundred and fifty acres are arable, and the balance is in

with a large proportion of CHESNUT. The arable land is divided into five fields and under good and durable fencing. The soil is naturally good, and has been improved by Lime and Clover.

The Improvements

Are a Frame DWELLING, with a Kitchen attached, and the usual Out-Buildings, all in good order. A Pump of excellent Water convenient to the Dwelling.

A PEACH ORCHARD OF 2,000 TREES, IN BEARING.

A Pear Orchard and a very fine Apple Orchard, also in full bearing.

About TWO ACRES well set in Strawberries.

The other Farm lies on the North East branch of Langford's Bay, and only about five in Wood, and the balance is arable; the latter is divided into three fields, and under good fencing. The soil is naturally good, and is considered one of the best Corn farms in the Neck.

Contains 113 Acres,

THE IMPROVEMENTS

ARE A

with a Kittchen attached, and the ordinary Out-Buildings, in fair order; a Pump of fine Water near the dwelling, and a YOUNG PEACH ORCHARD of 400 trees, just coming into bearing.

These Farms are eligibly located, being convenient to places of Public Worship, Schools, &c.; to our best Ducking points, fishing grounds and oyster beds. The Home Farm is not over a mile from the public Steamboat Wharf on Chester River, and the other farm is within 3 miles. The soil of these farms is well adapted to grain and fruit. No farm in this county now for sale or likely soon to be for sale is in quality of soil and location better adapted to the truck and fruit business than the small farm on Langford's Bay. No one desiring a handsome residence on Chester River, within seven miles of Chestertown, should fail to come and examine the Home Farm.

Mr. DeCorse is maturing his arrangements to leave the county, and will certainly sell his lands at fair prices and upon liberal terms, which terms will be made known on the day of sale. RICHARD HYNSON.
