Election, Tuesday, November 3d.

THE ELECTION.

The Presidential election takes place on Tuesday next, the 3d of November. On the same day there are members of Congress to be elected in this State. Let every friend of Seymour and Blair bear this in mind, and fail not to be at the polls on that day. Some may be disposed to stay away because they consider the State certain for our candidates, but none should excuse themselves on this account. The popular vote of the country, as well as the vote of the States, will enter into the general account which is to be rendered up on that day. Besides, in a great national contest like the present, every man has a duty to perform, from which he cannot absolve himself by any considerations of a personal or private character within his control. The issues to be decided are too grave and important to be met by inactivity or indifference. Our opponents are straining every nerve to poll their utmost vote even in States which they have no expectation of carrying; and shall we be less active? They are endeavoring to conceal from the public eye the main issue involved in the present struggle—which is simply a question of negro equality, and, in some sections of our country, of negro supremacy. The Chicago platform is a most cunningly devised document, professedly leaving with the Northern States the regulation of the question of suffrage for themselves, whilst it imposes that obnoxious measure upon the people of the South. But no man of sense will allow himself to be blinded by such an avowal of principle. It is the ignorant and misinformed that they expect to dupe by this plank of their platform; and those who allow themselves to be deceived by it will ultimately be compelled to acknowledge the folly of their credulity. Universal and impartial negro suffrage, and the elevation of the negro to a position of social and political equality with white men, is the cardinal dogma of the leaders of the Radical party, and while some adherents of that party profess opposition to this measure, they are at the same time, for all practical purposes, giving it a hearty and unqualified support. A man who says that he is opposed to a certain measure, and yet lends his influence and vote to a party whose avowed object is to bring that measure to pass, is guilty of the grossest inconsistency or the most inexcusable ignorance. There is no necessity for any man to be deceived upon this subject. With the Radical party it is simply a question of time, and if they retain power for any considerable period, we shall witness the passage of an act establishing negro suffrage in all the States, and in Maryland we shall behold the humiliating spectacle of negroes voting side by side with white men. The question then naturally arises, what can be done to avert it? Why, let the people who are opposed to this obnoxious and repulsive measure vote against the Radical candidates, and do all they can to prevent their success. The issues, with intelligent and observant men, are clearly defined, and need no elucidation at our hands. The opponents of negro suffrage and negro equality will support Seymour and Blair, while those who vote for Grant and Colfax will endorse and encourage that dogma whether they intend to do so or not.

ENORMOUS BET OFFERED.—H. T. Helmbold, of New York, publishes the following stupendous challenge:

I am now ready to wager one million dollars cash on the result of the November elections as follows: $250,000 that Grant will not receive a majority of the electoral votes of the United States, or a majority of the votes cast by the people; $250,000 that Indiana and Pennsylvania will go for Seymour and Blair; $250,000 that New York will go for Seymour and Blair and Hoffman; two hundred and fifty thousand dollars that Seymour and Blair will be elected President and Vice-President of the United States. I can be seen from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. from this date up to October 28, at my drug store, 594 Broadway. As to integrity refer to Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, Ex-Gov. Joel Parker, of New Jersey, Ex-Gov. W. H. Minor, of Connecticut, Hon. D. S. Barnes, of New York, Wm. Wightman, of the firm of Powers & Wightman, Philadelphia, and as to disposition and ability to meet the leading druggists and publishers in the United States.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The following cases have been tried since our last report:

State vs. Samuel Vincent. Presentment for an assault and battery with intent to kill Henry Hynson. Slay for defense. Sentenced to penitentiary for four years.

Jeremiah Mahoney vs. Wm. T. Smith. Suit instituted to recover a sum of money which plaintiff alleges to have been loaned to defendant in 1862, the defendant contending that the money was obtained for Penrose Ferry Bridge Stock. H. McCullough for plaintiff; Vickers for defendant. The jury not being able to agree, were discharged after being out about twenty-eight hours.

A. C. Nowland vs. Kent Co. R. R. Co. Appeal from award of jury for greater damages. Verdict of jury affirmed.

John N. Usilton vs. Kent Co. R. R. Co. Appeal for heavier damages. Award of jury confirmed. Pearce for plaintiff. Hynson for Co.

State vs. Edward W. Comegys, justice of the peace, and T. R. Vickers, constable. Indicted for conspiring to take illegal fees from Isaac Gale and for malfeasance in office. Blackiston for defendants. Verdict guilty. Sentenced to be suspended from office and each fined $25 and costs.

Sentence was passed on parties heretofore convicted, as follows: Alexander Thomas to penitentiary for three years, and Henry Miller to penitentiary for two years.

The Court on Wednesday adjourned over till Monday next.

RADICAL MEETING.—A Radical meeting was held at the Court House in this town on Tuesday last, afternoon and night. A band of music from Smyrna was in attendance. We were not present, but learn that the meeting was addressed by Messrs. Torbert (radical candidate for Congress) and Wilson, of Cecil; Bloxsom and Russum, of Caroline, and Askew, of Baltimore city—all of whom, except the last named, are said to be very poor speakers. We are informed that a large proportion of those in the Court House were negro men, while quite a crowd of negro women attended on the outside. A number of persons, including some conservative republicans, who purposed to attend, were kept away by the dark cloud which the gathering presented.

THE FESTIVAL held at the Town Hall last week for the benefit of the M. P. Sabbath School netted $170. This is a very handsome sum, considering that it is to be devoted to Sabbath School purposes exclusively, and the ladies who had the festival in charge deserve much credit for its admirable and successful management.

REGISTRATION OF KENT.—The number of registered voters in this county is 2,060, divided among the several districts as follows: First district 524, second 419, third 272, fourth 391, fifth 454. This is a larger number by at least one hundred and fifty than the voters of our county has heretofore been estimated at, and shows conclusively that our population is largely on the increase.

KENNEDYVILLE.—Mr. John Kennedy offers at public sale nineteen building lots at Kennedyville. The fact that the railroad passes this village, with a station at it, makes these lots very desirable, and there is no prettier place in the county to build up a large and prosperous town.—Mr. Kennedy has already done much for the improvement of this village, and is now erecting a large wheelwright and blacksmith shop, and contemplates other improvements.

SALES OF PROPERTY.—George Vickers, Esq., sold at Galena on the 24th inst:—The dwelling and store house at Locust Grove belonging to William Matthews for $1,200. Also the house and lot of Mr. R. P. Stewart, at the same place, for $1,840. Also the dwelling at Galena of the late Wm. H. Gooding at $1,101.

FARM SOLD.—G. Vickers and R. Hynson, Esqs., trustees, have sold the Gemmill farm, containing about 262 acres, to Mr. Jos. W. Webb, at $61 per acre.
