PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

Tender of Hospitalities from Baltimore—The President Accepts.

Mayor Banks and a committee of the City Council of Baltimore called upon President Johnson and tendered him an invitation to stop in Baltimore on his way from Washington to Tennessee, and accept the hospitalities of the city.

Upon being introduced, Mayor Banks said that as mayor of Baltimore, the pleasing duty devolved on him of presenting the resolutions unanimously adopted by the city council of Baltimore, and to give more effect to their expression, it was deemed but proper that the whole council should be invited to participate in this presentation. This delegation claimed to represent five-sixths of the people of Baltimore all of whom are desirous to do honor to the retiring Executive of the nation. In speaking for Baltimore the speaker said he also felt authorized to speak for the people of Maryland, who endorse the conduct of President Johnson in attempting to withstand the inroads of fanaticism. This day, the 22d of February, has been deemed appropriate to present these resolutions, although the anniversary of the natal day of the Father of his Country has been used by demagogues in obliterating the landmarks of the liberties of the people.

Next to Tennessee, Maryland, the speaker said, had claims on the outgoing Executive. Baltimore has been heart to heart, hand to hand, soul to soul with the Executive in her love for the constitution, and her desire to see it kept intact. The largest meeting ever held in Baltimore was held to endorse the measures of Andrew Johnson, President. Senator Vickers, of Maryland, was sent to his aid at a time when all was dark in the political horizon. At one o'clock in the morning the ice boat Chesapeake reached his home. He was waked up, and left immediately for Washington to take his place in the Senate on the impeachment trial. For these and other reasons, Mr. President, the people of Baltimore ask you to accept these resolutions, and to give them a few hours of your time when passing on your way home.

The President replied:

Gentlemen of the Committee: I have no response to make on this occasion, further than to express the feelings awakened in me by the remarks you have made in presenting the resolutions adopted by the councils of your city, and in doing so I shall confine myself to returning my sincere and heartfelt thanks for the high compliment you have been pleased to pay me. It would be doing myself injustice to affect indifference to the evidence given here to-day that my conduct as a public servant is approved of by my fellow citizens.

I do feel flattered and much gratified at this appreciation of my services, coming as it does from so intelligent and estimable a source. I thank you most cordially—I thank you heartily and sincerely, for the words of comfort and commendation you have given me. Language cannot give utterance to the gratitude that fills my heart; to feel that so many of my intelligent and patriotic fellow-citizens should thus manifest for me a feeling of regard as I am stepping out of power, is a pleasure so rare that I will remember it to the latest day of my life.

I must be permitted to add, and I do it not from a spirit of vanity or egotism, that I feel more highly honored in laying down the authority which has been entrusted to my keeping than I did when I first assumed it. I am glad to take my place once more among the people in whom my trust has ever been placed, and I can say that, although I have not been able to restore to them the blessing of peace and prosperity to be found only in a faithful adherence to the constitution of our country, I have always kept that sacred instrument as my guide; my sole aim has been for its preservation, and the permanent good of the whole country.

I feel more pride in becoming one of the people and of bearing in common with them my share of the burdens which all of us are called upon to endure, than I would feel in any office of honor and profit that could be conferred upon me. Let us then keep always in view the constitution, which should ever command our highest respect and reverence, for when respect for it vanishes, where shall we look for succor? I have frequently said heretofore that my only aim was the preservation of the constitution and the advancement of the public good. I repeat it here, now that I am about surrendering the powers of the chief executive—all is gone unless the constitution of our country is saved, and it should be saved without the shedding of blood.

To me civil honors are far more agreeable than the incense that arises from the field of carnage. I must be permitted to say, stepping as I shall very soon out of power and authority, that the path over which I have trodden is not stained with the blood of my fellow man. I have striven to walk in the ways of peace and good will to all men. Let us turn our thoughts on the preservation of our country by peaceful means. I would to-day rather wear on my face the furrows marked there by care and responsibility in the arduous service of peace, than wear on my shoulders the glittering epaulette, or by my side the jingling sword as the insignia of ruthless war.

ARMY OF THE POTOMC.—An interesting incident of Washington's Birth Day in New York city was a reunion of the officers of the late Army of the Potomac, at the armory of the 22d Regiment, Fourteenth street, General Butterfield presiding. Among the distinguished officers on the platform were Major-Generals G. B. McClellan, French, Heintzelmann, Pleasanton, Wright, Davies, Casey, Hooker, Hancock, Slocum, Franklin, Humphrey, Ingalls, Torbert, Webb and Gibbon.

General McClellan was appointed temporary chairman, and on taking his seat was greeted with the most enthusiastic applause. The General acknowledged the compliment in a brief address. The various army and corps commanders were constituted the Vice Presidents of the Convention.

It was resolved that a general re-union of the Army of the Potomac should be held some time in the course of the ensuing summer.

THERE is a suffrage movement on foot in Massachusetts to place the ballot in the hands of young men between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one. Lecturers are in the field in behalf of the "movement."

MRS. GRANT.—The Washington correspondent of a Western journal has this to say of Mrs. General Grant:

Few women ever bore the perilous test of sudden fame and fortune with a more hearty happiness or more unassuming grace. Is she pretty? No. She is a rolypoly of a little woman, with beautiful neck, hands and feet. Her features are well cut, but her eyes are crossed. Some of her friends wished her to have them straightened. "No," she said; Mr. Grant had loved her ever since she was a little girl with her eyes crossed. He had said that she would not be herself to him if they were straight. Crooked they should remain. If he was satisfied, what mattered it to other people?"

THE OLD STORY OF MEXICO.—It seems that Mexico, after a period of repose, which has been protracted to the extraordinary length, for her, of a few months, is again relapsing into her natural insurrectionary condition. In various different localities the authority of President Juarez is disputed, and, at one time, Puebla, the second city of the republic, was for a short period in the hands of the insurgents, but was afterwards retaken by the government troops. The whole Spanish race seems at present in a state of volcanic commotion.

A BOY in Brentwood, England, recently snapped a pistol at the head of a woman. It was not loaded, but the woman fell dead—killed by imagination.

The New York milliners have selected March 24th for "opening day."

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1823.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no known preparation, or anything likewise; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

Hoofland's German Bitters

is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonic

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving exhilarating and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY,

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause food to digest well, enable the stomach to digest it, give a healthy blood, give a good sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These Remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your digestive organs and Liver in order; keep your system in a sound, healthy condition by the use of these remedies, and no disease will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything you may try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action, in the system.

Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider Hoofland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in cases of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,

JAMES THOMPSON.
