Election, Tuesday, November 2d.

COURT.—The October term of the Circuit Court for Kent county will commence on Monday, the 18th. There are a large number of cases on the docket, and it is thought the session will be lengthy. The following gentlemen have been drawn as jurors:

Grand Jury—Enoch N. Roland, Geo. W. T. Perkins, Thomas L. Cecil, Isaac Perkins, John M. Gale, John Gale, Frank H. Harper, Thos. P. Dixon, Charles H. Baker, John W. Ireland, Sam'l J. Hill, David C. Blackiston, Wm. A. Vickers, Albert A. Biscoe, Jacob Sutton, John C. Sutton, Henry Bramble, John L. Bowers, Thomas W. Ringgold, Wm. H. Lambert, James M. J. Byron, Albert Medders, Daniel Hanes.

Petit Jury—William Cacy, Comegys Cosden, John T. Dodd, Wm. J. Maslin, Wm. S. Walker, Joseph C. Mann, Wm. T. Spry, George Gale, Geo. W. Crossley, George R. Beck, Wm. Welch, Richard L. Nicols, Augustus L. Vannort, Henry W. Earnest, Bartus Trew, John Hadaway, William W. Stephens, John M. Hudson, Josiah Lusby, Wm. A. Taylor, Vachel Burgess, Lewin Usilton, Jere. Peacock, B. H. C. Massey, Anderson W. Melvin.

BAILED.—John S. Harrington and Jos. W. Morris, who were arrested and lodged in our county jail last week, on the charge of stealing horses and carriages, had a hearing before Justice Graves a few days ago and were admitted to bail in the sum of twelve hundred dollars each. Charles P. Loper became Harrington's security, and Edwin S. and Wm. T. Morris security for Joseph W. Morris. The negro, Robert H. Gibson, committed on the same charge, still remains in jail.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.—The Republicans of this county met at the Court House in Chestertown on Saturday last and nominated the following ticket:

For the House of Delegates—Geo. B. Westcott and Robert M. Smyth.

For Sheriff—Wm. H. Hamilton.

For County Commissioners—T. DeC. Ruth, Jas. Willis and R. B. M. Massey.

For School Commissioners—first district, Jacob Chase; 2d, Joseph E. Woer; 3d, Geo. W. Crossley; 4th, Charles H. Wickes; 5th, Thos. J. Vickers.

Delegates to State Convention—Bartus Trew, Wm. D. Burchinal, R. M. Smyth.

HORSE RACE.—A race took place at Warwick on Wednesday last between Dr. Whaland's mare and Col. Lem'l Roberts' horse, for a purse of four hundred dollars, distance a quarter mile, and was won by the mare by two or three lengths. A large crowd was present, and it is supposed that more than a thousand dollars changed hands.

LAND FOR SALE.—Attention is invited to the sales of valuable real estate to take place at the Voshell House, in Chestertown, on Tuesday next, including the farm of the late S. W. Spencer, situated near this town.

LARGE PEARS.—Mr. Eugene Diehl has left at our office a specimen of his pear growing, variety unknown, one hundred of which fills a bushel box.

CHANGED.—The postoffice has been removed from Rees' Corner to Edesville, and Charles H. Kenton appointed postmaster.

THE session at Washington College was regularly opened on Wednesday last.

A SIMPLE REMEDY FOR WHOOPING-COUGH.—The following item from the Boston Journal of Chemistry is furnished us by Mr. John L. Stam, who considers the remedy a valuable one:

Dr. Howard Sargent, of this city, writes us a note, saying that for eight or ten years past he has used, as a remedy for whooping-cough, a tea made from red-clover blossoms. He remarks: "It is so simple that many would not give it a second thought. I can say with truth I never knew it fail. I generally expect a cure in ten days. Four years ago I had children in three families sick at the same time; they were all well in ten, twelve, or fourteen days. There is some care and art necessary in making the tea. I select and cure the blossoms myself, and take of the best blossoms about two ounces to a pint of boiling water, steep for four hours, and give a wineglassful occasionally during the day. Should it operate on the bowels, no harm is done; the dose, in that case, may be diminished. I ask physicians to try it before they reject it. I sometimes add a little honey to make it more palatable."

ANOTHER FLOOD IN BALTIMORE.—The American of Tuesday says:

The amount of damages caused by the flood of Sunday night along the line of Jones' Falls, was discovered yesterday not to have been so great as was anticipated, many persons having taken the precaution to get all their valuables out of harm's way. Centre street bridge was carried away, and Pratt street bridge and the drawbridge are considerably injured by the dredging machines which were wrecked against them. The damages to the city will probably be over a hundred thousand dollars, while private individuals lose from sixty to seventy-five thousand, as nearly as can be estimated. The flood was general along all the water courses in the vicinity of the city, and from Baltimore, Howard and Anne Arundel counties there are many reports of losses of property by the water.

THE OYSTER BUSINESS IN THE CHESAPEAKE.—Since the State steamer Leila has been in the service of the oyster police force there has been considerable increase in the number of licenses issued by the Comptroller to vessels dredging for oysters. In the season of 1868–69 there were 122 more vessels licensed than in any previous year, and for the past month of September there have been 126 more vessels licensed than in the same month last year. The whole number of vessels licensed is 563. The number of boats licensed in the circuit courts to catch oysters with tongs is about 2,000. The following are the oyster counties and the number of licenses issued in each: Talbot 246, Kent 83, Queen Anne's 110, Dorchester 257, Wicomico 112, Somerset 246, Worcester 120, St. Mary's 253, Prince George's 11, Calvert 192, Charles 41, Anne Arundel 232—total 1,963.

There are about 300 pungies engaged in carrying oysters from the dredgers and tongmen to the Baltimore market. The State steamer Leila is affording all the protection to the trade that its wide field of duty admits of. Its field is 80 miles from east to west, and 95 miles from north to south, and it has 40 different localities to visit and inspect vessels, with its headquarters or central point at Cambridge. Last year Captain Davidson brought to trial 127 cases for violation of the State laws, in which the amount of fines imposed was over $11,000.—Balt. Sun.

THE TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature of Tennessee assembled on Monday last. A dispatch says:

At this early day the following events can be predicted with reasonable certainty of their fulfilment: 1. Andrew Johnson will be elected United States Senator. 2. The fifteenth amendment will not be ratified. 3. A constitutional convention will be called at an early day, which body will effect the enfranchisement of every disfranchised person in the State. 4. In any event the bonds of the State will not be repudiated, although earnest advocates for such a measure will not be wanting. 5. The partisan legislation of the last few years will be generally repealed. These are the main questions to come before the Legislature and convention growing out of it. The fight for the Senatorship will be fierce, but the result can be told in advance.

THE INCOME TAX.—It is stated that the commissioner of internal revenue has prepared a circular of instructions, to be sent to the deputy assessors of each district, in reference to the assessment of the income tax. A thorough recanvass of each division is to be made after October 1st. Every house must be visited, and the names of the inmates obtained. Persons who have no incomes to be taxed must make an affidavit of the fact, and those who have made no returns are to be summoned to appear at the office of the assessor, and in case of failure to respond are subject to a penalty. The duty of energetic action is pressed upon assessors.

IN the Circuit Court for Baltimore County on Monday John Nachman and John Gardner, late proprietors of the New American Theatre, at the corner of Calvert and Baltimore streets, were each fined one hundred dollars and costs for keeping a nuisance. This is one of the celebrated "Can-Can" cases, in which it will be remembered the defendants were indicted by the Grand Jury for the indecencies in the style of dancing at their establishments, and as the result shows, have suffered the penalty.

ACQUITTED.—Mr. William S. Potter, indicted for the murder of William Flammer, colored, was tried before the Circuit Court of Cecil county, Md., at Elkton, last week. The trial occupied three days, and resulted in the acquittal of the accused. The trial excited intense interest, the court room being densely crowded, and among those present were a large number of ladies.

RAILROAD COMPLETED.—The Dorchester and Delaware railroad has been completed from Seaford, Del., to "Gipsy Hill," about a mile and a half from Cambridge, Md. A few days ago the first passenger train passed over the road, conveying an excursion party of about sixty from Cambridge to Seaford.

THE New York Herald has a special despatch from Key West, announcing the departure of a couple of privateers from the Florida coast, with a thousand men and a considerable quantity of arms and ammunition for Cuba. Five thousand men and large quantities of rifles, cannon and ammunition are said to be awaiting transportation.

NEW DEPOT.—The Delaware Railroad Company is building a depot at Massey's Cross Roads, the point of junction of the Queen Anne's and Kent and the Kent county railroads with the branch from the Delaware Road. This promises to become an important station.

THE residence of Lemuel Showell, Esq., in Worcester co., near the Delaware line, is said to be the finest on the Eastern Shore. Mr. Showell is reputed to be one of the wealthiest men and the largest land owner east of the Chesapeake.

THE republicans of Queen Anne's county have appointed the following delegates to the State convention, which meets in Baltimore on the 13th inst:—Matthias George, Sam'l Mallalieu and John T. Hand; alternates, Jos. B. Sparks, Wm. W. Bryan and Wm. F. Ford.

THE DISPUTED MARRIAGE AT RICHMOND.—A marriage certificate has been received by the Hustings Court of Richmond from the Philadelphia records, proving the marriage there of Mr. Wm. O. George, of Richmond, to a colored woman named Caroline Jackson. A correspondent of the Lynchburg Virginian, writing from Richmond on this subject says:

"The marriage took place on the 23d of April last, and was a secret until Mr. George's death, a few weeks ago. His brother was about to qualify upon the estate, when a lawyer, representing this woman—who now resides in the city of Brotherly Love—appeared and claimed the property. Everybody thought it only a mean influence to extort hush money from the deceased's relations, who are people of great respectability; but now there seems no doubt that the two were lawfully married. As might be presumed, Mr. George had lived with Caroline Jackson for a number of years, and she is the mother of four or five children.—The estate amounts to about one hundred thousand dollars. A suit is inevitable, but the result is certain, as the property must pass to the wife and children, there having been no will."

THE Contractors for the Queen Anne's and Kent Railroad are now forwarding 300 tons more of iron, which, when laid, will reach Sudlersville, a distance of nine miles from Massey's Cross Roads.

MARRIED:

At the residence of the bride's father, on the 23d ult., by the Rev. D. C. Ridgway, SAMUEL LEE to Miss SUSANNAH W. SHUSTER, both of Kent county.

DIED,

In Quaker Neck, on the 9th ult., HOLLAS FRANKLIN, youngest child of John F. and Elizabeth Shriver, aged 6 months and 11 days.

"Happy infant, early blest,
Rest in peaceful slumber rest;
Early rescued from the cares
Which increase with growing years.
No delights were worth thy stay,
Shortly as they seem, and gay,
All our gayety is vain,
All our laughter is but pain;
Lasting only and divine
Is an innocence like thine."

OBITUARY.—Died, on the 3rd inst., at his father's residence, near Crumpton, in this county, of typhoid fever, after a severe illness of four weeks, CHRISTOPHER BRYAN, son of John and Mary Bryan, aged 27 yrs. and 10 days.

It is always a matter of grief to us to have one we love so much taken from our midst so suddenly; for friends to be constrained to record the death of a worthy member of a family; but rarely is the duty so painful as in the case of the subject of this memoir, Christopher Bryan. He was happily converted to God about seven years ago, united with the M. P. Church at Kennedyville, and was an acceptable member of that church about five years. After that time he united with the M. E. Church, it being more convenient for him to attend, and was an acceptable member of that church till his death.

He was intimately associated with everything good in his church; so prompt and active in the discharge of all the obligations of his spiritual vocation; so untiring in the various obligations which he owed to his God. He was most sure to meet his class during the week, and then he would enjoy himself for a short season, and many times would be made happy in the love of God. And on Sabbath mornings he was most sure to go to his church; made it his special object. It appeared as though his whole mind was fixed on heaven and heavenly things. He told some of his classmates two or three months previous to his death that he would not meet with them much longer in the church on earth, said he was convinced of the fact; that he would soon meet them in the church triumphant, and he requested them to sing over him when he was dead, "Oh! how I love Jesus." He bore his illness with great fortitude and patience, and was not heard to murmur. If any of his family would ask him how he was, he would reply in a mild tone, "I think I am a little better." He leaves an aged father and mother, six brothers and two sisters, with a large circle of friends and acquaintances, to mourn his irreparable loss. May his many friends resolve, by the help of God, to meet him in Heaven. On Sunday morning last about ten o'clock he fell asleep in the arms of Jesus.

"Asleep in Jesus! O how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet;
With holy confidence to sing
That death has lost his venomed sting."
