Election, Tuesday, November 2d.

STATE COMPTROLLER.—The Democratic Conservative State Convention, which met in Baltimore on Thursday of last week, nominated Col. Levin Woolford, of Somerset county, for State Comptroller. Col. Woolford is at present the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Somerset county, which office he has filled for fifteen years, having been first elected in 1851, again in 1857, 1863 and 1867. He is about 50 years of age, was educated a member of the legal profession, has always been identified with the democratic party, and has the reputation of being a most efficient executive officer and a gentleman of exemplary personal character.

STATE ELECTIONS.—The elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio, on Tuesday, resulted in the success of the Republicans, though by greatly reduced majorities. In Pennsylvania Governor Geary is re-elected by about five thousand majority, while the Legislature will be Republican by twenty-nine majority on joint ballot.—Governor Hayes and the remainder of the Republican State ticket is successful in Ohio by three to five thousand majority, but there is still nothing definite with regard to the Legislature except that the Republicans have a majority in the Senate and the Democrats in the House of Delegates.

DEATH OF EX-PRESIDENT PIERCE.—Ex-President Franklin Pierce died at his late residence, in Concord, New Hampshire, on Friday morning, the 8th inst., in the 65th year of his age. His health had been precarious for some time past, and his decease had been apprehended by his friends. Ex-President Pierce was born on the 23d of November, 1804, at Hillsboro, N. H., and was between forty-eight and forty-nine years of age when he was elected and sworn into office on the 4th of March, 1853. The nomination of General Pierce for President of the United States by the democratic convention of 1852, was made in Baltimore, where the sessions of that body were held. The Virginia delegation, headed by Henry A. Wise, proposed the name of Franklin Pierce on the 46th ballot, and on the 49th ballot he was unanimously nominated, and, so far as electoral votes were concerned, was almost unanimously elected, receiving, as he did, the vote of every State but four, or 244 electoral votes, against 42 cast for General Scott, the whig candidate.

Previous to his election to the Presidency General Pierce had served several terms in the Legislature of New Hampshire, two years of which time he occupied the speaker's chair of the House.—His next step was to the Congress of the United States in 1833, with a re-election in 1835, and an elevation to the United States Senate two years afterwards. He served one term in the Senate, and then voluntarily withdrew from it. In 1846, after declining the position of Attorney-General of the United States, which had been tendered him, he entered the military service as a volunteer in the Mexican war, acting in the capacity of brigadier general, in which he served with credit, and received the favorable notice of his commander, General Scott.

With the death of General Pierce has passed away the only surviving ex-President of the United States elected by the people, the two surviving ex-Presidents being those who have succeeded to the chief magistracy by the deaths of their predecessors.

NOMINATION FOR COMPTROLLER.—The Republican State Convention, which met in Baltimore on Wednesday, nominated Col. Wm. A. McKellip, of Carroll county, for Comptroller of the State, on the first ballot. The vote stood 65 for McKellip, and 42 for H. H. Goldsborough, of Talbot county. The nominee was the lieutenant-colonel of the Sixth Maryland Union regiment in the late war, and was formerly clerk of Carroll County Court, having been elected to that position some five or six years since.

The following is among the resolutions adopted by the convention:

Resolved, That we, as national republicans, stand pledged to the adoption of the fifteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States, which gives equal rights to all men, without distinction of race or color.

The State Agricultural Fair.

The State Agricultural Fair to be held near Baltimore, commences on Tuesday, the 26th of October, and promises to be a great success. Arrangements have been made for the accommodation of 800 head of stock.

The grounds will be open for the reception of animals and articles designed for exhibition on the 23d, also on the 25th of October, and all must be entered and ticketed at the office before entering the enclosure. Bread, cake, butter, cheese and slaughtered mutton may, however, be introduced as late as the 26th. All male exhibitors must have previously become members of the society by the payment of $1 and by subscribing to the constitution, but ladies will be exempt from this charge, and exhibit their own handiwork with free admittance during the exhibition.

The list of premiums is unusually large, numbering five hundred and fifty-five, whilst a careful review of the amounts to be awarded make a total of nearly $10,000.

Among the attractions of the fair in the way of stock will probably be the herds of Charles Ridgely, of Hampton, Baltimore county; Wm. Devries, John Merryman and J. Howard McHenry, of Baltimore county; Ramsay McHenry of Harford; Gov. Oden Bowie and Clement Hill, of Prince George's; George Patterson and Stephen Brown, of Carroll;—Dr. Wm. H. DeCourcey, of Queen Anne's; Edward Lloyd, of Talbot, and others.

A NEW SECRETARY OF WAR.—President Grant has appointed as Secretary of War Major General Wm. M. Belknap, of Keokuk, Iowa. Major General Belknap is a graduate of Princeton College, New Jersey. He served in the army from the first to the last day of the late war. He commanded one of the divisions of the Fifteenth Army Corps in General Sherman's last two campaigns with great credit to himself and to the entire satisfaction of his superior officer. He is about thirty-eight years of age, and a lawyer by profession.

LAND SALES.—George Vickers and R. Hynson, Esqs., as trustees, sold at public sale on the 12th instant, at the Voshell House in Chestertown, the farm of the late Col. S. W. Spencer, containing 277 acres, including wood lot, at $80 per acre, subject to the widow's dower. Purchaser Mrs. Henrietta L. Spencer.

George Vickers, Esq., as trustee, sold at the same time and place: A farm of 186 acres, on Chester river, called the Thos. A. Meredith farm, for $4,500; D. McCauley, of Philadelphia, purchaser.—Also, a farm of 238 acres, including 29 acres of wood lot, lying along Chesapeake bay, the property of the late Walter T. H. Miller, for $34.01 per acre; Wm. H. Hamilton purchaser, Also, a farm in Worton, containing 57 acres, commonly called the Patten farm, for $1,950; John Gale purchaser. Also, 37 acres of land, the Cotton property, near the Fountain, without improvements, to Isaac Sampson, for $10 per acre.

Wm. H. Hamilton has sold his farm, near Beck's mill, containing 55 acres, to Josias Ringgold, Jr., for $4,500.

A SUPPOSED SWINDLER.—The Crumptonian says a peach buyer named Stockum, who ran cars from Millington and other points to New York, has not yet made settlement with those who entrusted their peaches to him, and considerable uneasiness is felt thereat.

COURT.—The October term of the Circuit Court of Kent county will commence on Monday next. The indications are that the session will be lengthy.

A PROTRACTED MEETING will commence at the M. P. Church, Galena, to-morrow (Sunday) evening.

HOW TO VOTE FOR SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS.—The following letter from Attorney General Jones was addressed to a gentleman of Calvert County Md., in reply to a communication asking information on the subject:

Attorney General's Office, Baltimore, October 1st, 1869.—Dear Sir. In reply to your inquiry in yours of the 28th ultimo, "whether the present school law requires the school commissioners to be voted for on a general ticket by all the voters of the county, or only in his own election district," I have the honor to state that I am clearly of the opinion that section 1 of chapter 2 of the act of 1868, chapter 407, requires "one commissioner for each election district, to be elected by the people thereof, at each election of members of the General Assembly;"—that is to say, that the legal voters of each district are to vote for a commissioner for that district, and not by a general ticket. Very respectfully and truly yours, &c.,

ISAAC D. JONES, Attorney General.

THE HEARTH AND HOME.—This most excellent weekly announces a reduction in subscription price to Small Clubs, subscribing before next January. We subjoin the reduced rates and earnestly recommend the Hearth and Home to our readers:

To all who subscribe before next January, for one year, at the reduced rates printed below, Hearth and Home will be sent from the date of their subscription to the end of this year free, so that all such yearly subscriptions will end January 1st, 1871.

Therefore, those who subscribe earliest will get the most for nothing.

Our only terms hereafter are the below reduced rates for 1870, invariably in advance.

Single copies	$4
Three copies all at one time	9
Five copies all at one time	12

All over five copies at same rate.

Making Hearth and Home, to a club of five subscribers at $2.40 each, the cheapest, as it is the most complete family weekly newspaper in the world.

ELECTED JUDGE.—Henry A. Clough, formerly a journeyman printer at Centreville, Md., has been elected probate judge of Denver City, Colorado.

THE VOTE FOR COMPTROLLER.—At the Democratic Conservative State Convention which met in Baltimore last week to nominate a candidate for Comptroller of the Treasury, the following gentlemen were put in nomination: Dr. Wm. R. Hayward, of Dorchester county; Col. Levin Woolford, of Somerset county; Col. John J. Heckart, of Cecil county; Hon. John Thompson Mason, Anne Arundel county; Philip Francis Thomas, of Talbot county; and John F. Dent, of St. Mary's county. The vote was then taken and resulted as follows:

First ballot—Woolford 47, Hayward 28, Dent 13, Mason 9, Heckart 12, Thomas 2. No choice. Although put in nomination by a delegate from Carroll, it was understood in the convention that Gov. Thomas was not a candidate.

Second ballot—Woolford 51, Hayward 38, Dent 9, Heckart 5, Mason 6. No choice.

Third ballot—Woolford 60, Hayward 40, Dent 8, Mason 6.

Col. Woolford having received a majority of the votes of the convention, was declared the candidate for the office of Comptroller of the State Treasury. Subsequently the nomination was made unanimous.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the President of the convention to appoint a State Central Committee to serve for two years, which he accordingly did.—The following gentlemen compose the committees for Kent and Queen Anne's: Kent—J. A. Pearce, R. W. Jones and R. C. Johnson. Queen Anne's—John B. Brown, Dr. W. Finley, Edw. Bryan.

RAILROAD MEETING AT ELKTON, MD.—Another meeting took place on Tuesday to further the project of constructing a railroad from that point to Massey's.—Hamilton Morton, Esq., was made chairman, and George W. Cruikshank, Esq., secretary. The latter stated the object of the meeting. Samuel B. Ford, Esq., stated that $58,000 would have to be subscribed by individuals before the same amount could be had from the State.—The meeting appointed temporary directors as follows: Jacob Tome, Hamilton Morton, Wm. Lindsey, Sewel Green, Robert S. Griffith, J. Black Groome, John Peach, Alexander Wilson and Wm. T. Weldon. The meeting then adjourned, and the directors held a meeting immediately after. Jacob Tome, Esq., was elected president, and J. Black Groome, secretary and treasurer. It was resolved that each director be a committee to solicit subscriptions. About $8,000 were subscribed, and a large number of persons pledged themselves to take stock for damage or right of way. The next meeting will be held at Warwick on the second Wednesday in November. It is computed that $300,000 will build the road. The distance is not over twenty miles, the grading light, and the cost per mile will not exceed $13,000 as the road was once graded to near Murphy's Mill. The project seems now to have started in earnest. A charter will be had next winter, and liberal subscriptions will be made all along the line, both in Maryland and Delaware. Baltimore capitalists will certainly lend their aid to the work, now that it is in a fair way of being constructed. The gentleman at the head of the work knows no such word as fail, and would build the road himself if he took it into his head, sooner than it should not be constructed. Let Baltimore awake now to her interest.—Middletown (Del.) Transcript.

CONVERSATIONS WITH JEFFERSON DAVIS.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes:

Some of Mr. Jeff. Davis' personal friends here expect that he will favor them with a brief visit on his route from Baltimore to Mississippi. Several of them, who have returned from visiting him in Baltimore, say that he has partially recovered his health, but he expresses an earnest desire for quiet and freedom from the excitement of public affairs in the future. They add that in these expressions he does not intimate any expectation of personal interest in public affairs. He nevertheless fears that some of the local politicians in Mississippi will attempt to advise with him, and announces that he will repel all such attempts without regard to the probable consequence of unfriendly criticism from his old friends.—They also report that he studiously avoided all discussion of the present political situation, and contented himself, when referring to it, by expressing a hope that the liberal conservative republicans of the South and the democrats in the North would succeed in the pending campaigns. Referring to party names, he is reported to have said that the democrats of the North represent what is left of the principle of self-government, while the conservative republicans of the South represent all that is left of the same principle to the people of that section. Finally, his friends report him to be in favor of the election of Judge Dent as Governor of Mississippi.

MR. NATHAN PERRY, of Presque Isle, Me., received last spring, two potatoes from Col. Dunning, of Bangor, which weighed half a pound each. He cut them into small pieces and planted them in two rows of about fifteen feet in length. Two days ago he dug them, and the product of the two potatoes was two bushels of potatoes.

MRS. ABRAHAM LINCOLN is still at Frankfort, Germany, living in great retirement and in very unpretending quarters. She sees but few persons, and those generally American ladies.

A LATE dispatch received in Washington from a member of the Tennessee Legislature states that ex-President Johnson would be elected United States Senator on the first ballot.

POLITICS IN QUEEN ANNE'S.—The democratic conservatives of Queen Anne's county have nominated John B. Brown, of the Centreville bar, for the House of Delegates, vice Edward Bryan, declined.

EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION.—The Association of Maryland Editors is called by the President to meet at Rechabite Hall, Fayette street, Baltimore, on Wednesday, Oct. 27th, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

AT the funeral of the late Gen. Escalante, in Spain, the emblems of masonry were for the first time exhibited in that country.

THE TAX ON FARMERS AS "PRODUCE BROKERS."—Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue J. H. Douglass on Saturday addressed a letter to Assessor Woodall, at Wilmington Del., "relative to liability to special tax of farmers who sell the products of their farm from the steamboat wharf, or along the market wherever they can find a place to unload the same, but having no particular stand." The Acting Commissioner says: "That farmers whose occupation it is to sell the products of their farms away from the place of production, and at a store or stand, are liable to special tax as produce brokers. Persons selling in the way described come in competition with dealers and brokers who pay the special tax, and to exempt the farmer from the tax, when doing the same business, would be manifestly unjust. The farmer who actually makes it a business to so sell should be held as a produce broker. Occasional acts, however, do not create a liability to the special tax, and as it is believed to be the policy of the law to place as few restrictions as is consistent upon agricultural producers, the statute should be construed liberally.

WE find the following in the Smyrna Times. Is it true?

Mr. Wm. Bowman, netted $150 per acre off of his peach orchard, near Fairlee, Kent Co. He had the finest fruit on the Eastern Shore, it is said, some peaches measuring 10 and 11 inches in circumference.

OCTOBER.—There is an old German verse which reads:

"If in October there's much frost and storm,
The coming January will be mild and warm:
But, if the weather in the fall prove clear,
The winter winds will blow both cold and drear."

FAST TIME.—The celebrated trotting horse Dexter made a half mile in one minute and four seconds on Prospect Park course, near New York, last Saturday afternoon. This time, it is needless to say, has never been equaled.

Horace Greeley has accepted the Republican nomination for Comptroller of the State of New York.
