Second District..GEO. W. COVINGTON.
Third District....ISAAC PARSONS.
Fourth District..JAMES P. DeCORSE.
Fifth District.....CLARKE TAYLOR.
Election, Tuesday, November 24.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Col. Lemuel Roberts, residing near Sudlersville, Queen Anne's county, on returning home from Chestertown on Wednesday night, was thrown from his carriage when near his residence and mortally injured. He was found in an insensible condition shortly afterwards and taken home, where he expired on Thursday morning. Col. Roberts was a prominent and useful citizen, and his decease will be deeply lamented by all who knew him. He was well known throughout the State, having for many years taken an active part in politics and filled a number of public offices.

ALLEGED ATTEMPT TO POISON.—A negro woman named Eliza Posey has been arrested and lodged in jail on the charge of attempting to poison Mr. William L. Bowers, residing in Still Pond. She lived in Mr. Bowers' family, and is said to have been caught putting the poisonous substance in his coffee.

REVIVAL.—A very interesting religious revival has been in progress at St. James' M. P. Church for some weeks past. A number have professed conversion, and the altar is nightly thronged with penitents. The pastor, Rev. J. T. Murray, thinks there has not been for many years such a general religious interest manifested in that neighborhood.

THE CATTLE SHOW—Reduction of Fare.—During the week of the Cattle Show, the Chester River Steamboat Co. will issue round trip tickets for $1.50. The exhibition commences on Tuesday next, and closes on Saturday. On and after the 25th (Monday next) the George Law will leave Baltimore at 7 instead of 10 o'clock, in the morning.

THE TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE—Ballotings for United States Senator.—Nashville, October 20.—The Legislature met in convention to-day and balloted twice for United States Senator. The last ballot stood; Johnson 41, Etheridge 29, Cooper 5, Ewing 4, Peyton 6, Fletcher 12, Neil S. Brown 8, Milton Brown 2.—Two members were absent. Necessary to a choice, 54. Johnson fell off two votes. It is considered certain that Johnson has done his best. Much indignation is expressed by the opposition in regard to interference for Johnson by outside politicians. Henry Cooper is thought to be the coming man. He is the Senator from Davidson county, and brother of the late private secretary of Johnson.

THE PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.—Returns have been received from every county of the State, most of them official.—The figures on the vote for Governor foot up as follows:

Geary, republican	151,825
Packer, democrat	146,732
Geary's majority	5,093

It is proper to add, however, that Hon. John Covode, of the State executive committee, reports that the returns they have received, all the counties but Butler, Potter and Juniata being official, make Geary's majority 4,842.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

THE OHIO ELECTION.—Official returns from 84 counties give Hayes 11,353 majority. The four counties not reported will probably give Pendleton about 3,500, so that the actual republican majority will stand at about 7,850. The republican majority is one in the Senate and three in the House.

DEPARTURE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS.—An immense concourse of persons thronged the wharves of the Baltimore steamship Co. Wednesday afternoon, to witness the departure of the Catholic bishops who left for Rome. Archbishop Spalding was escorted from his residence by a large procession to the steamer, and two large steamers, densely crowded, escorted the Bremen steamer down the river to the bay.

THE Maryland Delaware Railroad Company are running trains regularly to Easton, and considerable produce is being shipped to New York and Philadelphia, where good prices are realized. Passenger cars have not been added to the road, but will be shortly, and persons leaving Easton in the morning will arrive at New York in the evening, by the connection at Clayton.

TRUE.—The Memphis Appeal well says: "We shall have nothing but plunder and oppression, Wall street gambling and bribery, peculations and government abuses, until the constitution in all its length and breadth is restored, as we trust it may be."

COURT.—The October term of the Circuit Court for Kent county commenced on Monday last. Hons. J. M. Robinson, J. A. Wickes and F. Stump, Judges; J. E. Gilpin, Sheriff; J. K. Hines, Clerk; J. A. Pearce, State's Attorney. The following cases have been disposed of:

Wm. Gardner, assault and battery on Samuel M. Taylor. Fined $1 and costs.

Alfred Coleman, assault and battery on J. W. Grant. Fined 25 cts. and costs.

A. J. Wallis vs. F. R. Taylor; appeal from Justice Graves. Judgment affirmed. Hynson for appellee, Vickers for appel't.

F. R. Taylor, assault and battery on James Marston. Fined $5 and costs.

Thos. O. Gooding, assault and battery on John Mannering. Fined $5 and costs.

Morris Ascher, assault and battery on Jacob Kirchbaum. Fined $1 and costs. Hynson for defence.

J. J. Pearce vs. J. W. Rasin; appeal from Graves. Judgment affirmed. Pearce for appellee, Lassell for appellant.

Chas. Follerman vs A. J. Rees; appeal from Justice Wheatly. Judgment reversed, and judgment for appellee for $52.48, with costs above and below.—Lassell for appellant, Pearce for appellee.

John N. Usilton, presentment for obstructing public street in Chestertown.—

John N. Usilton, presentment for moving fence on public road. Sub curia.

Wm. J. Barton & Son vs. John Smith. Action on promissory note. Verdict for plaintiffs for $404.62. Vickers for plaintiffs, Lassell for defendant.

Howard Urian vs. James White and wife; appeal from Graves. Judgment reversed, and judgment for appellee for $31, each party to pay its own costs.—Pearce for appellant, Lassell and Hynson for appellees.

Burt Williams alias Thos. H. Williams, Shade Brown, Robert Blake and John E. Gale, indicted for stealing clothing from Turkheimer & Catlin, were tried separately and a verdict of guilty rendered in each case. Sentence deferred.

Jas. Taylor alias Jas. Bradley, stealing clothing from Benzel Bezini. Verdict guilty. Hynson for defence

Henry Cochran, assault and battery on Patrick Fitzpatrick; fined $25 and costs. Hynson for defence.

J. J. Pearce vs. J. W. Rasin; appeal from Graves. Action to recover rent from appellant for a house alleged to have been leased of appellee but not occupied. Verdict for appellee. Lassell and Archer for appellant, Pearce for appellee.

The recognizance in the cases of John S. Harrington and Jos. W. Morris, indicted for stealing horses, carriages, &c., were forfeited, the parties failing to appear when their names were called.

Robert H. Gibson, colored, indicted for stealing horses, carriages, &c. Verdict guilty. Sentence deferred. Hynson for defence.

Night sessions of court have been held, and an effort is being made to close the business of the session and adjourn to-day.

ARRIVAL OF SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette writes:

The city is filling up quite fast; a number of Senators and Representatives have arrived, and are selecting quarters preparatory to the "long session of Congress." A visit to the hotels in the evening shows that the "lobby" is gathering in force for active operations. Already several projects are discussed, and "rings" are being formed to carry them out. These professional lobbyists, in nine cases out of ten, are the agents of some "Congressional ring," and share with them the "fees" which may be received for securing legislation, or office, or the confirmation of those who may be nominated for office.—The most prominent of the "schemes," from which it is expected considerable money may be realized, is the "air-line railroad" project. This measure has been a productive "lay" to the lobby for several years, and now they expect to make it "yield" a larger harvest of greenbacks than ever. Ever since the adjournment of the last Congress well known parties, who live by what they can make during the session of Congress, assisted by prominent Senators and Representatives, have been engaged in organizing for an active campaign this winter, to secure, as they say, greater "facilities for getting to the capital of the nation." They work with real "shoddy" zeal, and with an energy which, if devoted to some laudable enterprise, might be as profitable as forming "rings" for the purpose of exacting "black mail" from those interested in defeating their "schemes."

THE QUEEN ANNE'S RAIL ROAD.—Only three miles remain to be completed between Millington and Sudlersville, and it is hoped that Mr. Stearns, the contractor, will speedily finish the road to that point. If he does not, we understand the directors will take steps to have it finished without further delay. The delay has been occasioned, it is said, by some difficulty between the contractor and his workmen. As soon as the road is completed to Sudlersville, it is understood that trains will run regularly. Hence there is considerable anxiety that the road should be completed to that point.—Middletown Transcript.

THE PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.—The Harrisburg Union contains the official returns of the late election in Pennsylvania. The total for Governor is 285,986 for Geary, republican, and 281,473 for Packer, democrat. Majority for Geary, 4,509. Williams, republican, for Supreme Judge, is 8,661.

A VIOLENT SNOW storm set in at St. Louis early on Tuesday, and continued until noon. Although the snow melted fast, at night there were three inches on the ground. The storm prevailed in Illinois, Missouri and Kansas.

A WEDDING guest in New York, estimates that, out of 82 marriages which he attended last season, only 19 were "love matches."

NO NOMINATIONS.—The republicans of Queen Anne's county, Md., have determined not to nominate a ticket this fall.

Ex-Governor Ritner, of Pennsylvania, died at Carlisle last Saturday, in the 90th year of his age.

A RESPECTABLE farmer in Iowa has been arrested on the charge of murdering his brother in Ireland thirty years ago.

THE game law prohibiting the shooting of partridges expired on Wednesday last.

Correspondence of the Kent News.

IN THE SWAMP, Oct. 20, 1869.

"Si sunt, ubi sunt"—Comet and Citizen—The Good Templars—A Word about Duty—Wheat Seeding—Farmers' Club—Labor—The Gyasticutus, &c.

Messrs. Editors:—It may seem superfluous to enquire what has become of "Comet." Comets are not very remarkable for their punctuality, and are at best transitory visitants; hence, perhaps, your eccentric correspondent assumed his erratic non de plume under the impression that the rarity of his appearance would give him heartier welcome. At all events I fear that his re-appearance will set all astronomical calculations at defiance.—And Horace Jones and Wilkins Macawber—shall we see them no more? No more sit enraptured over their glowing descriptions, their chaste humor, and fascinating logic? Must such names perish? And "Citizen"—would it not be more approximately truthful to write "Citoyenne?" It is indeed a little Frenchy, but is it not more nearly right sexually? I guess so. Well where is Citoyonne H. J. W. Micawber?

Why hangs the silent lyre unstrung—
While Comets blaze and fade unsung?

Come, Citoyenne, come!—

Again attune your sounding harp
And sing a dirge for Simon Sharp.

Why will these dear ladies who wield so vigorously the "grey goose quill" modernized and transformed into a sharp steel pen, persist in masculine signatures? I hope it is no indication of their future intentions as to male attire. Well, well, not knowing when Comet or Citizen, or other of the tribe afflicted with the "cacoethes scribendi" may appear, I venture to give you another gossippy communication from these lower regions—of old Kent.

The event of the day, or rather of the night, was the Good Templar demonstration at Wesley Chapel. It was not a failure by any means. A crowded auditory, good speaking, lively singing, bright eyes and cheerful countenances, combined to make an attractive scene and a pleasant meeting. The feature of the whole affair was the large number of men who, a brief while ago, were in the toils of the destroyer; a score at least who had been considered out of the reach of any reformatory influence were there with conscious pride in their new found independence All honor to the men who could thus gain a triple victory over their own appetites, the force of long continued habit and the prejudices of social life! They have achieved a noble triumph, and is nothing due to them? Nothing from relatives and friends? Is not the word duty too feeble to express the great obligation resting upon them to encourage and strengthen these men in the severe struggle thro' which they must inevitably pass? They claim their sympathy, and are entitled to their aid. Let no wife, daughter, brother or friend accuse one of these brave men of weakness, or want of integrity, if he should yield to temptation and fall from his high position, while she, he, or they stand aloof from the Order and leave him to wage the unequal strife with appetite alone and unsupported by them. Aye, should all the misery of intemperance, even to blood, come upon such, they can blame only their own apathy and indifference. Should they loose all the blessings which the present position of these men promises and may secure, the fault will be theirs and the sin lie at their door.

There were three Lodges of the Order represented. Rock Hall, No. 97, under whose auspices the meeting was held, meets at the Rock Hall church on every Wednesday evening. This Lodge numbers over eighty members and is rapidly increasing. Laurel Wreath Lodge meets at the church in Piney Neck on Tuesday evenings and numbers perhaps above fifty. Earnest Lodge meets at Hynson's Chapel; of its numbers I am not informed, but is I learn growing.

Many of our farmers are still seeding wheat, being far more backward this season than usual.

A Farmers' Club is spoken of, as one of the coming possibilities, and whatever it may leave undone, it should at least do something to regulate the price of labor. That now employed in this vicinity is very much like the old lady's supper in the opinion of her guest. "I hope," said she, as good housewives often say, when fishing for a compliment, "you will excuse my supper." "Oh certainly, madam," replied her guest, "it is good enough, what there is of it." Perceiving instantly the discourtesy of his remark, he added, "I mean, madam, there is plenty of it, such as it is." Just so with labor in this latitude.

About the doings of Hymen, Cupid, Venus, and all these folks—well, I leave all these gentle matters to "Citoyenne" and "Oula." It would not be fair to steal their thunder or invade their province. I had almost forgotten to say that the great Gyasticutus is sick. His friends think he will die. Should this event occur, Rock Hall Lodge I. O. G. T. will be indictable for murder in the eighty-third degree. Yours prosperously,

SIMON SHARP.

TERRIBLE AFFRAY—Several Persons Shot and Killed.—A dispatch from Louisville says: A terrible shooting affair occurred at Taylorsville, Warwick county, Indiana, on Monday, resulting in the death of two, if not five persons. The difficulty was between a man named Springster, on the one side, and two others named Clark on the other—in which Harvey Springster was killed, and his brother so badly wounded that he died shortly after. The difficulty originated in a dispute about the settlement of some accounts. Shortly after the shooting, a number of citizens who compose a self-constituted vigilance committee, proceeded, armed and equipped, to the residence of Moss Rice, who had been warned to leave the neighborhood by the 20th instant, and fired several shots, frightening him so much that he cleared out in a hurry, leaving the neighborhood. The Springsters are said to belong to the vigilance committee. Another of the Rices, who had been warned to leave but paid no attention to the warning, was found dead in the woods near the township road. Two men named Whitinghill, father and son, who refused to take any part either for or against the committee, were also warned to leave. A terrible state of affairs exists, and the law-abiding people seem to be paralyzed.

THE NEW SENATORS OF VIRGINIA.—The Legislature of Virginia on Tuesday elected two Senators to represent that State in the United States Senate. The choice fell upon John F. Lewis, Esq., of Rockingham county, and Judge John W. Johnson, of Washington county.—Mr. Lewis is a native of Lewiston, a small town in Rockingham county, and a lawyer by profession. In politics, when party lines were strictly drawn, he was an uncompromising whig, although residing in the very midst of what was then known as the "tenth legion" of Virginia democracy. He was a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1861, but voted against and refused to sign the ordinance of succession. Throughout the war he continued a persistent advocate of the Union, and was selected by Governor Pierpont as his secretary upon the removal of the seat of government from Alexandria to Richmond. Upon the decapitation of Governor Pierpont by order of General Schofield, Mr. Lewis returned to his home in Rockingham, where he resumed the practice of his profession. The convention which nominated Governor Walker, placed the name of Colonel Lewis upon the ticket as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor, and at the election in July the latter officer ran two thousand ahead of his ticket. Col. Lewis is about fifty years of age, of slender build, but six feet in height, and of a very sedate and reflective turn.

Judge John W. Johnson, who has been selected as the colleague of Colonel Lewis, is a native of Washington county, Va., a lawyer by profession, and a nephew of General Joseph E. Johnson, who figured prominently in the Southern army during the recent war. He was always a devoted friend of the Union, and so remained during the war. A few months since he was appointed judge of the Circuit Court of Washington county, and this is the first and only position of public trust he has ever filled.

A MARYLAND SENTIMENT.—At the complimentary banquet given in Louisville Friday night to the delegates to the Commercial Convention, in response to a toast to Maryland, Mr. Buchanan, of Baltimore, said:

I have nothing to say upon the past.—I trust that we will be, as in the far past, one brotherhood, one kindred, one band of friends. [Applause.] That of course is the doctrine of all good men. As to Maryland, she stands now as she stood in the days of the revolution, demanding nothing but right and never submitting to anything that is wrong. [Applause.]
