aforesaid, it is ruled by the Court here, that the said J. Wilson Patterson et al assign the errors in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, or in the giving the Decree aforesaid, so as aforesaid brought before the Court of Appeals here for correcting the errors supposed to be therein, or Decree by the Court of Appeals here, will be entered against them in default thereof: and the said J. Wilson Patterson et al by their Attorneys aforesaid, say that in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, and also in the giving of Decree aforesaid, there is manifest error in this, to wit: that by the Record aforesaid, it appears that the Decree aforesaid, in the plea aforesaid given, was given for the said Thomas J. Wilson & H. R. Wilson et al against the said J. Wilson Patterson et al when, by the law of the land, that Decree ought to have been given for the said J. Wilson Patterson et al against the said Thomas J. Wilson & H. R. Wilson et al therefore, in that there is manifest error, and they pray that the Decree aforesaid, for that error and others, being in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled, and held entirely as void, and that they the said J. Wilson Patterson et al may be restored to all things, which they have lost by occasion of the said Decree and that the said Thomas J. Wilson & H. R. Wilson et al may rejoin to the errors aforesaid, and so forth; and thereupon it is ruled by the Court of Appeals here, that the said Tho. J. Wilson & H. R. Wilson et al join in the errors by the said J. Wilson Patterson et al above assigned in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, or Decree by the Court of Appeals here, will be rendered against them in default thereof: and the said Thomas J. Wilson & H. R. Wilson et al, by their Attorneys aforesaid, says there is no error in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the Decree aforesaid, and they pray that the Court of Appeals here here will proceed to the examination as well of the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, as of the matters aforesaid, by the said J. Wilson Patterson et al above for error assigned, and that the said Decree may be in all things affirmed, and so forth; thereupon further process of and upon the premises, between the parties aforesaid so, by virtue of an Act of Assembly in such cases made and provided, continued before the Court of Appeals here, until the first Monday in April next; the same day is given to the said parties there, then to hear the Decree of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the said premises, and so forth.

And now at this day to wit, the said first Monday in April, being the sixth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid by their attorney aforesaid.

Whereupon as well the Record and Proceedings aforesaid, and the Decree given in form aforesaid, as the matters aforesaid, by the said J. Wilson Patterson above for error assigned, being seen, and by the Court of Appeals here fully understood; and mature deliberation thereupon had, for that it appears to the Court of Appeals here, that there is no error in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the Decree aforesaid: Therefore it is considered by the Court of Appeals here, that the Decree aforesaid, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and stand in full force and effect, the said causes for error assigned and alleged in anywise, notwithstanding.
