EUROPEAN WAR NEWS.

The Prussians operating on the Loire have captured Chateau Dun, after a ten hours' fight, which relieves their right flank of a serious annoyance from Franc-tireurs and hitherto probable danger from the troops of the French National Guard posted there. The main French army on the Loire is now understood to be falling back with a view of drawing the Prussians farther from their base of operations, an invitation which the latter seem indisposed to accept. On the contrary, there are rumors that the Prussians are again moving back toward Pars. They are reported as having in this expedition 95,000 men. The conduct of the victorious troops at Orleans is said to have been particularly disastrous to the wealthy citizens; whose money, property and supplies were levied upon recklessly.

The Prussians before Montmedy were surprised a day or two since by the garrison, and 4,000 taken prisoners. Valuable supplies were also captured. Another sortie next day resulted in the capture of a number of pieces of artillery. A sanguinary sortie from Neuf Breisach causing the withdrawal of the Prussians from their position, is also announced.—Other reports from the Vosges are unfavorable to the French.

The Prussian minister at Washington has received a dispatch from Bismarck reiterating his declaration to friendly powers that the object of German military operations in France is not conquest, but merely to secure a new boundary for the better protection of Germany against future invasion from France, and adding that Germany, instead of being hostile towards France, entertains a sincere wish for her future welfare. It is the impression in Vienna that Prussia is anxious for intervention to escape the losses, costs, and other, serious realities of a winter campaign.

The State Department at Washington received a dispatch on Wednesday night, from London to the effect that a report that peace had been arranged gained extensive credence, although not yet officially stated.

ECOLOGY OF GEN. WADE HAMPTON ON GEN. LEE.—A few days ago, at a public meeting held in Columbia, S. C., Gen. Wade Hampton delivered a very impressive eulogy on the death of Gen. Robert E. Lee, concluding as follows:

"Now that he has fallen, I may mention what I have never spoken of before, to show you not only what were the feelings that actuated him in the duty to which his beloved countrymen called him, but what noble sentiments inspired him, when he saw the cause for which he had been fighting so long about to perish.—Just before the surrender, after a night devoted to the most arduous duties, as one of his staff came in to see him in the morning, he found him worn and weary and disheartened, and the General said to him, 'How easy I could get rid of this and be at rest. I have only to ride along the line, and all will be over. But, said he—and there spoke the Christian patriot—it is our duty to live, for what will become of the women and children of the South if we are not here to protect them?' The same spirit of duty which had actuated him through all the perils and all the hardships of that unequal conflict which he had waged so heroically—that same high spirit of duty told him that he must live to show that he was great—greater, if that were possible, in peace than in war; live to teach the people whom he had before led to victory how to bear defeat; live to show what a great and good man can accomplish; live to set an example to his people for all time; live to bear, if nothing else, his share of the sorrows, and the afflictions, and the troubles which had come upon his people. He is now at rest; and surely we of the South can say of him, as we say of his great exemplar, the 'Father of his Country,' that he was first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen.

CABINET CHANGES.—It is worthy of note, says the Philadelphia Record that with the retirement of Mr. Cox but a single one of the entire array of cabinet officers originally appointed by Gen. Grant now remains. Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, gave way, as secretary of state, to Mr. Fish of New York. Mr. Stewart, of New York, gave way, as secretary of the treasury, to Mr. Boutwell, of Massachusetts. General Rawlins, of Illinois, gave way, as secretary of war, to Gen. Belknap, of Iowa Mr. Borie of Pennsylvania, gave way, as secretary of the navy, to Mr. Robeson, of New Jersey. Gen. Cox, of Ohio, has given way, as secretary of the interior, probably to Mr. Delano, of the same State. Judge Hoar, of Massachusetts, gave way, as attorney general, to Mr. Akerman, of Georgia. Mr. Creswell, of Maryland, the postmaster general, is the only officer who has retained his seat in the cabinet, although only a little more than twenty months have elapsed since the original ministry was appointed.

A YOUNG GIRL AND HER LOVER COMMIT SUICIDE.—The freaks and fantasies of human nature are innumerable, and would perplex the wisest philosopher to account for them. Yesterday morning, about five o'clock, a young man named Andrew Ryan, a car driver on the Annunciation street line, about twenty-three years of age, and a young girl named Jenney Sweeney, seventeen years of age, who loved not wisely but too well, mutually concluded to end their earthly existence by drowning themselves in the Mississippi river. At the hour mentioned both jumped into the river from the wharf between Phillip and Sorapusu streets.—Efforts were made from a ship near by to rescue the two unfortunate lovers, but without success.—New Orleans Bee.

AN ELECTION TRICK.—A letter from Scranton, Pa., represents that a respectable and influential German citizen of Luzerne county, who had been recently naturalized, was refused his vote by the radical officer on account of an apparent flaw in the papers. The applicant, however, went away and blackened his face, turned his German name into English, and his vote was received by the republican officers without a word of dissent. Then, to their astonishment, he voted the democratic ticket. He is threatened with prosecution, but he threatens in return a prosecution for depriving him of his right to vote.

REMARKABLE LIBERALITY.—The most remarkable decision ever made at the internal revenue bureau is that a widow need not pay for a new license on the death of her husband if she continues a trade. That is an evidence of liberality without parallel. It amounts to just this: that what her husband buys and pays for shall not be taken from the widow at his death.

REV. ORLANDO HUTTON, D. D., of Easton, has accepted a call to the Church of the Ascension, in Washington, to fill the pulpit made vacant by the appointment of Rev. Wm. Pinkney, D. D., as Assistant Bishop of Maryland. His resignation as Rector of Christ Church, in Easton, takes effect November 1st.

HON. D. W. VOORHEES.—This gentleman has been re-elected to Congress from the sixth district of Indiana by a majority of about 1,000. In 1868 his majority was only 128.

A Torpid System.

Sometimes, without any assignable cause, the physical strength and animal spirits give way, and a strange torpor falls alike on the body and intellect. There is little or no pain perhaps, but the natural vigor and elasticity of the nervous and muscular system seems to have departed, and an indifference to the pleasures of life, and even of its grave responsibilities, takes the place of that earnest interest to both which characterizes every well balanced mind when in a healthy condition.

This state of partial collapse is often the premonitory symptoms of some serious malady. It indicates unmistakably that the vital powers are languishing and need a stimulant In such cases the effect of a few doses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is wonderfully beneficial. The great tonic wakes up the system from its drowse. The secretions and the circulation receive a new impetus. The relaxed nerves recover their elasticity under the operations of the specific, like the slackened strength of a musical instrument in the process of tuning. Lethargy and debility are replaced by energy and vigor, the spirits rise, and life that almost seemed a burden while the season of depression lasted, becomes once more enjoyable. That such a radical change should be produced by a remedy entirely devoid of the powerful alkaloids and minerals so extensively used in modern practice, may seem incredible to those who pin their faith on the medicinal efficacy of active poisons, but if these skeptics will take the trouble to inquire of those who have tested the corrective and alterative virtues of the Bitters under the circumstances described, they will find the statement to be true.

Order of Publication.

JESSE MORRIS
Against
Unknown heirs of Henry Hynson, col'd.

THE object of this bill is to procure a Decree for the sale of the Real Estate of Henry Hynson, dec'd, for the payment of his debts.

The Bill states that Henry Hynson, colored, late of Kent county, deceased, being indebted in his life time to Jesse Morris, the complainant in this cause, did, to secure to him the sum of One hundred and sixty-six dollars and seventy-one cents, convey to him by deed dated January 16, 1860, certain real estate in Kent county, and particularly described in said deed; that it was to be void on the payment of said debt with interest from that date, on or before the sixteenth day of April, eighteen hundred and sixty-one. That no part of the said debt or the intrrest thereon has been paid although long since due and often demanded, and that the whole of said debt and interest is due and remains unpaid.

The bill further states, that the said Henry Hynson being so indebted to the complainant and also unto divers other persons in large sums of money, and having the aforesaid real estate and some little personal estate, departed this life intestate in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-three; it is not known whether he left any heirs; if he did leave heirs their names and residences are unknown to the complainant. That shortly after the death of the said Henry Hynson, administration of all and singular his personal estate was by the Orphans' Court of Kent county granted to the Complainant, who, in virtue thereof, possessed himself of all the personal estate which was of the said Henry Hynson at the time of his death, and has applied the proceeds thereof to the payment of the funeral expenses costs of administration, and debts other than the aforesaid mortgage debt, as may be seen by copies of his administration accounts filed in this cause; and by said vouchers it appears that the Complainant has overpaid said personal estate so as aforesaid in his hands for administration the sum of sixty dollars and ninety-six cents, and that the debts so paid and allowed were due and owing by the said Henry Hynson at the time of his death, and were at the time of their payment properly chargeable with the Complainant's mortgage debt against the aforesaid real estate of the said Henry Hynson; and that the Complainant is advised and charges that he is entitled to have his aforesaid overpayment reimbursed to him out of the aforesaid real estate, and to have his mortgage debt, with interest thereon, also paid out of same, as the personal estate was insufficient thereto, and that the heirs of the said Henry Hynson (if any there be) being unknown to the Complainant be required under an order of publication of this Court to come into said court, and show cause, if any they have, why a decree should not pass for the sale of said real estate and for payment of said debts as proposed.

Wherefore, it is ordered by me, the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Kent county, that the heirs of Henry Hynson, col'd, (if any there be) be and appear before the Circuit Court for Kent county, in person or by solicitor, on or before the thirtieth day of February next, to answer the bill of complaint of Jesse Morris against them in said Court exhibited, or a decree may pass as therein payed: Provided a copy of this order be printed in some newspaper published in Kent county for three successive weeks before the thirtieth day of November next.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

Just published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstates from a thirty year's successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself, cheaply, privately, and radically.

This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
