RADIANT LIVING

The Proof by Taste

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth

Pastor Ridgely M. E. Church

Ridgely, Md.

St. Paul had every reason to be ashamed of his Gospel of Salvation by the atoning blood of Christ. Centered in a little known rustic Jew, crucified with thieves, this new religion was despised by the world.

But St. Paul was not ashamed. He stood in an invincible position. He knew from experience the merits and the power of the Gospel he preached. He knew that the truthfulness of the Gospel could be demonstrated in and confirmed by personal experience. He was therefore able to issue to all unbelievers the same challenge that was issued by Jesus who said: "If any man willeth to do his will, he shall know of hte teaching, whether it is of God or whether I speak of myself."

If any one really wants to know what the power of the old Gospel can do, let him boldly seek the deliverance and the cleansing which the Gospel is able to work in his heart.

The proof of the pudding is in the eating.

Do you claim to be a fair-minded, a broad-minded, and an open-minded person? Why not then accept this challenge by taking a taste?

You may revel in the intellectualism of the day if you wish, but the old Gospel proves its genuineness and its power by reaching down into the filth and scum of the ceaspools of sin and souls reeking with sin and transforming them into the Jewels of God.

"O taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the man that trusteth in him."

"AMERICAN" by Fostoria

EXQUISITELY BEAUTIFUL . . . MODERATELY PRICED

Many years ago, Fostoria introduced to American women crystal dinnerware perfectly satisfactory for serving all kinds of hot foods and drinks.

Complete service sets became popular; a correct and preferable setting for many occasioes. Of many patterns, none proved to be as popular as "American." Durable, beautiful, it is also a supremely useful line, characterized by an abundance of incidental, indispensable table pieces.

The most authentic of all Early American reproductions, Fostoria's "American" fits with any scheme of table furnishing or decoration; particularly colonial, provincial or modern.

You will like "American," its luster, brilliance, and prismatic reflections. It is decidedly inexpensive. An entire luncheon set can be assembled at very little cost. There are over 175 separate items for your selection. Some of these are as little as 50c each.

THERE'S A LOT OF TALK ABOUT A FARM TELEPHONE

One Farmer said:
"A record showed that our automobile mileage saved by telephoning amounted to $60 more than the telephone costs."

One Farmer's Wife said:
"There are eight children in our family and to take the telephone away from them would be like taking away their friends and chums."

Ask any farm family with a telephone what they would take for it and then ask our manager how to get one yourself. The cost is low.

MILK BOTTLES

If you have any of Gill Bros. milk bottles in your cellar, or out-buildings, please set them out for the milk man or notify Gill Bros.

A good many people just set them aside and neglect to return them, but they are of lots of value to us. We lose 10,000 milk bottles a year, and they cost us $800. Just think of the lost just by one milk man. Will you look today and return all of Gill Bros. bottles you have? By helping somebody else helps you.
