SACRED CONCERT BY HAGERSTOWN A CHOIR SUNDAY

Public Invited By Washington College

Washington College will present the Hagerstown A Capella Choir in a sacred concert to be held in the auditorium of William Smith Hall at eight o'clock on Sunday evening, April 21st. Friends of the college are cordially invited to hear this concert.

The Hagerstown A Capella Choir and its Director, Professor Raymond K. Hollinger, are no strangers to Eastern Shore audiences. For five years this talented group of thirty-six voices has delighted larger gatherings throughout their anual tours in this area. Each year their coming seems anticipated with more pleasure by those who enjoy the best in church and choral music,—presented in a manner which thrills and conveys an inspiring message to their hearers.

Since their last appearance in Chestertown, the choir has won new laurels. In addition to broadcasts over local and national networks, and engagements in both Washington and Baltimore, the choir, by invitation, gave two concerts at the Temple of Religion at the New York World's Fair. It was received with such acclaim that a second invitation has been received to return to the Fair and render several programs during the season which is about to begin.

Friends of the college in Chestertown and in the neighboring communities are invited to hear this choir on Sunday evening, April 21st.
