The Kent News.

SATURDAY, - - MAY 20, 1871.

PRIMARY MEETINGS.

THE DEMOCRATIC AND CONSERVATIVE VOTERS OF KENT COUNTY are requested to meet on SATURDAY, JUNE 17th, 1871, at 2 o'clock, P. M., in their respective election districts, at the usual places of meeting, for the purpose of appointing or electing a committee of three persons from each election district, who shall meet in Convention in Chestertown, at the Court House, on Monday, June 19th, at 11 o'clock, A. M., to nominate one candidate for the State Senate, two candidates for the House of Delegates, one candidate for Sheriff, one candidate for State's Attorney, three candidates for Judges of the Orphans' Court, three candidates for County Commissioners, and one candidate for County Surveyor, to be voted for at the election to be held on the 7th day of November, 1871,—and also to appoint three delegates to represent Kent county in the Convention to be held in Baltimore on Wednesday, July 19th, to nominate candidates for Governor, Comptroller and Attorney General of the State.

The Central Committee of the county would recommend that no one be allowed to vote in the primary meetings who is not a registered voter in said district, or will not be duly qualified to vote in said district at the next election, and who will not pledge unconditional support to the nominees of the party.

JAMES A. PEARCE,
RICHARD C. JOHNSON,
RICHARD W. JONES,
State Central Committee for Kent county.

May 20th, 1871.

OUR ENLARGEMENT.

We present the News to-day in an enlarged form. The general appearance of the paper will speak for itself, and needs no commendation at our hands. Whatever of taste may have been displayed in the design and arrangement of the heading, the public and our brethren of the press must determine. This improvement, including our new power press and the material necessary for enlargement, has been made at an expense of not less than two thousand dollars. When we commenced the publication of the News in 1860 it was a "six column" paper, and this is the second enlargement it has undergone since that period, the first having been made in January, 1867. We are gratified to state that the encouragement bestowed upon our labors fully justifies us in making the large outlay necessary for this second enlargement. The subscription lists of the paper have been greatly increased under our administration, while the advertising patronage has augmented in even a greater ratio. This improvement has been made without any additional tax upon our subscribers, who, while furnished with a much larger amount of reading matter, will continue to receive the paper at the former price.

We feel deeply grateful to our friends for the very liberal encouragement received at their hands, and can only promise that it shall be our constant endeavor in the future, as in the past, to furnish them with a good and attractive paper.

THE TREATY OF WASHINGTON.—The U. S. Senate is still in session, to consider the treaty recently agreed upon by the Joint High Commission. The Foreign Relations Committee on Monday are said to have resolved, six to one, in favor of its ratification; and both Senators Cameron and Morton spoke in favor of this course. Nearly all the papers of this country, without regard to party, seem to be in favor of the treaty, and it is warmly approved by the London Times, and its ratification by both countries is prophesied. It is believed that a fortnight will be spent in debate by the Senate before it ratifies the treaty.

THE FRENCH CIVIL WAR.—The principal event of the present week within the walls of Paris was the consummation on Tuesday evening of an act of vandalism upon which the communist had for some time been determined—the destruction of the magnificent column in the Place Vendome erected to commemorate the triumphs of the first empire. The accounts of the event fully illustrate the detestable spite which prompted the act, and enters into all of the conduct of the commune. The column was fairly a source of pride even to the bitterest radical, being a magnificent memorial of French valor, and one which, as a work of art, reflected honor upon France. Outside the walls the fighting continues, the Versaillists gradually strengthening their advantages and advancing towards the ramparts.

THE INCOME TAX.—It is stated that the movement to test the constitutionality of the United States Income Tax law will be pressed with great vigor by a number of gentleman in Brooklyn, and that a case stated will soon be presented in the United States District Court of Brooklyn, where the matter can be decided with greater despatch than in New York. It is expected that a decision will be obtained in a very short time, and that the cause will then be taken up to the Supreme Court in banc. The clause of the constitution under which the legality of the tax is questioned, is as follows: "No capitation or other direct tax shall be laid, unless in proportion to the census or enumeration hereinbefore directed to be taken.

SAD DEATH.—A little child of Mrs. Holden, residing in Church Hill, came to its death on Thursday last in a very distressing manner by falling into an old well near the premises, which had been carelessly allowed to remain uncovered for some time. The child was soon extricated from its terrible situation, but life was extinct. A human life [illegible] by carelessness.

ORPHANS' COURT, Tuesday, May 16th.—J. W. Ivens, adm'r of Jas. W. Ivens, returned a list of sales of the personal estate of said deceased. The release of J. F. Benny to John Kelly, adm'r of Jonathan Benny, was received and ordered to be recorded. John H. Porter, adm'r of John L. Porter, returned his first administration account. Wm. T. Elben, adm'r of Joseph Mann, returned his first administration account. Samuel Comegys, executor of Mary Pearce, returned his third administration account. James A. Roseberry, guardian to Harry C. and Sam'l C. Cacy, returned guardian accounts for the years 1869 and 1870. The last will and testament of Elizabeth Chrisfield was admitted to probate. Letters testamentary on the last will and testament of Elizabeth Chrisfield were granted to Geo. W. Chrisfield, and C. J. Scott and C. L. Nickle appointed to appraise the personal estate. Letters of administration on the personal estate of Ezekiel C. Jones, late of Bonham, Fannin county, Texas, were granted to Geo. W. T. Perkins, and the usual notice to creditors ordered.

The Nominations.

The call of the State Central Committee for this county, fixing the day for the primary nominating meetings on the 17th of June, may surprise some on account of the early period named for the purpose, and it may be proper to state that it has been done at the solicitation of most if not all of the candidates for the prominent offices. The incidental expenses of even a short political campaign are not trifling, and it is hard to conjecture what those of the present canvass would be if the nominations were deferred until the fall.—How far this consideration entered into the reckoning which induced the candidates to make the request of the committee we are not prepared to say, and it is sufficient to know that the committee very courteously yielded to their solicitation.

Tournament.

Our readers will notice in the advertising columns of to-day's issue a call for a Tournament to be held in Still Pond sometime in July next. From the known ability of the gentlemen connected with the affair, and the liberality and genuine whole-souled characteristics of the community in which it is to be held, we can but predict a decided success and a very pleasant reunion upon the occasion of its occurrence. Cecil and Queen Anne's are invited to join in making the event one of unusual interest and long to be remembered. We are satisfied that the undertaking will be creditably and ably managed.

WHAT GOOD ROADS DO.—Good country roads benefit every one residing along their course. Good roads save horse flesh; they facilitate the transportation of produce to market; they save your temper; they increase the value of your land; they lend attractiveness to the eye of the stranger; they increase the business of the market town by giving it vitality in all the various arteries of trade. Show us a town which receives a large country trade by means of fine roads leading to it, and we will show a place that is lively and progressive and thrifty, with money circulating, and men in all branches of industry busy. These facts are worthy of the serious thought of overseers of roads and the public in general. Every new road is a great public convenience, whatever objection existed to its opening, and the wonder generally is that it was not opened before. There have been many public roads opened in Kent county within the last twenty years which the people would not consent to be closed upon any consideration, and the fact is that application for a new road is rarely made until the necessity for it is felt.

HORSE TAMING.—Prof. Scott is here instructing the people in the mysteries of managing horses, &c. He had a class of about sixty the first day, all of whom that we have heard speak on the subject are highly pleased with his method of treatment. He gives free exhibitions with his well-trained horses in the afternoon and evening, at which much merriment is occasioned by persons attempting to ride one of the horses, as well as the remarkable feats which the horses perform.

A DECIDED IMPROVEMENT.—The greatest improvement which has been made for many years in Chestertown in the way of street mending is the filling up the ditch and raising the middle of High street from Mill street westwardly. The dirt was hauled from the railroad, and fifteen hundred loads were obtained at fifteen cents per load.

QUEEN ANNE'S ITEMS.—We find the following in the Centreville Observer:

Queenstown Creek.—It is thought that the operation of dredging the channel of this creek by the contractors of the United States government will not interfere with the passage of the Chester river steamers.

Sales of Land.—The farm of Edwin E. Pratt, situate near Queenstown, and containing 375 acres, was offered at public auction on Tuesday, and struck off to David Carroll, mortgagee, at $38 per acre.

Horse Epidemic.—A disease, generally fatal, has broken out among the horses, from which several have died. It is called slow fever and is said to be hard to cure.

Camp-Meeting.—The Quarterly Conference of the M. E. Church of Centreville station, at its session on Monday of last week, determined to hold a camp-meeting at Wye, commencing on the 4th of August next.

A Divisible Court.—The Circuit Court for this county will continue its sitting this week. Judge Wickes remains here, while Judge Stump presides over the Talbot court, which commenced yesterday. We believe this is the first instance under the new system in which court has been held in two counties at the same time.

Crop Prospect.—The frost last week has materially injured the peaches, and nothing like the crop at one time expected will be realized.

Fire.—Early on Sunday morning last the dwelling house of Dr. W. S. Turpin, near town, was discovered to be on fire. The family was called up and the fire extinguished without doing much damage. It was evidently the work of an incendiary.

WHILE decorating the Confederate graves at Quitman, Geo., two Louderdale, Ala., orphans lately discovered by accident their father's grave.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR.

Messrs. Editors:—I am glad to know from authentic sources (which I do) that the name of the most upright, most pure of men, the Hon. Richard B. Carmichael, will by authority be presented to the Gubernatorial Convention which meets in July next, and that his friends need have no fear of its being withdrawn by him, or that he will shrink from any duty or responsibility which they may place upon him. His name is a legion within itself, and his straightforward course before, during and since the war, will rally to his support hosts of our best men from the most Southern Counties on the Eastern Shore to the Alleghany Mountains. It is hardly to be supposed that he will have any opposition when it becomes fully known that his name will be presented. I see that most of the candidates are already acknowledging his claims and withdrawing from the contest. Be it said to their honor that this is so. B.

Temperance Meeting at Still Pond.

Messrs. Editors:—The temperance meeting held Monday evening last in the Still Pond M. E. Church under the auspices of Guiding Star Lodge, No. 80, was a complete success. Rev. J. H. Lightbourne and Howard Meeks, Esq., made excellent speeches. The large church was full to overflowing and great enthusiasm prevailed. The cause of temperance is advancing with rapid strides in this favored community. A temperance and anti-tobacco society has been inaugurated in the Sabbath school with promise of usefulness.

The address of Mr. Lightbourne was a very finished effort, forcible, practical and convincing, and delivered with the eloquence and impressiveness which characterizes that gentleman, and I trust the county may often be favored with his efforts. His logic was irresistible, his appeals stirring, and his illustrations and anecdotes, of which there were a number, most happy and appropriate, showing the horrors of the traffic and the use of liquor in their true colors. A certain conspicuous sign in the village of Still Pond received from the Rev. gentleman especial notice, and few who heard the address will soon forget the withering and true remarks the sign and the business it represents received.

I should like to give a synopsis of Mr. Meeks' remarks, which, I assure you, struck the enemy between wind and water; but I hope soon a member of the Lodge may write you in full.

Yours, TEMPERANCE.

WORTON AGRICULTURAL CLUB.

COMMUNICATED.

Messrs. Editors:—Three rainy Thursdays in succession prevented a meeting of the Worton Club, but May 11th being fair, the members assembled in force, and an enthusiastic meeting was had. Several committees appointed at previous meetings were called to task for neglecting their duties, and given to understand that more diligence was expected of them in the future; and this is right, for on the interest and diligence of the members will the success of the Club depend, and just inasmuch as any member neglects his duties just in that much is the Club a failure, and he is responsible.

The conditions for the prize acre of corn were amended so as to allow a competitor to select any acre in his field for the prize. The competition will be spirited, and will not only fix attention on the kinds of corn planted, the methods of tilling, and the fertilizers used, but will decide approximately the comparative value of each; and the spirit of emulation fairly roused will not subside with the result of this trial.

The regular subject—Planting and Tilling Corn—was very ably discussed, one of our earliest and most successful corn farmers in a clear and concise opening, stated his practice in part, but did not enlarge as much as those who are aware of his ability and success would have preferred. The interest became general and earnest, and it was evident that those who did not participate in the discussion were attentively listening, and carefully weighing and comparing the remarks.—Farmers are eager for agricultural knowledge. I have not time to follow the debate: The principal points a thorough preparation of the ground, deep cultivation, until the corn was a foot high, then more shallow tilling is better.

Our landlord, he of the prize corn, fast horses and small fruits, ("may his shadow never grow less,") has erected a roomy and pleasant hall for the Club, and moving day is expected Thursday, June 1st, when the Club have determined to have a "house warming." A committee was appointed to arrange the order of exercises, but the Club itself decided to invite the ladies.—But further this deponent saith not; if I learn more will try and inform you "sub rosa." I am glad of this decision of the Club; it may result in a horticultural, Floricultural, or some other cultural society for ladies. One thing, the ladies need not object attending our dedicatory exercises for fear of being seated alone on on one side of the hall. The farmers of Worton, their wives, daughters, mothers, grandmothers and sweethearts, can be trusted together always, except in our Methodist churches. What a serious reflection is this on those churches, as if the influences and exercises there had such a deteriorating effect on the behaviours of husband and wife, father and daughter, lover and sweetheart, as to make it unwise for them to sit beside each other. The average morality of the city is much lower than that of the country, and yet even there the husband can take his wife to church and sit with her from the first hymn to the final amen.

Messrs. Editors, pardon my wandering from the Club and agriculture. You must admit consistency in the past, what the future will bring forth the future alone must reveal. Yours, PARTICEPS.

N.B.—Since writing the above, Messrs. Editors, I learn the committee on "dedicatory exercises" have had a meeting and arranged a programme providing for essays, speeches, music and flowers, early fruits and vegetables, closing with strawberries, ice cream, cake, &c. All the members and honorary members of the Club are expected to be present, and the ladies are invited generally. This I think will be the report of the committee, and if their report should be adopted by the Club I will inform you. P.

THE NEW CITY HALL.—The marble work of the new City Hall is completed except the portico, on the Holliday street front, and the cornice around the entire building. A part of the cornice is already up, but the remainder of the year will be required to complete the portico, the work on which is to be of an elaborate description. As soon as the cornice is all set the Mansard roof will be put on, which will require much time and labor.—Gaz.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?—They have Knights, Groomes and Squiers, in Cecil county, Md., also a family named Death. New Castle county has a family named Two, Carroll county, Md, has a family named Six, and Baltimore has one named Ninde. Ten Eycks are common in New Jersey. Day and Knight are common names, and we once heard of a man named Fortnight.

A NEW daily Democratic journal will be started in Baltimore on the first of June.

RADICAL EQUALITY.

The Washington Chronicle contains the following card. It furnishes a little inside view of the sincerity of the professions of equality with which the colored people are deceived by the Radicals, who, while they pretend to take care of, actually oppress and impose upon the poor black man. The article is headed "A Growl," and is addressed to the editor:

"Sir:—We take you to be a friend of the colored race, and as such I wish to ask you, in behalf of a number of my race, together with myself, why it is that colored men who are employed in the Government Departments as laborers are required to do double duty—that is, to work in the Departments and then be compelled to go around to all the clerks and other officers private houses and do general housework. The republican party says: 'Justice to All Men;' but we cannot see it in that light. If it is just, we then don't complain. HENSON GREEN,
(A colored man.")

We have more than once in these columns told the colored people that Radicalism means serfdom for them, and that they were never intended to be other than "hewers of wood and drawers of water" for the Rads. They are beginning to realize the truth of our assertions.

The Latest Radical Outrage.

A committee—after the manner in which they do things in Paris—has elected Jewell Governor of Connecticut, notwithstanding the people at the late election decided by ballot that English should be their Governor. The following is the reported action of the Radical Legislature which convened at Hartford on Wednesday:

"The committee on the canvass of votes reported that Marshall Jewell was elected Governor by 86 majority, and also declared the election of the other Republican State officers. A resolution declaring the election of Governor Jewell was then debated, after which it was passed by a vote of 123 to 100— a strict party vote, 17 members absent or not voting. Resolutions declaring the Republican candidates for the other State offices elected were also passed, and the House adjourned.

"The Senate will also pass them. Governor Jewell and the other officers will take their oaths of office in the Governor's room as soon as officially notified, and Governor Jewell will communicate his message to the Legislatnre on Tuesday next, and arrangements for public inauguration ceremonies and parade on that day will be made."

Thus passes away, step by step, the sovereign will of the people as expressed through the ballot-box. And yet there are men—conservative men, too—who foolishly cling to radicalism, hoping against hope all the time. Will nothing undeceive them?

THE Mobile Register makes a good point on the hypocracy of Sumner's verbose nonsense about liberty, while voting to enslave every white man and woman in the South, by applying to it the following lines from Byron:

"And you may kiss, exactly as you please, or not, the rod;
But if you don't I'll lay it on, by G—d!"

This is true liberty.

THE FLY.—The fly has been making havoc of the wheat fields in some parts of the county. Some are talking of plowing up their wheat where it has been badly eaten up, and putting the ground in corn. —Easton Star.

POOLE'S ISLAND AT Trustee's Sale.

IN VIRTUE of a Decree of the Circuit Court for Kent county, as a Court of Chancery, the subscriber as Trustee, will offer at public sale, on THURSDAY,

The Twenty-second day of June, 1871, at Three o'clock, P. M., at the Voshell House, in Chestertown, Maryland,

THAT VALUABLE ESTATE KNOWN AS
"POOLE'S ISLAND."

This Island lies near the middle of the Chesapeake Bay, about twelve miles above North Point, and in an air line East by North it is about 17½ miles from the city of Baltimore, and has a Government Light-house, which exhibits a fixed light.

The Island contains about 280 Acres, of which 230 are arable; the residue is in WOOD and Marsh. The soil is of the finest quality, highly improved and well adapted to cereals, fruits and vegetables, and the marshes afford the finest early pasture for cattle, &c.

The Improvements ARE A FRAME DWELLING, with a Kitchen attached, and the usual Out-Buildings, all in good order.

A Fine Apple Orchard

AND ONE OR TWO EXCELLENT FISHERIES.

Because of its great fertility and productiveness, and its favorable location—directly on the line of water communication, via the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, between the cities of Baltimore and Philadelphia—this estate presents rare inducements to purchase, both to the farmer and horticulturist. And, in view of its proximity to the city of Baltimore; its safe and pleasant approach by steamer from that city; its bold water, fine landings, safe harbors and shady groves; to the enterprising capitalist, desiring a sure and profitable investment, its inducements to purchase are not less cogent, for there can be no question that Poole's Island, under proper management, would soon become a Delightful Place of Summer Resort.

And to the lovers of sport, such as FISHING and GUNNING, it should be equally attractive, for near its shores are several of the

and the Canvass Back, the Red Head, and other Wild Fowl, in their daily flight, to and from their favorite feeding grounds on the flats of the Susquehanna, under favorable winds give the most splendid shooting at several points on the Island.

TERMS OF SALE:

The Decree prescribes the following terms of sale: Ten per cent. of the purchase money to be paid on the day of sale, or on its final ratification, at the option of the Trustee; and the residue in four equal instalments of six, twelve, twenty-four and thirty-six months from the day of sale, to be secured by bond with approved security bearing interest from that day.

RICHARD HYNSON.

By the direction of the Decree of the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Chancery, for the sale of the real estate of John L. Whethered, late of Kent county, deceased, the Trustee to sell said property hereby notifies the creditors of the said John L. A CARD.

I hereby announce myself a CANDIDATE FOR THE NOMINATION for SHERIFF OF KENT COUNTY, subject to the action of the Democratic Party, and I wish to state that I am running for the office for myself alone, and not in the interest of any one else, as has been industriously circulated; and if accepted, I promise an ever true and faithful officer.

Yours, obediently, my13-tf. ROBERT P. STEWART.

FRIENDS TAKE NOTICE!

I TAKE THIS METHOD to announce myself as a CANDIDATE FOR THE SHERIFFALTY. Having waited patiently and served my party long, I hope to receive an almost unanimous vote of my party.
ai-6m. HENRY MORTIMER ROLLISON.
