Baked Tomatoes Stuffed With Brains

Here is a dish of which the men will be particular fond. They seem to like baked stuffed tomatoes, and these filled with brains will be just another added attrcation:

TOMATOES STUFFED WITH BRAINS

5 firm tomatoes
1 calf's brain
1 small onion
1 tablespoon butter
1-3 cup bread crumbs
6 olives, pitted
Salt and pepper
2 teaspoons chopped parsley

Wash the tomatoes, cut off the tops and scoop out the insides leaving, however, enough of the flesh to hold the tomato firm. Melt 1 tablespoon of butter in a pan and add finely chopped onion to it; let cook for a minute without browning, and add the pulp and juice which have been taken from the tomatoes, parsley, salt and pepper. Let simmer 3 minutes; add a calf's brain, which has been parboiled with brown butter and then cut into pieces the size of a large pea. When well mixed, add chopped olives and fill the raw tomatoes with the mixture. Put a bit of butter on top of each, place in a shallow baking dish close together and bake ½ hour.

Make the brown butter by browning 2 tablespoons butter in a frying pan. Add 2 tablespoons coarsely chopped parsley and let fry half a minute; then add 1 tablespoon vinegar and 2 drops tabasco.
