

therefore respectfully recommends that the law be amended as herein suggested. Violations of the law, as it now stands, continue more or less, despite the vigorous measures of the police to enforce its provisions, and in which efforts the police encounter serious difficulties which would to a very great extent be obviated by such amendment.

Respectfully submitted,

D. C. HEDDINGER,

W. W. JOHNSON,

E. M. SCHRYVER,

Police Commissioners.