ELECTION, TUESDAY, November 7.

GRAND MASS MEETING

IN CHESTERTOWN.

The DEMOCRATS and CONSERVATIVES of Kent County, will hold a GRAND MASS MEETING in CHESTERTOWN,

On THURSDAY NEXT, Oct. 26th

Commencing at 11 o'clock, A. M.

HON. WM. T. HAMILTON,
U. S. Senator from Md.,

HON. SAM'L HAMBLETON,
our Representative in Congress,

HON. A K. SYESTER,
candidate for Att'y Gen'l,

and other distinguished Speakers, are expected to be present and address the meeting.

A BAND OF MUSIC has been engaged for the occasion.

It is hoped that there will be a large turn out to hear these able advocates of Constitutional Liberty and the Rights of the People.

By order of
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

WHITE OR BLACK TO RULE.

This is the question to be decided at the approaching election. Negro suffrage having been fastened on this State against her solemn protest, says the Easton Star, the question now before the people is, shall the whites or blacks fill the offices and administer our public affairs? The Radical party will certainly not claim the whole negro vote, and afterwards give the negro none of the public offices. The blacks, we are quite sure, will not submit to that kind of an arrangement, but will, in the event of their party's success, claim and receive an equal share of the inferior offices, such as justices of the peace, constables, and road supervisors; also equality in the public schools. It is therefore for the white voters to determine whether they will have those offices filled by whites or blacks—whether they will continue to rule themselves, or be ruled by negroes. If they desire to experiment with negroes in offices, they will of course vote the Radical ticket; if they are not yet reduced to this state of degeneracy, and are determined to assert and maintain the supremacy of the white race, as far as the Federal laws will admit of, they will vote the Democratic Conservative ticket. The issue now before the people is simply one of negro rule. If the blacks are successful this fall, and get a taste of the inferior offices, this time two years they will demand of their party a fair proportion of the higher offices, and their white brethren will be compelled to gratify them.—The way to check the evil in the bud, is for every white man who is not a candidate on the Radical ticket, to vote them down, by going solid for the whole Democratic Conservative ticket. This is the remedy, and the only remedy, for the terrible evils with which the county and State are at present threatened. To accomplish this will require every man in this county claiming to be a Democrat, or a Conservative, to go to work, and work incessantly, to get the white vote out.—The whole Democratic Conservative vote should be polled for the whole ticket. The regular Democratic Conservative ticket—the White Man's ticket—or negro rule is the all important issue, and no Democrat or Conservative can shirk it at the coming election, without giving the negroes a foothold in our county politics, from which it may hereafter be impossible to dispossess them. Let none so act as to bring upon the county the curse of negro government.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE!—That Radical success at the coming election means that negro children shall sit beside white children in our public schools.—That white men shall throw dirt on our public roads, with negro supervisors over them. That negro jurors shall be summoned, and sit in judgment upon the acts of white men. Are white men prepared for this state of things? It may be avoided by voting the White Man's ticket.

THE trial of Col. Thos. J. Wilson, late Deputy Collector of Customs at Baltimore, charged with the embezzlement of certain public funds, was concluded on Wednesday with a verdict of guilty on the three counts of the indictment. The trial of R. M. Smyth, of this county, on a similar charge, commenced on Thursday.

THE RADICAL TICKET.

The following is the Black Republican ticket for Kent county, which was agreed upon by the district representatives, at Billy Perkins' hall on Friday of last week:

Senate—George B. Westcott.
House of Delegates—Daniel Diehl and Richard Turner.
Sheriff—Wm. H. Hamilton.
Orphans' Court—Norris Barnard, Isaac Parsons and Bartus Trew.
County Commissioners—James Willis, Thos. J. F. Smith and John N. Usilton.
Surveyor—Joseph Turner.

To say that this ticket is a weak one, is but a feeble expression of opinion, but the Radicals say it was difficult to get persons to serve, and that it is the best they could do. The candidate for Sheriff was nominated some weeks ago. If it were possible for this ticket to be elected, it is conceded that it would be by negro votes. We suppose that no Radical can count on more than two hundred white votes for the ticket out of twenty-one or twenty-two hundred white voters. The calculation and hope therefore is, that the negro vote may out-number the Democratic and Conservative vote.

If it could be elected, the Sheriff, out of gratitude to Billy Perkins and his sable allies, would necessarily have to make some return. This could only be done officially by summoning them as talesmen to sit on juries, which could be done in all cases where a jury should be out on a panel; also, to appraise property in replevin cases; to sit on juries of inquest to condemn land; to serve as regular or special deputies, and to serve process of execution, suit and summons, on the white as well as black population.

The Orphans' Court would, from similar motives and from a sense of gratitude, appoint negroes as appraisers of deceased persons' estates, and to value the estates of minors. The County Commissioners, from similar feelings of gratitude to those who elected them, would necessarily appoint them road supervisors in some cases, constables, judges of election, collectors of taxes, commissioners to open or straighten roads, and trustees of the alms house.—The Senator and Delegates would be constrained to legislate for their peculiar friends in the way of schools and taxation, and might contribute to the passage of a law requiring half the juries to be selected from the African race, as has been done elsewhere.

These are some of the consequences which, it seems to us, would result from the election of such a ticket. It is natural that the elected ones should have a fellow feeling for those who elected them, and it would savor of ingratitude not to promote them if they can. We presume "Billy Perkins" will now take the stump, with his high hat, black coat and white vest. We do not think, however, that Billy can succeed now, nor do we believe that such a ticket can be elected in Kent county.

ORPHANS' COURT, Tuesday, Oct. 17.—Isaac M. Jones, administrator of Thos. E. McLaughlin, returned an inventory of the personal estate and obtained an order for the sale of the same. B. B. Adkinson, executor of Wm. T. Adkinson, returned an inventory of the personal estate and obtained an order of sale. Philina C. A. Clements, guardian to Angevine Warren, returned her guardian account for the year 1871. P. Wroth, executor of Louisa T. Wroth, returned his second and final administration account.

Thursday, Oct. 19.—B. F. Beck and J. Nicols returned their report of the rental valuation of the real estate of the heirs of the late L. M. Strong.

JUDGES OF ELECTION.—The County Commissioners have appointed the following gentlemen as judges of election:

First district, Rich'd C. Johnson, Wm. Cacy and Samuel L. Blackiston. Second district, Samuel A. Merritt, Louis Hepbron and Frank Wilson. Third district, John T. Skirven, Samuel Beck and Geo. W. Crossley. Fourth district, Wm. S. Walker, John T. Dodd and Bartus Trew. Fifth district, B. F. Beck, Owen Connolly and Wm. W. Coleman. Messrs. Dodd and Trew have since declined, and Levi Fiddis and J. T. Twilley appointed in their place.

FIRE.—The dwelling house of Mrs. Sarah Neall, near I. U., was destroyed by fire on Thursday, together with some of the furniture. Loss about $1,200—no insurance.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—A little son of Mr. James Lewis, residing in the lower part of this county, was thrown from a horse on Monday and had his thigh bone broken. Dr. Willson rendered medical aid, and the little fellow is now doing very well.

SPORTSMEN, before starting out on their gunning expeditions, would do well to consult our advertising columns, or they may be caught on forbidden ground.

REWARD.—Sheriff Calder, by order of the County Commissioners, offers a reward of two hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of Alexander Newton, charged with the murder of Robert Hackett.

RACES.—The Maryland Jockey Club races begin next Tuesday at Pimlico, near Baltimore, to continue the following Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

REGISTER.—Don't forget to register on next Monday and Tuesday—it is the last chance to secure your vote against negro supremacy.

THE Corner Stone of the new M. E. Church at Millington was laid on Wednesday. About seven hundred dollars were contributed on the occasion.

NEW BOOKS.—Messrs. C. F. Stam & Bro., Druggists, have for sale a good assortment of Books, embracing Literary and Standard works, school Books, Bibles, Hymn Books, &c., which they are prepared to sell at city prices, for cash.—Those in want of choice reading of any kind would consult their own interest, as well as encourage an enterprising and worthy firm, by purchasing of them in preference to sending from home for the same article.

THE Millington Building and Loan Association is about building a new dwelling house at that place.

COURT.—The Circuit Court for Kent county commenced on Monday. The following cases have been disposed of:

Thos. A. Meredith vs. Wm. S. Battis. Appeal case; tried before the Court.—Judgment reversed. Vickers for plaintiff.

Peter Stokes vs. Abel J. Rees. Appeal case; tried before the Court. Judgment reversed. Vickers for plaintiff, Pearce for defendant.

Lewis Newsome vs. John Perkins. Appeal case; tried before the Court. Judgment reversed. Pearce for plaintiff, Baker for defendant.

P. T. Simmonds, presentment for putting his fence on the public road. Judgment of the Court, guilty; fined $1 and ordered to remove the fence. Hynson for defendant.

Bevans Morris, presentment for encroaching on the public road. Not guilty. Baker for defendant.

Henry Spear, presentment for horse racing on the public road. Not guilty. Hynson for defendant.

Geo. B. Westcott, exec'r of Samuel W. Spencer, indorsee of Geo. Vickers, vs. A. J. Rees. Jury trial. Verdict for plaintiff. Hynson for plaintiff, Pearce for def.

Stephen Bradley vs. John Wolfe. Suit to recover money alleged to be due. Jury trial. Verdict for plaintiff for $7.35.—Vickers for plaintiff, Hynson for def.

J. N. Moffett vs. W. H. West, on trial as we go to press.

On motion of J. A. Pearce, Esq., Wm. M. Slay, Esq., having passed the usual examination, was admitted to the bar.

COMMUNICATED.

WORTON AGRICULTURAL CLUB.

Messrs. Editors:—Farmers are rapidly completing their year's work in the neighborhood of Worton. To improve every moment is a necessity with all who till the soil, if by any industry and economy they may make both ends meet. In this effort ignorance offers no promise of success, and it is this feeling to a large extent that has sustained the interest in our Club. Although the attendance to-day, October 19, was not full, yet it was encouraging, considering the anxiety every farmer feels to be all ready for winter. We very much regret the absence of our esteemed President from our meetings. We trust that soon his health will be entirely restored, and he will again resume those duties in the Club that he has so pleasantly and profitably to the members, discharged heretofore. We have learned to appreciate his experience and value his conclusions, and hope that he may long be spared to preside over our meetings. At the last meeting our very worthy Secretary resigned his position. His place will be hard to fill. The duties of the office have been discharged so satisfactorily, and with such care and faithfulness, that his loss is deeply regretted. Resolutions of appreciation and regret were passed in reference to his resignation, at the last meeting.

No regular discussion was had to-day. Views were exchanged in regard to sowing clover-seed and seeding corn ground to wheat. A large majority of the farmers present held that the best way was not to plow, but to cultivate or harrow between the rows, and then drill; or if on account of grass or weeds, the ground required ploughing, it should be shallow.

Our obliging landlord was President, pro tem., (he of the fast horses, may his shadow never grow less,) and it is expected that at the next meeting he will read a paper on "Association among Farmers," with his own comments on the same. A most important theme, and we expect to be instructed and profited. "Road fences," will be the regular subject for discussion at the same time. The member who was appointed to open the discussion was requested to ascertain the State and County laws bearing on the subject, and give the Club the benefit of his researches.

The meeting was quite enthusiastic on the subject of our fall exhibition, to take place next Thursday week, November 2d. The committee of arrangements meet on Saturday, the 21st instant, at 3 o'clock, at the Club house, to perfect the arrangements; and as all farmers are invited to come and bring whatever they have they think worthy of attention, we expect a pleasant and profitable time. The ladies and children are especially invited and requested to bring part of the many evidences of skill they possess, to adorn and beautify our exhibition. We hope to see you, Messrs. Editors, and if you will favor us with an address, you will not want an appreciatory audience.

Yours, &c., PARTICEPS.

QUEEN ANNE'S ITEMS.—The Republican Convention met in Centreville on the 10th inst. and nominated the following ticket: For Senator, Elijah Pierce; for House of Delegates, William F. Ford and John T. Hand; for State's Attorney, Robert W. Price; for Orphans' Court, Chas. E. Skinner, James M. Leegar and Wm. Hurlock; for Sheriff, Wm. J. Hand; for County Commissioners, Matthias George, Richard Benton and Joseph Mallalieu; for Surveyor, Justus B. Sheppard.

Sudlersville is growing under the new order of things. A new two-story dwelling and store have just been built up near the depot; the School Commissioners, up with times, have built a fine two-story academy, and several minor improvements are in course of completion. Railroads will wake up people after awhile.

A pigeon shooting took place at Sudlersville on Saturday, the "glory" being pocketed by Mr. Hood, Railroad Superintendent.

Mr. George W. Taylor has purchased of Mr. Wm. J. Price the farm of the late John C. Ruth, containg 528 acres, for $12,400.

THE indignation of "Our Own Tome" ought now to be transferred to his Radical partisans. The worst sin we have charged against him is negro selling for money's sake. Last week his defender boldly avowed that he sold the negro because he was an incendiary. And thus the great benefactor and philanthropist is convicted out of the mouth of his champion of turning loose a detected incendiary among the Southern people to practise his tricks of arson at will. A plain man would have procured the conviction and imprisonment of a felon caught in burning houses. The man of "energy, prudence and foresight," turns him loose in other regions and pockets the price of his felony. This proceeding, granting it true, which we doubt, was a shrewd one to swell the coffers of the money getter, but we are at a loss to understand how it improves his claims to beneficence or philanthropy. We expect to hear "Our Own" next ejaculating—"Save us from our friends."—Cecil Democrat.

THAT EARTHQUAKE.—It appears there was really no explosion of gunpowder near Wilmington, Delaware, on the 9th inst., and hence the folks in Harford and Cecil counties, who got a shaking that morning really believe that they had an earthquake. A correspondent in Harford states that at 9.40 precisely that morning there was an apparent motion of the earth, with a general rattling of windows throughout the entire county; the shock was accompanied with a rumbling sound, lasting perhaps half a minute—the sky cloudless.

OLIVE LOGAN is to lecture in Easton, on the 25th of this month, on "Nice Young Men."

The Tournament at Middletown.

The long-talked of tournament at Middletown took place on the 11th instant in the field of Mr. R. R. Cochran, near that place, and the attendance is estimated at three thousand. Twenty-six Knights contested for the honor of crowning a Queen of Love and Beauty and three Maids of Honor. The contestants were from New Castle county, Del., and Cecil and Kent counties, Maryland. After a brief address from Dr. McCabe, the tilting began. R. L. Price, Knight of Ormond, won the first prize—the coveted buggy—and crowned Miss Fannie Boulden, of Delaware, Queen of Love and Beauty. The second prize, a set of harness, was won by William B. Wirt, Knight of Grenada, who chose Miss Flora Tuite, of Elkton, as first maid of honor. Daniel M. Cochran, Knight of William, Prince of Orange, won the third prize, a handsome afghan, and selected Miss Ada Wilson, of Kent county, Md., as second maid of honor, while it fell to the lot of Julian Cochran, Knight of St. Omar, to choose the third maid of honor, who selected Miss Annie Langton, of Caroline county, Md. The ladies were conducted to the stand, and the crowning oration delivered by James B. Groome, Esq., of Elkton.

SOWING GOOD SEED.—Every farmer knows that to reap a good crop he must first plant good seed, and nourish the soil that has to give life and strength to vegetation. So it is with a man's actions toward his family. Let him sow good seed there and he will reap a bountiful harvest. Let the children see the parent frugal, thoughtful, and careful, and it will sink deep into the ready soil of their young minds. This is good seed sown, and their after-life of affection is the good crop it bears. A splendid lesson in economy can be given by purchasing your clothing from the splendid stock of BENNETT & Co., Tower Hall, No. 518 Market street, Philadelphia.

THICK DARKNESS.—So dense is the smoke from the burning forests of Michigan and Wisconsin, which covers Lake Huron and Lake Superior, that the steamer Arctic, the crack vessel of the upper lake trade, on her last trip down, was fifteen hours in finding Marquette after she was off that harbor by clock and compass. Such thick darkness did the smoke establish, that the streamor's lamps were kept burning all day the same as at night.

THE Protestant Episcopal Convention, now in session at Baltimore, has decided a long vexed question in the Church.—The use of the word "regenerate" in the offices of the Church for the ministration of baptism to children has by some been held to imply a moral change in the person baptized. The Convention decides that the use of the word cannot be so understood.

MARRIED:

At the Parsonage, at Rees' Corner, on the 15th instant, by the Rev. D. C. Ridgway, Rev. GEORGE LEARY to Miss MARY E. BLACKISTON, both of this county.

In Queen Anne's county, on Thursday evening, Oct. 12th, by Rev. F. T. Tagg, THOMAS H. HENDRIX to Mrs. MATILDA KIBLER.

DIED:

In Belair, Oct. 5, of Croup, MARY COREY, daughter of Enoch N. and Mary A. Roland, aged 2 years, 6 months and 12 days.

Two little weary hands crossed on her breast,
Two little feet that can ne'er go astray,
Past earthly suffering, calmly at rest,
Safe from temptation, an angel to-day. T.

In Crumpton on the 5th instant, ALICE H., daughter of Jackson and Mary A. Crew, aged one year, five months and one day.

A bud transplanted to bloom in Paradise. It is hard to give her up, our lovely, fair-haired darling, and yet she looked so pure and peaceful with her bright blue eyes closed, and her little waxen hands crossed meekly upon her breast, that we should strive to realize naught save the precious words handed down through the centuries, "she is not dead but sleepeth." A meet time, truly, for one so fair and lovely to flutter home to her eternal rest, with the glory of golden Autumn over all! Then let us try, in all resignation, to lay our Allie under the sods and daisies, knowing that the little feet hath forded the dark river, and the good Shepherd hath taken her unto himself.

As a cloud of the sunset slow melting in Heaven,
As a star that is lost when the day light is given,
As a glad dream of slumber which wakens in bliss,
She hath passed to the world of the holy from this.

PERSONS having relatives or friends buried in the Cemetery attached to the former site of Salem M. E. Church, near Belair, are requested to remove their dead on or before Tuesday, the 31st inst; or on that day to meet the Trustees of said Church on the Cemetery grounds, for the purpose of such removal. 2t.

A CARD.

I HAVE discovered in my canvass of the county an impression prevails that, if elected, I intend to place the jail in the possession of a deputy. That impression is wholly without authority from me, for it is, and always has been, my purpose to occupy the jail and give my personal attention to the discharge of my official duties. I hope this announcement may be entirely satisfactory to my party and many friends.
