THE "GREAT POLITICAL ISSUE"—Lecture by Mrs. Victoria C. Woodhull—A Ferocious Onslaught—Treason and Secession Rampant.—About three hundred people assembled in Masonic Temple last night to hear a lecture by Mrs. Victoria C. Woodhull, candidate of the "Equal Rights Party" for the Presidency of the United States, upon the "Great Political Issues," or in other words upon the right of women to vote. Among the audience were many of the members of the two spiritual congregations in the city, the rest having been drawn by curiosity.—Mrs. Woodhull was dressed in plain black without ornaments. She looks to be about 35 years of age, and appears to be full of determination, and spoke as though she meant just what she said.

She appeared upon the rostrum about eight o'clock, in company with Mrs. H. F. M. Brown, of Chicago, ex-president of the American Association of Spiritualists, and Mr. Granville, president of the Young People's Spiritualist Association of Baltimore. Mrs. Woodhull was greeted with applause, and went to work immediately. She claimed that every one except the idiot and the criminal had a right to vote, without distinction of race, sex or color. Women had to pay taxes upon everything they used to aid in maintaining man's government, and why should they not vote?

The colored people were once slaves, and women are as much subject to man as slaves were to their masters. Women were women by nature and how could man call a sex a disqualification. [Laughter.] Men could not expect them to overcome that disqualification. [Renewed laughter.] Men were made qualified by education and character, and so must women.. The colored man had been protected in his right to vote by Congress, and that is why she appealed to Congress for her sex.

A State was not possessed of a republican form of government that denied the right to vote to any citizen on account of causes that could not be remedied. Congress had asked the States to ratify the amendments to the constitution; they did ratify them, and thereby enfranchised the women, and the women are therefore entitled by law to vote. She predicted that if the republicans were allowed to rule twenty years longer, the country would run red with rivers of blood, and they could not expect better things if the democrats ruled.

The women intended to petition Congress once more to give them the ballot, and if they were refused, they gave Congress notice [here the speaker became very emphatic] that the women would call a convention at Washington and form a new constitution, [laughter and applause,] and organize a new government. [Applause.] We mean treason, she said. [Laughter.] We mean secession. [Applause.] We rebel, denounce and defy the radical government. [Laughter.] In conclusion the lecturess announced that she was a candidate for the presidency, not to satisfy any personal ambition, but for the good of humanity. She left last night for New York again.—Balt. Sun, of Wednesday.

AMUSING SCENE IN A CIRCUS—A Constable Attempts to Arrest the Clown.—During the exhibition of the European Circus in Wilmington Tuesday afternoon, there was a performance not down in the bills, which brought down the house in thunders of applause, and created for a time such uproarious mirth that the programme could scarcely be gone on with.

At one stage of the performances it was intended that a man pretending to be a drunken greenhorn from Manayunk should enter the ring and interrupt proceedings, and subsequently develop with remarkable rapidity into a first-class rider to the astonishment and delight of all the small boys in the audience.

The fellow tumbled into the ring all right, and the ring-master commenced his preconcerted indignant expostulation with him for the intrusion, when suddenly a county constable for this city, one William D., disgusted at this interruption of the proceedings, bounded into the ring and seized the refactory Manayunker by the collar to lead him out.

There was a sensation for a minute, and then the ring master whispered to the constable, who suddenly loosed his hold on the supposed culprit and left the ring, whereupon such a shout went up from the audience as greeted none of the set performances. During the whole exhibition the boys in the audience shouted suggestions to the performers to get constable D., to take charge of the refractory mules, &c.—Every Evening.

HANGED AT PLAY.—Daniel Beardsley and family live in Shavertown, Delaware county, in New York State. They have three children. During the absence of their parents, recently, the children played "tie up sheep." A small leather string which their father had cut for them a day or two before, was fastened to a nail in the wall, and at the other end a slipnoose was made. One of the little ones put the noose around his neck, but did not play the part well, and the eldest boy, Mack, attempted to show him how it ought to be done. He placed the noose over his neck, and, in his pranks, drew it until life was extinct. The body, when discovered, was inclined forward, resting on the toes, the knees almost touching the floor.

IN Chicago, the work of restoration is going on. The Board of Trade has fairly resumed business, and the receipt and shipments of grain are very heavy. The deposits in the banks are large, and very little money is called for. The solvent insurance companies are paying their losses without the usual formalities of adjustment. The Times, which has resumed publication, estimates the total losses by the fire at $150,000,000.

THE SPIRIT THAT WINS.—The plucky Chicago man who ordered a lot of sugars and syrups in New York, just after the fire, and promised to have his store rebuilt by the time the goods arrived, has kept his word. On Thursday he telegraphed to his friends there: "We enter a new store to-morrow, made since the fire, and resume payment in full and at maturity." Such men are the living reasons why we pin faith on Chicago.

BLACK AND WHITE IN PHILADELPHIA.—Geo. Dougherty, a white democratic officer of election, was shot in Philadelphia, at the late election, near the scene of his duties. The coroner's jury has returned a verdict in accordance with the fact, but failing to indicate the murderer. In the case of the militia Major Catto, colored, killed at the same time, a reward of $1,000 has been offered for the apprehension of the murderer. The Age, of that city, points out that a similar reward might be offered for the murderer of Dougherty.

A PRIVATE of Col. Merrill's command, at Spartanburg, S. C., is under arrest for advising a citizen to flee rather than stop and take the chances of Judge Bond's court, if he thought any negro had a grudge against him.

GOOD Rio Coffee, in cargo, has, within the past few weeks raised in price from 11½ cents to nearly 17 cts. a pound, gold.

Convicts and the Elective Franchise.

The committee of the registers of voters of Baltimore city, appointed to wait upon the Attorney General of the State and procure his opinion on the subject of the right of convicts to vote after having served out their term of imprisonment, has received the annexed response from that officer, determining against such rights:

STATE OF MARYLAND,
ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Baltimore, Oct. 23, 1871.

To the Officers of Registration of Baltimore City: In reply to the request for my opinion whether or not persons who had been convicted of larceny or other infamous crime before the constitution of 1867 went into operation, and not pardoned by the Governor, are entitled to be registered as legal voters if otherwise qualified, I have the honor to state that I have carefully considered the question as one of constitutional construction, and am of opinion that such persons are not so entitled. In arriving at this conclusion I have carefully considered the disqualification introduced into the constitution of 1851, and copied, in almost identical terms, into the constitutions of 1864 and 1867. I have also considered the several acts providing for a registration of voters, and especially the constitutional provision upon this subject contained in the 5th section of the 1st article of the constitution of 1867, and the acts of 1868 and 1870, passed in pursuance of that section.

I think it must be apparent that, for twenty years, it has been the well-considered and settled policy of the State to exclude from the elective franchise, as morally unfit for its high trust, the class of persons in question. Courts, in construing even ordinary acts of legislation, do not favor repeals by implication. They do not allow them unless the implication be inevitable. In Manly vs. The State, 7 Maryland, page 135, in construing the meaning of a constitution, the Court of Appeals held that not a single clause, but the whole constitution must be considered together; that the words used must be taken in their common acceptation, in which they are presumed to have been understood by the framers and the people who adopted it; that the people who adopted it judged it by the meaning apparent upon its face, according to the general use of the words employed, where they do not appear to have been used in a legal or technical sense. Applying these and other well-settled rules of constitutional construction, I am clearly of the opinion that the true intent and meaning of the constitution of 1867 upon the point in question was and is to continue in full force existing disqualifications, and to disqualify also all those who should subsequently be convicted.

That this was the intent and meaning of the framers of the constitution and of those who adopted it, is, I think, apparent from the provisions of the fifth section of the 1st article, continuing in force, until altered by the Legislature, the registry of voters and the law existing on the 1st day of June, 1867, and adding the following: "And the registry of voters made in pursuance thereof may be corrected, as provided in said law, but the names of all persons shall be added to the list of qualified voters by the officer of registration who have the qualifications prescribed in the 1st section of this article, and who are not disqualified under the provisions of the 2d and 3d sections thereof." Although the 2d section, by itself, might be construed to include existing as well as prospective disqualifications, and the 3d section, literally, to include only those who should be subsequently convicted, yet the terms used in the 5th section quite as clearly indicate that the framers contemplated persons already disqualified under the provisions of those sections, who could be those only who had already been convicted under like provisions of the former constitutions of 1851 and 1864.

Very respectfully and truly,
ISAAC D. JONES.

A FEW days ago 225 Mexicans in the City of Mexico were led out, made to kneel down, and shot, for being engaged in an insurrection. This sort of thing has been very common of late in that unhappy country.

A GENTLEMAN at Lewis by proper medical treatment in Philadelphia last week, was relived of a tape worm, twenty-four feet long.

Trust what Time has Sanctioned.

The maxim that the voice of the people is the voice of the divinity, may in some cases be open to doubt, but the testimony of honest and enlightened witnesses extending through a series of years, and all to the same purport, is worthy of credence, admits of no question.—Upon such testimony the reputation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an antidote and cure for many aliments is based. During the twenty years it has been before the world, innumerable preparations intended to compete with it, have gone up like rockets, and come down the extinguished sticks. Meanwhile the progress of that incomparable tonic has been swift and steady—always upward and onward like the eagle's flight. Its introduction produced a revolution in therapeutics, and it proved to be one of those salutary revolutions that cannot go backwards. To-day Hostetter's Bitters is one of the most popular remedies in christendom, and commands a larger sale than any other medicinal preparation, domestic or imported, on this side of the Atlantic. As a cure for dyspepsia, bilious disorders, nervous affections, general debility, and as a preventive of epidemic fevers, it takes precedence of every other remedy. This fact should teach the ambitious country dealers who endeavor to foist their local abortions on the public in its stead, how futile their small attemps to cajole the community must necessarily be. Where the game fish have failed there is no chance for the "suckers."

TAKE NOTICE!

FINDING that a large number of those having accounts with me, prefer to close them with me instead of with any agent I may appoint, I have therefore determined to take all my business again into my own hands, and no future receipt for claims will be good without a written order from me, or my signature attached.

I must also forewarn all persons from giving credit to any person on my account, without a written order, as I shall not pay any such claims after this date.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

George B. Westcott,
vs.
Joseph M. Carrow and others.

On the Equity Side of the Circuit Court for Kent county.

THE OBJECT OF THIS SUIT is to procure a decree for the sale of certain mortgaged premises in Kent county, which were on the 21st day of March, 1863, and the 21st day of December, 1867, mortgaged by Joseph M. Carrow and Henrietta Carrow, his wife, to George B. Westcott.

The Bill states that on or about the 21st day of March, 1863, a certain Joseph M. Carrow, then of said county, but now residing beyond the jurisdiction of this Court, being indebted unto the complainant in this cause in the sum of Sixteen hundred dollars, current money, and intending to secure the payment thereof, did by his deed of that date, in which his wife, Henrietta Carrow, united, convey unto the complainant and his heirs, certain real estate particularly described in said deed, which was to be void upon the payment by the said defendant to the complainant of the aforesaid sum, with interest from the 17th day of March, 1863, together with the taxes on said debt and interest on the 17th day of March 1866, as by the said deed will fully show.

The bill further states that afterwards, to wit: on the 31st day of December, 1867, the said Joseph M. Carrow being indebted to the said George B. Westcott in another sum, to wit: Five thousand dollars, and intending to secure the payment thereof unto the complainant, did by his deed of that date, in which his said wife, Henrietta Carrow, did unite, convey unto him the said real estate with other real estate lying in said county, and particularly described in said deed, and to which said deed there is a condition annexed, that it should be void upon the payment by the said defendants to the complainant, of the said sum of Five thousand dollars, with legal interest thereon from January 1st, 1868, together with all the taxes on said debt and interest in three equal instalments of three, six and nine years respectively, from the 1st day of January, 1868, the interest in the meantime to be paid semi-annually, and the taxes as they become due and payable.

The Bill further states that it is admitted that the interest and taxes which accrued due prior to and on the first day of January, 1868, on the debt secured by the first named mortgage in the bill, have been paid, together with fifteen hundred and eleven 94-100 dollars of the principal sum, leaving a balance of said debt of eighty-eight dollars and six cents, together with interest and taxes from January 1, 1868, but that no part of the aforesaid sum of Five thousand dollars, with the interest and taxes, has been paid to him, although $1666.66⅔ of the said principal sum is due. And that the said Joseph M. Carrow and Henrietta Carrow reside out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county once in each of three successive weeks before the fourteenth day of November next, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill, and warn them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the fourteenth day of February next, to answer the premises, and show cause if any they have why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

George B. Westcott,
vs.
Wm. J. Hurlock and others.

On the Equity Side of the Circuit Court for Kent County.

THE OJBECT OF THIS SUIT is to procure a decree for the sale of certain mortgaged premises in Kent county, Maryland, which were on the 31st day of March, 1870, mortgaged by Thomas G. Jarman and John W. Jarman, both of said county and State, to one John R. Lusby.

The Bill states that on or about the said 31st day of March, 1870, the said Thomas G. and John W. Jarman, in which their wives, Matilda E. Jarman and Agnes Jarman did unite, conveyed by their deed, certain real estate which is particularly described in the bill and its accompanying exhibits, unto the said John R. Lusby by way of mortgage, to secure the payment of the sum of Twelve Thousand dollars, with interest from the first day of April, 1870, unto which deed there was a condition annexed that it should be void upon the payment by the said Thomas G. and John W. Jarman of the said sum of money to the said John R. Lusby, in the following manner, that is to say: The sum of $3,000, part thereof, with interest as aforesaid, part thereof on or before the first day of October, 1870, and a like sum, with interest as aforesaid, on or before the first day of October, 1871, and another like sum, with interest as aforesaid, on or before the first day of October, 1872; and the balance of said debt, with interest as aforesaid, on or before the first October, 1873.

The Bill further states that on the 5th day of April, 1870, the said John R. Lusby did in writing on the said deed assign and set over the same to the said George B. Westcott, the Complainant in this cause; and that no part of the aforesaid sum or the interest or taxes thereon has been paid to the said Complainant, although the times limited for the payment of the 1st and 2nd instalments thereof, with the legal interest as aforesaid, has passed and payment thereof been duly demanded, and that by the terms of said deed the whole of said debt, with interest, is due and owing to complainant. The bill further states that the said John W. Jarman on the 1st of October, 1868, being indebted to one Wm. J. Hurlock, one of the defendants in this cause, in the sum of two thousand dollars, and intending to secure the payment thereof unto him did by his deed of that date, in which his wife Agnes Jarman, and Sarah A. Jarman, his mother, did unite, and conveyed unto said W. J. Hurlock by way of mortgage a part of the real estate in said bill, and that the said Wm J. Hurlock does not reside within the jurisdiction of this Court.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, Maryland, once in each of three successive weeks, before the 14th day of November next, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, and warn him to appear in person or by solicitor in this Court, on or before the 14th day of Febuary next, to answer the premises, and show cause if any he has why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

THE AMERICAN WASHER.
PRICE $5.50.
The AMERICAN WASHER Saves Money, Time and Drudgery.
The Fatigue of Washing Day no Longer Dreaded, but Economy, Efficiency and Clean Clothing, Sure.
In calling public attention to this little Machine, a few of the invaluable qualities, (not possessed by any other washing machine yet invented,) are here enumerated.
It is the smallest, most compact, most portable, most simple in construction, most easily operated. A child ten years old, with a few hours' practice, can thoroughly comprehend and effectually use it. There is no adjusting, no screws to annoy, no delay in adapting! It is always ready for use! It is a perfect little wonder! It is a miniature giant, doing more work and of a better quality, than the most elaborate and costly. One-half of the labor is fully saved by its use, and the clothes will last one half longer than by the old plan of the rub board. It will wash the largest blanket, three shirts at a time, washing thoroughly! In a word, the ablution of any fabric, from a Quilt to a Lace Curtain or Cambric Handkerchief, are equally within the capacity of this LITTLE GEM! It can be fastened to any tub and taken off at will.
No matter how deep rooted a prejudice may exist against Washing Machines, the moment this little machine is seen to perform its wonders, all doubts of its cleansing efficacy and utility are banished, and the doubter and detractor at one becomes its fast friends.
We have testimonials without end, setting forth its numerous advantages over all others, and from hundreds who have thrown aside the unwieldy, useless machines, which have signally failed to accomplish the object promised in prominent and loud sounding advertisements. It is as perfect for washing as a wringer is for wringing. The price—another paramount inducement to purchasers—has been placed so low that it is within the reach of every housekeeper, and there is no article of domestic economy that will repay the small investment so soon.
All that is asked for this GREAT LABOR SAVER is a fair trial. We guarantee each machine to do its work perfectly.

WHEAT SEEDING!

Composed of 700 pounds of No. 1 Peruvian Guano, and 1,300 pounds of soluble Phosphate of Lime (bones dissolved in sulphuric acid,) potash and soda, forming the most concentrated, universal and durable fertilizer ever offered to the farmer—combining all the stimulating properties of Peruvian Guano, and the ever durable fertilizing qualities of Ground Bones.
Excelsior is in fine dry powder, prepared expressly for drilling, and can be applied in any quantity per acre, however small; and it is the opinion of many close calculating Farmers, after twelve years, experience in testing it side by side with other popular fertilizers that an application of 100 pounds of Excelsior is equal to 200 to 300 pounds of any other fertilizer or guano offered for sale, therefore is fully 100 to 200 per cent cheaper.
The very best evidence we can offer of the value of our Excelsior as a crop grower and fertilizer, is the fact of its being imitated and counterfeited in this and other cities.
Farmers should see that every bag is branded as above, the ANALYSIS and our name in RED LETTERS. All others are counterfeits.
PRICE $60 PER TON.
