PROPOSALS

BY NEAL, WILLS & COLE,
BALTIMORE,
For Printing by Subscription a New Work,
ENTITLED

THE OFFICE AND DUTY

OF A
JUSTICE OF THE PEACE,
In Civil and Criminal Matters
Illustrated by a variety of useful Precedents,
BY JOHN E. HALL, ESQ.
The want of a guide in the execution of the highly important duties of a magistrate, has long been felt. At the instance of several intelligent gentlemen in the commission, and members of the bar, the present editor has been induced to undertake the task of supplying such a work. He has adopted the judicious plan of Dr. Burn's Justice of the Peace as a model. In this work, it will be recollected, the crime or the duty is first defined; the decisions of courts of justice are next collected, interspersed with such statutory regulations as have been established by parliament; and the section is concluded with such precedents as the particular subject requires. So in the present work, the Editor, after defining the crime or duty, and collecting a few leading principles from the best authorities, has added such provisions as were to be found in the acts of Congress and the Laws of Maryland.
To Country Gentlemen this work will be found particularly valuable, as an abridgement of our Acts of Assembly sufficiently copious for all general purposes.
It is expected that the work will be comprised in an octavo volume of six or seven hundred pages. The price of the book, neatly bound in sheep, shall not exceed five dollars. It will be put to press when there is a sufficient subscription to pay the expence of publication.—Those who purchase a number of copies for the purpose of selling again, will be allowed a liberal discount.
The Clerks of the different County Courts are respectfully requested to receive subscriptions and transmit them to the publishers at Baltimore.
Those who procure ten subscribers and become accountable for them, will receive one gratis.
