Adjutant and Inspector General's Office,
Washington, 17th June, 1814.

GENERAL ORDER.

The President has been pleased to issue the following proclamation, of which due notice will be taken.

By the President of the United States of America,
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, information has been received that a number of individuals, who have deserted from the army of the United States, have become sensible of their offences, and are desirous of returning to their duty:

A full pardon is hereby granted and proclaimed to each and all such individuals as shall within three months from the date hereof, surrender themselves to the commanding officer of any military post within the United States or the territories thereof.

In testimony whereof, I have caused the seal of the United States to be affixed to these presents, and signed the same with my hand.

Done at the City of Washington the seventeenth day of June, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and of the Independence of the United States the thirty-eighth.

JAMES MADISON.

By the President,
JAMES MONROE, Secretary of State.

All officers and soldiers of the army are required to continue their exertions in detecting and bringing to trial deserters from the army.

A premium not exceeding fifty dollars for each deserter will be paid by the commanding officer of the post, garrison or district to which he may be brought and delivered. All officers and soldiers are required to enforce the law against such citizen or citizens as shall entice or procure a soldier to desert. The words of the law are as follows, viz.:

"Be it enacted, &c. That every person, not subject to the rules and articles of war, who shall procure or entice a soldier in the service of the United States, to desert; or who shall purchase from any soldier, his arms, uniform, clothing, or any part thereof; and every Captain or commanding officer of any ship or vessel who shall enter on board such ship or vessel as one of his crew, knowing him to have deserted, or otherwise carry away any such soldier or shall refuse to deliver him up to the orders of his commanding officer shall upon legal conviction, be fined at the discretion of any court having cognizance of the same in any sum not exceeding three hundred dollars; and be imprisoned any term not exceeding one year,

By order of the Secretary of War.

JOHN R. BELL,
Assistant Inspector General.

NOTE.—Those printers of Newspapers who publish the laws of the United States are invited to give the said proclamation and this order three publications within each week for two months.
