NEW MEDICAL WORK.

JOSEPH CUSHING,
No. 6, North Howard street,
HAS JUST PUBLISHED,

Memoirs of Military Surgery,

And Campaigns of the French Armies
On the Rhine, in Corsica, Catalonia, Egypt, and Syria; at Boulogne, Ulm and Austerlitz; in Saxony, Prussia, Poland, Spain and Austria, in 2 vols. octavo, with plates. Translated from the French of D. J. Larrey, M. D. First Surgeon of the Imperial Guards, Inspector General of the Medical Staff of the French Armies, &c. By Richard W. Hall, M. D. Professor of Midwifery in the University of Maryland; with notes by the translator.
The following extract from the London Medical Review for 1809, will shew in what estimation the first edition of this work was held—
"It is the work of one of the first Military Surgeons of the present day, raised to high rank in his profession at the beginning of a revolution, when merit never fails to be discovered and rewarded. To know that he has been employed in the principal campaigns of the French Armies is sufficient to give an idea of the extent of his experience. We strongly recommend this work to the perusal of all Surgeons, but particularly to army Surgeons. It is to be regretted however that copies of it can not be readily procured in this country, (England) and that no translation of it has yet been published."
The present translation is from the authors 2d edition, which is enlarged by the addition of several Campaigns, and much important Medical and Surgical matter.
