CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS.—We find in one of our country exchanges a statement to the effect that "according to a law passed by Congress in 1871, the voting by ballot for Congressmen must be separate and distinct from all others," and a correspondent writes to inquire whether in such case one or two tickets be necessary. By the 19th section of the act of Congress commonly known as the federal election law, approved February 28th, 1871, it is enacted "that all votes for Representatives in Congress shall hereafter be by written or printed ballot, any law of any State to the contrary notwithstanding, and all votes received or recorded contrary to the provisions of this section shall be of non effect." This simply prohibits or rather renders nugatory all viva voce voting, and makes voting by ballot, written or printed, obligatory. There is no other provision in regard to the manner of voting for Congressmen in the law of 1871. The federal apportionment act, approved February 2, 1872, provides that the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, in the year 1876, shall be the day for the election in each of the States & Territories of the United States of Representatives and Delegates to the Forty-fifth Congress, and that the same day in every second year thereafter shall be the day for the election of Representatives and Delegates in all the States and Territories to each succeeding Congress. This act is simply designed to put an end, from and after 1876, to the present practice of holding congressional elections in the different States upon different days and at different seasons of the year, and even in different years—a practice attended with the disadvantage that in the event of an extra session called after the final adjournment of one Congress on the fourth of March, and before the day appointed for the assembling of the next Congress, many States and Territories might be found unrepresented. The erroneous statement to which our correspondent calls attention has evidently arisen from confounding the provisions of these two acts of Congress.—Balt. Sun.

OUR DUTY.—Under this caption the New York Express makes some wholesome and timely comments, which are particularly applicable and appropriate to our State, and we can render no more timely service to our friends and the cause which our Democratic and Liberal citizens have at heart than to lay before them the remarks of that old and able ally in the cause of consistency and self-government:

"Whatever be the result of the October elections, duty is clear. The battle in which the country is engaged is for reform, for pacification, for peace, for breaking down the barriers of sections, for restoring the era of good will throughout the land, and beyond this it is a contest for the right of self-government against centralization, for one term for the Presidency, for personal responsibility for all men in office, for a purer ballot-box, for compelling the Federal Government to keep its hands and money from our State elections. Still further, it is a direct battle, at and through the ballot-box, against arbitrary power, against a man who is bringing the patronage of the government into conflict with freedom of elections; who has for his Secretary of the Navy one who has robbed the Treasury by the payment of unjust and illegal claims; who has for Postmaster-General a man who allowed the claim of Chorpenning, which had been disallowed for nine years, for $450,000, where not one-fifth of the amount is due; whose Secretary of the Treasury is upon the stump while subordinates are defaulters, and the government is robbed of millions of dollars; whose Secretary of the Interior and Attorney-General are found almost everywhere but at the post of duty, and upon the stump to hold their own places, and to re-elect their chief for another, and, it may be, yet another four years. In such a contest no disasters, no disappointments, no mistakes even in regard to candidates, will make true men falter, and hence our duty is as plain as if it were written on the sky, or upon the minds and hearts of the people. We strike for the country more than party, and look to political victory as the best hope of the people, the States and mankind."

TRUTH ABOUT HORACE GREELEY.—Mr. Greeley's personal participation in the campaign has been to his signal credit.—During two hundred speeches, short and long, and for the most part sudden and impromptu, he uttered no unwise word. On the other hand, these railway and balcony utterances demonstrated to the American people their author's uncommon nobility of mind and heart. Mr. Greeley, by his brief candidacy, has made a great intellectual and moral impression. This exhibition of magnificent common sense in the candidate shows what a rare and admirable behaviour we would get from him in the presidential chair. "Whatever happens in November," said Mr. Greeley to a few friends the other day, "I hope it will be said of me that I have acted my part and done my duty well." We believe that this tribute will be universal and spontaneous throughout the ranks of the liberal republican and democratic parties. From the beginning of the canvass until now, nigh its close, Mr. Greeley has grown steadily in the respect of his opponents and the esteem of his friends.—Golden Age.

STEAM ON CANALS.—The Albany (N. Y.) Journal says the Fountain City has arrived at Albany from Buffalo in five days as another competitor for the $100,000 prize for steam navigation on canals. The Fountain City is water-logged by design, as the inventor desires to test the feasibility of applying his machinery to any boat. The propelling wheels are described as so arranged that the waves produced by one wheel are broken down by those from the other. Her speed averaged over three miles per hour. The wheel has all the power of a screw in the fore and aft blades, and a square pull in addition by one of the side blades, and consequently will develop more power with fewer revolutions per minute.

FUNERAL OF A CHINAMAN.—The funeral ceremonies of the Chinese were observed on the grounds adjoining Harvey's laundry, at Relleville, N. J., Friday.—The dead man was Li Chow Chin, a Chinaman, who was in Captain Harvey's employ, and his funeral was attended by all his fellow workmen, numbering two hundred and twenty Chinese. As the body was placed in the grave, each of the mourners threw a lighted piece of paper upon it, little sticks and small coins were mingled with the earth that was shoveled in, and money was distributed among the strangers present.

GET OUT OF THE WAR RUT.—It is high time the Government should be gotten out of the war rut in which it has been running for eleven years. The people feel that such is the case. Hence the Liberal movement. Hence patriotic men of both parties are putting their shoulders to the wheel side by side. If we are ever to have peace, we surely ought to have it now, when more than seven years have elapsed since the firing of the last gun.

RESTORATION OF "THE CAT" IN ENGLAND—Return to Flogging for Crime.—In England it has been found necessary to return to flogging for crime, and it has been found effective in cases where the usual modes of punishment were inefficient. The London Times gives the following in regard to the two convicts who were whipped at Newgate jail:

The convicts were Daniel Duffy, a lad of 18, ond John Talbot, 20 years of age; the former received twenty-five and the latter thirty lashes with the "cat," at the hands of two of the warders. The prisoners had been sentenced to receive the flogging, to seven years penal servitude, and five years subsequent police supervision, for highway robberies with violence. Duffy had thirteen lashes laid on by one warder and twelve by the other. During the whole time he screamed and writhed in a fearful manner, and appeared to suffer most acutely. The effect of his struggling was to cause a much larger portion of the back to be discolored than is usually the case. The other man, who was evidently of a more determined character and stronger nerve, bore the first few lashes quietly, but at the fifth or sixth stroke he began to appeal for mercy, and continued to do so to the end.

THE QUESTION OF INSANITY.—This plea has now become inseparable with almost every murder case tried in this country, and the more it is discussed the more intricate it is made by the lawyers, until any kind of passion which results in criminal violence is tortured into insanity.—Recently in a Memphis court, in a trial for murder, a witness, Dr. J. K. Allen, who had been a practicing physician for thirty years and the superintendent of the Kentucky Lunatic Asylum for ten years, and during that time had charge of two thousand lunatics, said: "The more I studied the question of insanity, the less I understood of it; and if you ask me where it begins and where it ends, neither I nor any other physician in the world can tell you." This was Dr. Allen's scientific opinion of science; but he warmed up as he went on, and added: "On occasions like this, lawyers make fools of themselves in trying to make fools of the doctors."

HE RECONCILES OLD ANIMOSITIES.—Horace Greeley as the representative of the political coalition sustaining him, is an impersonation of the times—a living illustration of the age. He brings the past to the present. He reconciles old animosities. He is a man of peace. He abandoned the Radical party on account of its Radicalism. He is opposed to Grant. He wants to see the South as well as the North prosperous and happy. He has a big heart and a big head. He can be elected, and he must be.

THE MANNER OF VOTING.—The National Board of Trade, lately in session in New York, discussed at some length the manner of voting. A resolution was presented and referred to the executive committee, recommending what is known as the Hare system. The Hare system allows every voter to give in his own ballot, and he may add to the candidates nominated as many as he pleases, numbering them 1, 2, 3, &c., according to his preferences; so if there are 100,000 voters and ten candidates, it requires 10,000 votes to insure an election of any one candidate.

A SLIGHT MISTAKE.—We hope the following is not apropos to this region at this season of fairs: "A man was awarded a premium at the cattle show and fair in Northampton, Mass., for a two-year-old colt, when the animal he entered was a horse eight years old. The owner had a colt in pasture and sent a man to bring him to the show; the man made a mistake and took the eight-year-old horse, which was in the same pasture, and the committee put him through."

THE ISSUES STATED.—The issues this Fall will resolve themselves into the following:

Greeley or Grant?
The pen or the sword?
A free ballot or a sharp bayonet?
Public interest or family interest?
A Democratic Government or a centralized despotism?

These are all the all-absorbing questions of the day. Honest electors which shall it be?

WHAT THE HERALD THINKS.—The N. Y. Herald, speaking of General Grant, says:

"His own political party is forever destroyed as a distinct organization. Losing its most brilliant lights and trusting to outside combinations, alliances and bargains for its present success, it will never exhibit power again as a republican party."

THE TWO CREEDS.—The New York Times, Grant's chief organ, referring to the disfranchised citizens of the South, says: "Our party does not believe in the immediate and complete amnesty of these men, and does not think that the country desires or needs it." Mr. Greeley favors universal amnesty and perfect reconciliation.

IT is now stated that the Liberals of North Carolina will contest the alleged election of Caldwell, the Radical, for Governor of that State, enough frauds having already been discovered sufficient to neutralize his apparent majority more than three times over.

False Delicacy.—The friends of those who are troubled with bad breath, and thro' over-squeamishness, dislike to refer to it, commit a positive and cruel mistake, especially if they are aware of the merits and great efficacy of the fragrant SOZODONT. This is the true and only remedy for the difficulty; there is no valid excuse for a bad breath now.

Spalding's Glue mends everything.

Old Things Have Passed Away.

This is at least true of the old method of treating the long abused and much abused human body. It is no longer considered wise to put a patient to the torture in order to cure him of a disease in which pain is already undermining the energies of his system. True science ranges itself on the side of nature, and endeavors to assist her in her fight against disease. This is the province of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the most approved tonic ever advertised in this country. It may be recommended as a fall medicine, par excellence; for it is in the fall that biliousness, dyspepsia and malarious fevers are especially prevalent. The frame, exhausted by the heats of summer is relaxed and feeble at its close, and requires, we may say DEMANDS, artificial assistance. Afford it that assistance in occasional doses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and the evils referred to may be escaped. Throughout the far West, and on the steaming alluvial of the Southern rivers, all the varieties of periodical fever are probably rife to-day. Had a course of Hostetter's Bitters been commenced by the sufferers a month ago, i. e., before the unhealthy season set in, seven-eighths of them would in all probability be in their usual health at the present time. So much for want of forecaste. So much for not keeping in the house, and using daily, the best safeguard against epidemic and endemic fevers.

As flocks of imposters and imitators are trying to follow in the wake of the great American remedy, therefore be sure that the article you buy is genuine and verified by the proper trade-marks. The true article can only be obtained in bottles. Beware of the spurious bitters sold by the gallon or in keg.

on the nature, treatment & radical cure of Spermatorhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by Self-Abuse, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., author of the 'Green Book,' &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience, that the sad and alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

To FARMERS!

PACIFIC GUANO COMPANY'S

Soluble Pacific Guano!

THE attention of Farmers and other consumers of Fertilizers is invited to this Guano, as worthy of their especial notice. Its use for several years in Maryland, Virginia and other Southern States for all crops, has given it a standard character for excellence unequalled by any other.

It possesses all the QUICKNESS of Peruvian Guano, with PERMANENT QUALITIES not found in that article. 250 lbs. of this Guano are found more than equal to 300 lbs. of the best Super Phosphates.

It RIPENS the crop from five to seven days earlier than the Phosphates, which feat alone gives it incalculable advantages.
