Thos Harwood Treasurer W.S.

And it is agreed that the said sum of one hundred and one pounds twelve shillings and nine pence is part of the sum included in the said receipt.

It is also agreed that the said Russell on the said twenty second day of June in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy three was a British subject residing in the Kingdom of Great Britain and so continued until his death which happened on the first day of June in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty eight and that the said Russell never did become a subject of this State or of any of the United States of America and that he had not an attorney in in fact acknowledging himself as such for the purpose of receiving debts always from the first day of September in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy six until the passing of the act of assembly aforesaid.

That on the twenty eighth day of June in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy six a Convention of Delegates of Maryland made and entered into the following Resolution to wit.

Resolved unanimously that the deputies of this Colony attending in Congress or a majority of them or any three or more of them be authorized and empowered to concur with the other united Colonies or a Majority of them in declaring the United Colonies free and Independent States;

And that on the fourth day of July in the same year the congress aforesaid made the following Declaration of the Independence of the States of New Hampshire &c &c which Declaration follows in these words to wit.

It is further stated that a war was carried on between the United States of America and the King of Great Britain from the said fourth day of July until the third day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty three on which last day and year peace was concluded between the said United States and the said King of Great Britain, That the Definitive articles of Treaty and peace between the said King of Great Britain and the said United States of America were made on the said third day of September in the year last aforesaid and that they are as follows to wit.

It is also stated that the said Charles Ridgely and Benjamin Nicholson on the said fourth day of July in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy six became citizens and subjects of the State of Maryland & respectively continued citizens and subjects of this state until their respective deaths, and that the said Charles Ridgely departed this life on the first day of June in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty (nine), And the said Benjamin Nicholson departed this life on the first day of September in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety one).

It is also stated that the said James Russell died intestate, and that letters of administration of the goods and chattels rights and credits which were of the said James at the time of his death have been in due form of law granted to the Plaintiff before he impetrated his original writ in this cause).

It is also agreed that the said Charles Ridgely in his life time duly made and executed his last will and testament and thereby appointed the said Rebecca and John Ridgely executors of the same and that they have took upon themselves the execution thereof, and obtained letters testamentary thereon antecedent to the said Clerk's obtaining his original writ in this cause.

And it is agreed that if on this State of Facts the court shall be of opinion that
