RHEUMATISM.

A certain cure for the RHEUMATISM.

POLYANDRIA,

Or, the Essensial Oil of the Cajiput Tree.

A Medicine universally esteemed among the East Indians, as a safe and certain cure for the Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Epilepsy, &c. restoring vigour after luxations and sprains, giving relief in pains of the head and neck, tooth ache, &c. and since it has been introduced into England (which is of very late date) has been highly recommended by some of the most eminent physicians in London, as the best and most effectual remedy for the Gout, as well as the Rheumatism, by dissolving the coagulated Lymph, of which these diseases are formed. In wounded tendons it is of the greatest use by preventing the juice which oozes out of them from fixing. Bruizes and Sprains it infalliably cures, for it keeps the extravasted Lymph and blood, perfectly dissolved, and prevents their fixing in the interstices of the vessels, till nature either takes them up by the refluent blood or expels them through the pores of the skin.

Long contracted Sprains are removed by it, and it is of the utmost service for the Cramp and Numbness, stiffness or weakness of the joints—It is the most efficacious remedy for burns and scalds, extracting the fire very soon and if used immediately will entirely prevent them from blistering. It is excellent for a fresh cut. It is of infinite use for the sting of wasps, &c. the bite of Rattlesnakes, gnats and other venomous animals and insects.

The above valuable medicine, has been but lately introduced into Europe and America in consequence of the tree, from which it is produced yielding its essential oil but in small quantities, and this chiefly monopolized by the government, owing to the great virtue it was found to possess, in the cure of Rheumatisms, &c. the proprietor has divided the original packages, and put it up in smaller made for the purpose, with directions round each bottle, signed in his own hand writing; and in order to demonstrate its vast importance, has thought proper to submit without inspection, the following out of the numerous cures, which by this valuable medicine has been performed since its general use in this country.

Letter from Mr. James Woodman, near Norfolk, to Mr. C. Mullin, July 23, 1813.

DEAR SIR—My son has been more than 8 years afflicted with a Rheumatic complaint.—The excessive pain he constantly endured reduced him to a mere skeleton; and from extreme weakness occasioned even the joints of his legs to turn out of their sockets. A very eminent Physician at Norwich, whom I consulted, informed me nothing could be done for him; and the faculty in general considered him beyond the reach of medicine. He remained in this dreadful situation till the 19th of October last when I was advised to try your Essensial Oil of the Cajipat Tree. Accordingly by persevering in the use of it, his joints are returned to their proper places; and he is now able to walk ten miles with the greatest ease.—Upwards of fifty respectable persons in this town have been at my house to see my son, as all who knew him thought it impossible he ever could recover.

I am, dear sir, your obliged friend,
JAMES WOODMAN.

Broomsgrove, Jan. 4, 1809.

SIR—I have been violently afflicted with a Rheumatic Complaint, even my fingers were so contracted that I could neither dress nor undress myself, or give the least assistance to my family. I have only used one bottle of the Essential of the Cajiput Tree, and by it I am perfectly restored. Yours, &c.
E. HOUGHTON.

December 20, 1810.

SIR—A severe stroke of the Palsy 6 months ago, deprived me of my speech and the use of one side. In this desperate situation, the Oil of the Cajiput Tree was very strongly recommended, and I thank God, as successfully applied. By persevering in its use a short time I was completely restored, and continue to enjoy the full and perfect use of my faculties, altho' near 80 years of age. Yours, &c.
W. FRANCIS.

No. 14, Arabella-row, Pimlico.

 Mr. Francis has held a public situation at the Guildhall of the city of Westminster many years, and is well known to the generality of the respectable inhabitants.

Witherslack, near Kendal, Jan. 13, 1813.

SIR—I beg leave to inform you I have been for several months past afflicted with such violent pains in my hips, thighs and legs, and swelling in my joints, that I could not rest day nor night; nothing that was applied gave me any relief, till a neighbour informed me of the Oil of the Cajiput having performed many surprising cures, sent for a bottle to Mr. Mullen, Bookseller, which gave wonderful relief, and by repeating the same two or three times, I am perfectly cured, and am as well as ever I was in my life.

This I have publicly given under my hand, for the good of all sufferers in the like circumstances. Yours, &c.
