MEM. Grist Mills, Fulling Mills, Cotton Mills, Oil Mills, Paper Mills, Saw Mills, will be insured at Special Rates of Premium.

N. B. Country Houses, standing detached from other Buildings, though of the 6th or 7th Class, will be insured at 50 cents per 100 dollars.

☞ Ships in port, or their Cargoes; also, Ships building or repairing, may be insured against Fire.

CONDITION OF INSURANCE.

I. Application for Insurance on Property out of the city of New York, must be in writing, and specify the construction and materials of the building to be insured, or containing the property to be insured; by whom occupied; whether as a private dwelling or otherwise, and how; its situation with respect to contiguous buildings, and their construction and materials; whether any Manufactory is carried on within or about it; and in case of Goods and Merchandize, whether or not they are of the description denominated Hazardous or Extra Hazardous. And if any person insuring any Building or Goods in this Office, shall describe the same otherwise than as they really are, so that the same be insured at less than the rate of Premium specified in the Printed Proposals of the Company, such insurance shall be void and of no effect.

II. No insurance, whether original or continued, shall be considered as binding, until the actual payment of the Premium.

III. Goods held in trust, or on Commission, are to be insured as such; otherwise the Policy will not cover such property.

IV. Policies of Insurance, subscribed by this Company, shall not be assignable, without the consent of the Company, expressed by indorsement made thereon. In case of assignment without such consent, whether of the whole Policy, or of any interest in it, the liability of the Company in virtue of such Policy shall henceforth cease.

V. Notice of all previous Insurances, upon property insured by this Company, shall be given to them in writing, at or before the time of their making insurance thereon; otherwise the Policy subscribed by this Company shall be of no effect. And, in case of subsequent insurances, on Property insured by this Company, notice thereof must also, with all reasonable diligence, be given to them in writing; to the end that such subsequent insurance may be endorsed on the Policy subscribed by this Company, or otherwise acknowledged in writing; in default whereof such Policy shall thenceforth cease to operate. And in all cases of double Insurance, this Company shall be liable for such rateable proportion of the loss or damage happening to subject insured, as the amount insured by this Company shall bear to the whole amount insured thereon, without reference to the dates of the different Policies.

VI. This Company shall be liable for losses on property burnt by Lightning, but not for any loss or damages by fire happening by means of any invasion, insurrections, riot, or civil commotion, or of any military or usurped power.

VII. Books of account, written securities, or evidence of debt, title deeds, writings, money or bullion, are not deemed objects of insurance.

VIII. Jewels, plate, medals, paintings, statuary, sculptures and curiosities, are not deemed to be included in any insurance, unless specified in the Policy.

IX. All persons insured by this Company, and sustaining loss or damage by fire, are forthwith to give notice thereof to the Company; and as soon after as possible to deliver in a particular account of such loss or damage, signed with their own hands, and verified by their oath or affirmation; and also, if required by their books of account and other proper vouchers; they shall also declare on oath, whether any and what other insurance has been made on the same property, and procure a certificate under the hand of a Magistrate, Notary Public, or Clergyman, (most contiguous to the place of fire, and not concerned in the loss) that they are acquainted with the character and circumstances of the person or persons insured, that he, she or they, really and by misfortune, and without fraud or evil practice hath or have sustained by such fire, loss and damage to the amount therein mentioned; and until such proofs, declarations and certificates are produced, the loss shall not be deemed payable. Also, if there appear any fraud or false swearing, the claimant shall forfeit all claim by virtue of this policy.

X. Payment of losses shall be made in sixty days after the loss shall have been ascertained and proved, without any deduction whatever; and in case differences shall arise touching any loss or damage, it may be submitted to the judgment of arbitrators indifferently chosen, whose award in writing shall be binding on the parties.

XI. Insurance may be made for seven years, by paying the premium for six years; and for a less number of years than seven, a reasonable discount shall be allowed.

XII. Insurances once made, may be continued for such further terms as may be agreed on, the premium therefor being paid and endorsed on the policy or a receipt being given for the same; and they shall be considered as continued under the original representation, in so far as it may not be varied by a new representation in writing.

Letters containing applications for insurance (post paid) may be directed to the Secretary at the office, No. 55, Wall-street, New-York.

WILLIAM HENDERSON, President.
JOHN EASTMOND, Secretary.

Washington Hall Hotel,
SOUTH THIRD STREET,
PHILADELPHIA.
(Late Mansion House.)
WILLIAM RENSHAW

Has the honor of informing the public and particularly ladies and gentlemen travelling, that he has taken from the Washington Benevolent Society of Pennsylvania, on a lease, that elegant and commodious establishment, The Washington Hall Hotel, in South Third street which is now open for their accommodation, and where no expense has been spared by the Society, in building, repairing and beautifying the same, and having erected upwards of forty chambers in addition to the original mansion, will insure to every traveller that so much desired gratification, a single bedded room.

Warm and Cold Baths, are provided for the Ladies and Gentlemen, with every accommodation requisite for the establishment.

The situation is the most central for business being near to all the banks, custom house, auction stores, wharves and the Merchant's Coffee house; all the public stages, regularly arrive and depart from the Washington Hall daily where an office is kept, and seats taken for the Baltimore Pilot, Expedition and Mail, and the New York Pilot, Expedition, Mail and Commercail Stages.

The hour of Breakfast during summer is from 8 to 9 o'clock, and in winter from 9 to 10—dinner will be served up every day at 3 o'clock precisely, the tea at 6, and supper at 9 throughout the year. The supper remains on the table till 12 o'clock, for the accommodation of those who attend public places of amusement, or that arrive late by the stages.

Residing Boarders can be accommodated by the month or quarter on moderate terms.

Detached from the Hotel are extensive stabling, with experienced Grooms for its accommodation.

N. B. An Ordinary every day at 3 o'clock.

W. R. therefore flatters himself that those who favor the above establishment with their visits, will have nothing to complain of, "either as to the style of his apartments, the abundance and variety of his tables, the quality of his liquors, the cleanlines and comfort of his chambers, or the activity and attention of himself and servants."
