And if any person insuring any Building or Goods in this Office, shall describe the same otherwise than as they really are, so that the same be insured at less than the rate of Premium specified in the Printed Proposals of the Company, such insurance shall be void and of no effect.

II. No insurance, whether original or continued, shall be considered as binding, until the actual payment of the Premium.

III. Goods held in trust, or on Commission, are to be insured as such; otherwise the Policy will not cover such property.

IV. Policies of Insurance, subscribed by this Company, shall not be assignable, without the consent of the Company, expressed by indorsement made thereon. In case of assignment without such consent, whether of the whole Policy, or of any interest in it, the liability of the Company in virtue of such Policy shall henceforth cease.

V. Notice of all previous Insurances, upon property insured by this Company, shall be given to them in writing, at or before the time of their making insurance thereon; otherwise the Policy subscribed by this Company shall be of no effect. And, in case of subsequent insurances, on Property insured by this Company, notice thereof must also, with all reasonable diligence, be given to them in writing; to the end that such subsequent insurance may be endorsed on the Policy subscribed by this Company, or otherwise acknowledged in writing; in default whereof such Policy shall thenceforth cease to operate. And in all cases of double Insurance, this Company shall be liable for such rateable proportion of the loss or damage happening to subject insured, as the amount insured by this Company shall bear to the whole amount insured thereon, without reference to the dates of the different Policies.

VI. This Company shall be liable for losses on property burnt by Lightning, but not for any loss or damages by fire happening by means of any invasion, insurrections, riot, or civil commotion, or of any military or usurped power.

VII. Books of account, written securities, or evidence of debt, title deeds, writings, money or bullion, are not deemed objects of insurance.

VIII. Jewels, plate, medals, paintings, statuary, sculptures and curiosities, are not deemed to be included in any insurance, unless specified in the Policy.

IX. All persons insured by this Company, and sustaining loss or damage by fire, are forthwith to give notice thereof to the Company; and as soon after as possible to deliver in a particular account of such loss or damage, signed with their own hands, and verified by their oath or affirmation; and also, if required by their books of account and other proper vouchers; they shall also declare on oath, whether any and what other insurance has been made on the same property, and procure a certificate under the hand of a Magistrate, Notary Public, or Clergyman, (most contiguous to the place of fire, and not concerned in the loss) that they are acquainted with the character and circumstances of the person or persons insured, that he, she or they, really and by misfortune, and without fraud or evil practice hath or have sustained by such fire, loss and damage to the amount therein mentioned; and until such proofs, declarations and certificates are produced, the loss shall not be deemed payable. Also, if there appear any fraud or false swearing, the claimant shall forfeit all claim by virtue of this policy.

X. Payment of losses shall be made in sixty days after the loss shall have been ascertained and proved, without any deduction whatever; and in case differences shall arise touching any loss or damage, it may be submitted to the judgment of arbitrators indifferently chosen, whose award in writing shall be binding on the parties.

XI. Insurance may be made for seven years, by paying the premium for six years; and for a less number of years than seven, a reasonable discount shall be allowed.

XII. Insurances once made, may be continued for such further terms as may be agreed on, the premium therefor being paid and endorsed on the policy or a receipt being given for the same; and they shall be considered as continued under the original representation, in so far as it may not be varied by a new representation in writing.

Letters containing applications for insurance (post paid) may be directed to the Secretary at the office, No. 55, Wall-street, New-York.
