October Term 1793.

And now here, at this day to wit, the second Tuesday of October being the eighth day of the same month Anno Domini Seventeen hundred and ninety three comes again here into our General Court as well the aforesaid Thomas Goodtitle Lessee of the aforesaid Thomas Contee by his Attorney aforesaid as the aforesaid Leonard Warring by his Attorney aforesaid; Nevertheless the aforesaid Leonard Warring by his Attorney aforesaid relinquishing the averment aforesaid above by him pretended says that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the aforesaid Thomas Goodtitle Lessee of the aforesaid Thomas Contee so as aforesaid against him brought nor but that the said Thomas Goodtitle Lessee of the aforesaid Thomas Contee ought to recover his Term aforesaid yet to come and unexpired of in and unto all those tracts or parcels of plantable Land lying and being in Prince Georges County aforesaid called Mazoonscon and Addition Beginning at a bounded Elm Tree standing in the main branch of Deep Creek and at the mouth of a deep branch which falleth into the said main branch and at the North West corner of a parcel of Land called the Exchange and North East Corner of Mazoonscon and running up the said deep branch West thirty nine degrees Southerly thirty two perches then West fifty degrees Southerly fourteen perches then West sixty two degrees Southerly forty five perches then West thirteen degrees Southerly nine perches then West fifty degrees Southerly fourteen perches then West twenty three degrees Southerly fourteen perches then West five degrees Southerly sixty perches then West twenty four degrees Northerly fifty perches then West thirty degrees Southerly thirty six perches then West sixty nine degrees and an half Southerly fifty perches to the head of the said deep branch to a small bounded Oak then West twenty degrees Northerly twenty four perches to a bounded poplar in the line of Thomas Truman Greenfields Land then with the said Greenfields Land North North West one hundred thirty and four perches to a bounded White Oak standing in the main branch of Deep Creek then down the said branch East thirty degrees Northerly one hundred eighty and four perches then to the first bounded tree containing two hundred forty and six Acres more or less Also into all that other Tract or parcel of plantable Land called the Gore lying in Prince Georges County aforesaid Beginning at a bounded White Oak standing on the East side of a small branch which issueth out of the main North branch of Deep Creek the said oak

October Term 1793.

Oak being the fourth bounded Tree of a Tract of Land called Black Walnutt Thicket now in the possession of the Heirs of the late Baker Brooke and the third bounded tree of a Tract of Land called the Barrens running thence six degrees West two hundred and sixty eight perches then East thirty perches then with a straight line to the first Beginning containing twenty five Acres of Land more or less; Also into all those ten Acres of plantable Land on which stands a Mill formerly in the possession of Leonard Waring and Samuel Roundell with the appurtenances besides his Costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended. Therefore it is considered by the Judges here that the said Thomas Goodtitle Lessee of the aforesaid Thomas Contee recover against the aforesaid Leonard Warring his term aforesaid yet to come and unexpired of in and unto all those tracts or parcels of plantable Land lying and being in Prince Georges County aforesaid called Mazoonscon and addition Beginning at a bounded Elm Tree standing in the main branch of Deep Creek and at the Mouth of a deep branch which falleth into the said Main branch and at the North West corner of a parcel of Land called the Exchange and North East corner of Mazoonscon and running up the said deep branch West thirty nine degrees Southerly thirty two perches then West fifty degrees Southerly fourteen perches then West sixty two degrees Southerly forty five perches then West thirteen degrees Southerly nine perches then West fifty degrees Southerly fourteen perches then West three degrees Southerly fourteen perches then West five degrees Southerly sixty perches then West twenty four degrees Northerly fifty perches then West thirty degrees Southerly thirty six perches then West sixty nine degrees and an half Southerly fifty perches to the head of the said deep branch to a small bounded Oak then West twenty degrees Northerly twenty four perches to a bounded poplar in the line of Thomas Truman Greenfields Land then with the said Greenfields Land North North West one hundred thirty and four perches to a bounded White Oak standing in the main branch of Deep Creek then down the said branch East thirty degrees Northerly one hundred eighty and four perches then to the first bounded tree containing two hundred forty and six Acres more or less also into all that other Tract or parcel of plantable Land called the Gore lying in Prince Georges County aforesaid Beginning at a bounded White Oak standing on the East side of